The material contained in the Anderson University Undergraduate Catalog is for information only and does not constitute a contract between the student and the university. The catalog provides an overview of course offerings and content. It is not the official list of offerings for any given term. Students should consult the course schedule for the specific term(s) for which they wish to register. The university and its various units reserve the right to revise, amend, alter, and change from time to time its policies, rules, regulations, and financial charges, including those related to admission, instruction, and graduation, without notice to students. The university reserves the right to withdraw curricula and specific courses, alter course content, change the calendar, and withdraw or change programs and majors offered by the university without notice to students.

Anderson University maintains compliance with applicable Federal and State statutes related to private institutions of higher education including the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), as amended; the Student Right to Know Act, as amended; and the Solomon Amendment. In compliance with the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and 1991, Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 as amended, the university does not discriminate in its educational programs or admissions procedures. Anderson University is a not-for-profit exempt organization as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The following individuals have been designated to handle inquiries regarding non-discrimination policies: Director of Work Life Engagement, 1100 East Fifth St., Anderson, IN 46012, telephone (765) 641-4133, and Director of Disability Services for Students, 1100 East Fifth St., Anderson, IN 46012, telephone (765) 641-4223.

Letter from the President

This is where your college experience begins. Before you move onto the Anderson University campus, you plan a course for your first academic year. You sit down with one of our faculty advisors, and you start your story.

My own Anderson University story started in the 1970s. I came with a single focus — myself. What happened during the next four years transformed my life. My vision broadened as I aligned the focus of my life with God's expectations for me: To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with God (Micah 6:8).

Each academic program offered in this catalog was designed by a remarkable group of faculty who bring exceptional skills and knowledge to the classroom. Each course is a building block that fulfills our mission to educate students for lives of faith and service in the church and society. By choosing a liberal arts institution, you see value in developing not only as a professional but also as a person. Our faculty and staff are committed to mentoring you and sharing in those experiences with you as well, beginning friendships that will last long past graduation.

The Anderson University community is based on the core values of integrity, excellence, servant leadership, responsibility, and generosity. We hope you will be able to experience those core values in every aspect of your life at AU. I encourage you to be open to God's leading in your life at Anderson University, for He knows the plans He has for you! We look forward to journeying with you.

John S. Pistole, JD (BA '78)
President

General Information

HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

Anderson University was founded and is supported by the Church of God, with headquarters in Anderson, Ind. Founded in 1917, the school was a major step in the life of a young and vigorous fellowship of Christians originating about 1880. This fellowship, which took on a common New Testament name, often describes itself as a reformation movement. Its vision was to preach and live out a message of holiness and to invite believers into a body united by a common experience in the saving grace of Jesus Christ.

The message of the church was firmly planted in the mainstream of Christian theology. The quest of this young movement was freedom from what it saw as artificial limitations of church structures and authoritative systems so that the essence of Christian truth might be realized again in freshness and wholeness. The spirit of the movement was one of freedom and joy proclaimed in one early song of the church, "The Bible is our rule of faith and Christ alone is Lord." Out of this history, a free and open tradition has provided a supportive context for the contemporary mission of Christian higher education.

The early witness of the church was through the publishing of inspirational material, songs, books, and a paper known as the Gospel Trumpet. Those who were committed to the publishing work and to the evangelistic work of the church recognized the need to train leaders and workers to take their places in the life of the church. An educational department of the publishing house was started and soon became known as the Anderson Bible Training School. The young school moved rapidly to develop a wider general education program, changed its name to Anderson College and Theological Seminary, then Anderson College, and finally, Anderson University.

Anderson University has grown to comprise an undergraduate liberal arts program organized into six schools, including a graduate seminary. The university offers several graduate degree programs, including the Doctor of Business Administration (DBA), Master of Business Administration (MBA), Master of Music Education (MME), Master of Divinity (MDiv), Master of Arts in Christian Ministry (MACM), and a Master of Theological Studies (MTS).

More than 1,400 students and 300 instructional and professional staff make up the academic community. The university is governed by a board of trustees ratified by the General Assembly of the Church of God, administered by a president and other officers, and staffed by individuals dedicated to the mission of Christian higher education.

MISSION

The mission of Anderson University is to educate for a life of faith and service in the church and society.

LIVING THE MISSION

Established and sustained within the free and open traditions of the Church of God, this university is committed to being a teaching-learning community of the highest order, engaged in the pursuit of truth from a Christian faith perspective.

Through academic and Christian discovery, we intend to graduate people with a global perspective who are competent, caring, creative, generous individuals of character and potential.

