

STUDENT INFORMATION (please print)

Your FAFSA was selected for review in a process called verification. Federal law requires that Anderson University compare your reported FAFSA data to the tax information you and your parent(s) provided the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) for 2019. It may be necessary for you to provide additional information to satisfy verification requirements.

No further action can be taken on your financial aid, including all federal, state, and/or need-based University funds until you submit the required information and complete this process.

If there are differences between your FAFSA data and the verification documents, Anderson University will make corrections electronically. Your financial aid awards may be adjusted as a result of the correction process.

B. FAMILY INFORMATION

Determine which parent(s) to include as members of your household in Section C.

- If your legal parents (biological and/or adoptive) are both living and married to each other, list them both below.
- If your legal parents are separated or divorced, list the parent you lived with more during the past 12 months. If this parent has remarried, also list the person he or she married (your stepparent).
- If you did not live with one parent more than the other, give answers about the parent who provided more financial support during the last 12 months, or during the most recent year that you received support from a parent.
- If your legal parents are not married to each other, but live together, list both of them (regardless of their gender).
- If one of your parents has died, list the surviving parent. If the surviving parent is remarried, list both the surviving parent and the person he or she married (your stepparent).
- Do not include any person who is not married to your parent and who is not a legal or biological parent.
- A couple doesn't have to be legally separated to be considered divorced/separated for FAFSA purposes; they may consider themselves separated when one has permanently left the household.
- A stepparent is treated the same as a biological parent if the stepparent is married to the biological parent whose information is reported on the FAFSA. There are no exceptions.
- Being claimed as a dependent on a parent's tax return is NOT relevant when answering FAFSA questions.

C. NUMBER IN HOUSEHOLD / COLLEGE

In the table below, list all of the people in your parents' household. Attach a separate sheet if more room is required. Include:

- Yourself.
- Your parent(s), including a stepparent.
- Siblings, if your parents will provide more than half of their financial support from July 1, 2021, through June 30, 2022.
- Other people (grandparents, etc.), if they live with your parents and your parents provide more than half of their support, and will continue to through June 30, 2022.

Important: If any member of your household will be enrolled at least half time in a degree, diploma, or certificate program at an eligible postsecondary educational institution, between July 1, 2021, and June 30, 2022, please include the name of the institution they will attend.

The federal government now requires parents of dependent students to have the IRS verify if no tax return was filed. If you fit this category and did not file a 2019 tax return, you must request a Verification of Nonfiling Letter from the IRS to submit in addition to this worksheet. For more information on nonfiling letters, see information on the IRS website: https://www.irs.gov/individuals/get-transcript.

Dependent students who did not file a 2019 tax return are not required to submit an IRS Verification of Nonfiling Letter.
