

RECONCILING WORK:

Bringing Together What We Do With What God Does

FALL CHAPEL 2017

School of Theology and Christian Ministry

- Aug. 31 — Todd Faulkner, Assistant Professor of Christian Ministries
Reconciling Work (Part 1): The Beauty of the Vision
- Sept. 7 — MaryAnn Hawkins, Dean of the School of Theology and Christian Ministry
- Sept. 14 — A conversation with Daniel Ippolito, Professor of Biology, Anderson University
- Sept. 21 — Jay Harvey, Pastor of City Church, Anderson, Ind.
- Sept. 28 — Departmental Chapel: School of Theology and Christian Ministry
- Oct. 5 — A conversation with Charlotte McPherson, Career Missionary
- Oct. 12 — Todd Faulkner
Reconciling Work (Part 2): Great Beauty Has Been Wakened
- Oct. 19 — John Pistole, President of Anderson University
- Oct. 26 — A conversation with Christine Erny, Artist
- Nov. 2 — This Christian Life: Story Time in Miller Chapel
- Nov. 9 — Cindy Faulkner, Executive Pastor, Chesterfield Community Church
- Nov. 16 — A conversation with James Harries, Missionary and Author
- Nov. 30 — Jeanette Flynn, Leadership Focus, Church of God Ministries
- Dec. 7 — Todd Faulkner
Reconciling Work (Part 3): Beyond Its Own Beauty

The Anderson University School of Theology and Christian Ministry holds chapel every Thursday at 11 a.m. in Miller Chapel, located on the first floor of the SOTCM. Everyone on campus is welcome to attend. Undergraduate students attending chapel at the SOTCM do receive chapel credit.