We offer quality programs that enable each member of the university to become stronger in body, mind, and spirit; to experience what it means to love God and neighbor; and to adopt Christ-like servant ways in all of life.

Approved by the Anderson University Board of Trustees, 2007

ETHOS STATEMENT

Preamble

Anderson University is committed to the preservation of integrity with our past and our present and to ensuring that important values are continued into our future. We want to state clearly to the various constituents we serve – prospective and current students and their families, alumni, donors, the Church, community partners, and prospective and current faculty and staff – the ideals that bind us together as an academic community. This statement articulates our unifying ethos.

At Our Core

As a learning community, rooted in the Church of God (Anderson) movement, we celebrate the vibrancy of life in Christ. Our identity as a Christian University can be described in three words: Real life transformed. What that means is simple: we want to meet people where they are. We believe that the experiences and beliefs we bring to campus are real and authentic. We choose to welcome those who do not enjoy relationship with Jesus Christ, and we open ourselves to engaging with people, from all walks of life, in a community and culture confidently faithful to biblical truths and expectations. Our commitment begins with respecting the real lives students bring with them to campus, but it does not end there. We want our entire learning community to experience the kind of genuine transformation that comes from knowing Jesus, and understanding his incredible plans for the world. And so we challenge ourselves to consider three big questions: "Who is God?", "Who am I?", and "How do we live?" We believe that the pursuit of answers to these questions will lead to genuine Christian spiritual transformation — in and beyond the classroom. Real life transformed for dynamic service to church and society.

CORE VALUES

We aspire to be a transformative Christian community informed by these core values:

- Servant Leadership — dedication to a life of service; a preferential awareness of the needs of others in the resolution of problems; a willingness to take the first step, however challenging, in meeting the demands of the day; embracing a spirit of servanthood that extends beyond one's culture.
- Excellence — high-quality performance, innovation, and creativity; a relentless pursuit of the best in each individual and the wider learning community.
- Integrity — commitment to Christian moral values, shared virtues, and biblical truth; keeping faith with university policies.
- Responsibility — personal and social accountability to God and neighbor; trustworthy stewardship of personal and university resources.
- Generosity — readiness to give of one's gifts and talents with a spirit of gratitude; an attitude and posture of hospitality that comes with intercultural humility; a willingness to extend others the benefit of the doubt, placing mercy above rightness.

COMMITMENT TO ACADEMIC INQUIRY

As a church-related comprehensive institution of higher learning, Anderson University exists to assist students in their quest not only for relevant knowledge, meaningful relationships, and useful skills, but also for maturity in self-understanding, personal values, and religious faith. Its curricular design and community life seek to unite the objectivity and rigor of academic inquiry with a sense of perspective and mission emerging from biblical revelation. Charles Wesley's concern is crucial: "Unite the pair so long disjoined — knowledge and vital piety."

Anderson University seeks to highlight the freedom of the mind through inquiry, to emphasize the importance of individual worth and personal faith, and to foster the achievement of true community through shared experience and commitment as modeled in Jesus Christ, the servant. Specifically, Anderson University seeks to provide a superior education. As an institution centered in the liberal arts, Anderson University is dedicated to cultivating in each individual an awareness of the physical world, a sense of history, an appreciation of culture, spiritual maturity, a global perspective, social conscience, and an interest in the worth of ideas regardless of their immediate utility.

In addition, the university seeks to prepare thoughtful Christian leaders who are able to enter and compete successfully in graduate schools or the professional fields of their choice. Professional preparation and the liberal arts are not held as antithetical. To the contrary, the aspiration is to bring together the liberal arts, professional preparation, and biblical faith and understanding.

The university community holds a Christian faith perspective and is prepared to raise questions of truth, value, meaning, and morality. It is not hampered by anti-religious bias, nor does it wish to be guilty of unexamined religious conformity. It lives in an atmosphere of free inquiry, even while it affirms that all knowledge is understood most fully in the light of God's redemptive activity in Jesus Christ as that is interpreted through the historic witness of the Bible and the contemporary ministry of the Holy Spirit.

ACCREDITATIONS AND RELATIONSHIPS

Anderson University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission; website hlcommission.org; phone (312) 263-0456. The seminary of the School of Theology and Christian Ministry also is accredited by the Association of Theological Schools, 10 Summit Park Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15275-1103; phone (412) 788-6505.

In addition, professional and program accreditation has been granted by the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology (ABET), the Association of Collegiate Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP), the Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education (CAATE), Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP), the Council on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE), the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE), and the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM).

Anderson University also holds membership in the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, the Council of Independent Colleges, the American Association of University Women, the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities, the Institute of International and Intercultural Studies, Independent Colleges of Indiana, Indiana Conference on Higher Education, Indiana Campus Compact, and Indiana Consortium for International Programs.

Anderson University students come from a wide variety of backgrounds and geographic locations. The university is authorized under federal law to enroll nonimmigrant alien students. International students enrich the community with their own points of view and culture. Consequently, students find themselves immersed in a cosmopolitan environment alive with opportunities for learning. It is expected that students will be accepted on their own merits, without respect to wealth, position, sex, or color.

The university urges students to maintain high academic standards. Careful attention has been given to bringing together a faculty of academic, experiential, and personal competence. Scholastic standards are maintained with the expectation that students will discipline themselves to achieve their best work.

In welcoming students of all nationalities, races, and faiths, Anderson University aspires to treat each student as an individual. All student services are closely coordinated in an attempt to deal with each individual as a "whole person." A significant objective is to increase the student's self-insight and self-discovery and to assist in the intellectual, social, aspirational, and spiritual development of the student.

INSTITUTIONAL ASSESSMENT

In its efforts to continuously improve the quality of instruction at Anderson University and meet the requirements of the Higher Learning Commission, the university has elected to engage in outcome-based assessment activities. These endeavors are embedded into the courses and occur at the institutional level addressing the liberal arts curriculum as well as the departmental level evaluating the outcomes of the major. Data generated from these assessment activities are analyzed and recommendations developed to improve the educational activities of the university.

Academic Degrees

DEGREE PROGRAMS

The undergraduate division of the university offers the Bachelor of Arts degree, the Bachelor of Science degree, the Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree, and the Bachelor of Music degree to students completing a prescribed four-year course of study and the Associate of Arts or Associate of Science degree to students completing a prescribed two-year course of study.

While the university makes every effort to assist students through the academic advising system, the final responsibility for meeting all academic and graduation requirements rests with each student. The catalog under which the student enters and/or graduates serves as the official record of admission, academic, and graduation requirements.

To earn an Anderson University degree, students must be in residence at the university for the last 24 hours applicable to the degree. Under some circumstances, and with special permission, a maximum of 6 hours of the final 24 hours may be taken elsewhere. If the coursework taken at another institution falls within the last 24 hours, a petition to take hours out-of-residence must accompany the request to take courses elsewhere. Contact the Office of the University Registrar for more information.

ASSOCIATE DEGREE

- Complete a minimum of 60 hours, as specified in the departmental concentration listing. Distribution of a portion of these hours must be in the liberal arts program as specified by the program department.
- Determine a departmental concentration of specific courses in an area of study.
- Achieve a minimum GPA of 2.0.
- Achieve a minimum GPA of 2.0 for all courses specified in the area of concentration.
- All full-time students must attend chapel/convocation each semester in residence.
- Meet residence requirements listed elsewhere.

It is the responsibility of the student to plan for and complete graduation requirements. Students with questions should consult with the appropriate academic advisor, the Office of the University Registrar, or the dean of the appropriate school.

ASSOCIATE DEGREE AS SECOND DEGREE

A student already holding a degree from another institution may earn an associate degree from Anderson University under the following guidelines:

- Adequate work must be done at Anderson University to provide a satisfactory basis for evaluating student performance.
- Adherence to the general associate degree requirements as stated in the catalog.
- All requirements for the specific associate degree must be met.
- Completion of a minimum of 18 hours, all of which must be earned at Anderson University.
- No more than 6 hours of a previous degree may be used in building the associate degree concentration.
- Any elective hours are needed to complete the minimum should be supportive of the concentration area.

Individuals holding an Associate of Arts degree from Anderson University may not earn a second Associate of Arts degree. Students desiring to pursue an additional concentration should consult with the Office of the University Registrar.

BACHELOR'S DEGREE

- Complete 120 hours.
- Achieve a minimum GPA of 2.0 (out of 4.0).
- Complete requirements of all components in the liberal arts program (see the Liberal Arts Program section in this catalog).
- Declare a major, as specified in the departmental listing, with a minimum overall GPA of 2.0 in the major.
- All full-time students must attend chapel/convocation each semester in residence.
- Meet residence requirements (see the Academic Policies section of this catalog).

It is the responsibility of the student to plan for and complete graduation requirements. Students with questions should confer with their academic advisor, the Office of the University Registrar, or dean of the appropriate school.

BACHELOR'S DEGREE AS A SECOND DEGREE

Students already holding a bachelor's degree from another institution may earn the Bachelor of Arts degree, the Bachelor of Science in Nursing, the Bachelor of Music, or the Bachelor of Science degree from Anderson University by completing a minimum of 30 additional hours. Complete the Core Curriculum requirements for the degree sought, and complete all the requirements for the major field of study. A different degree and major must be chosen from the previous degree; not more than 12 hours from the previous degree may be used in building the new major. A projected program for the Anderson University degree should be planned by the student and advisor and approved by the University Registrar no later than the third week of the semester in which the work is begun.

Students holding a bachelor's degree from Anderson University may pursue a second bachelor's degree by completing the requirements listed above. Students holding a BA, BSN, BS, or BMUS degree from Anderson University may not earn a second degree, but they may earn additional majors after graduation. Students holding other Anderson University bachelor's degrees may earn additional majors after graduation but must complete all liberal arts requirements that normally accompany the new major. Students desiring to pursue additional majors and/or minors should consult the Office of the University Registrar.

TWO DEGREES CONCURRENTLY

Students who wish to earn any two degrees (BA, BM, BSN, or BS) concurrently must accumulate 30 semester hours of credit beyond the 120 credit hours required for the first degree. In addition, they must fulfill the liberal arts core requirements for both degrees and the requirements for the major in each degree program.

Note: A second degree is not awarded to students who are pursuing a complementary major.

Admissions and Financial Information

UNDERGRADUATE ADMISSIONS POLICY

Anderson University seeks to admit students who are interested in higher education from a Christian faith perspective and have demonstrated potential for completing the academic degree they plan to pursue. This policy speaks to general admission to the university and not academic program-specific admission, which is handled separately by respective departments.

Behavior that is inconsistent with university standards may result in revocation of admission. Note also that the admission decision may be held until after resolution of any pending legal charges against an applicant have been resolved.

FIRST-TIME FRESHMEN

At Anderson University, we practice a holistic application review. We consider each student's background, academic credentials and personal story. Anderson University maintains a rolling admission cycle. Applicants are encouraged to apply early to maximize institutional scholarship opportunities.

A requirement to become degree-seeking at Anderson University is to provide evidence of high school completion. A standard high school diploma, or successful completion of the General Education Development test (GED) or of a Home School Program of Study is required for admission. (Graduates of regionally accredited institutions and their international equivalents who have been awarded an Associate in Applied Science or higher level degree are exempt from the standard high school diploma/GED requirement.)

Anderson University offers a test-optional admission process. The test-optional alternative allows us to consider student strengths which may be demonstrated in areas other than standardized test scores.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION (DOMESTIC)

- Application for admission is available on our website at anderson.edu/admissions or via the Common Application process at commonapp.org (no application fee required).
- Official high school transcript with completion of Standard Core 40 or Honors Diploma.
- Optional SAT/ACT or CLT Test scores. Self-reported scores, the student score report, official scores from testing center or scores listed on official high school transcript may be accepted.
- Factors given consideration in the admission decision include:
 - Academic ability as indicated by SAT/ACT/CLT or by previous academic performance in high school or college by GPA, class rank, weighted GPA, college prep curriculum, or ISTEP scores (if Indiana);
 - Other factors including character; work ethic; community, school, and church involvement; time management; leadership potential; and other personal or extenuating circumstances.

Final high school transcripts showing date of graduation are required to be sent directly from the school to Anderson University verifying completion and legitimacy. If a transcript is called into question, a letter from the high school certifying graduation and/or credits may be required.

Admission decisions may include the following:

- Admission with Distinction (Honors Day invitation): ≥ 3.75 GPA (optional 1200 SAT/27 ACT)
- Standard Admission: ≥ 2.75 GPA (optional 950 SAT/20 ACT)
- Admission by Director Review: ≥ 2.0 GPA (optional 860 SAT/18 ACT)
- Admission Committee/Alpha Admission: < 2.0 GPA or IN General Diploma (optional 860 SAT/18 ACT)
- Denial: Students denied admission who wish to reapply at a later date are recommended to complete one year of full-time study at a regionally accredited community college, with a minimum of 12 non-remedial credits earned with a 2.0 or higher GPA.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Following written application and submission of required materials, applicants are individually considered for academic eligibility.

Requirements for Admission to Anderson University (International)

- Application for admission online or through the Common App (no application fee required)
- Official High School Transcript
- Official score report from TOEFL, IELTS, or Duolingo is required if English is not the first or primary spoken language.
 - Minimum TOEFL Minimum Requirements:
 - ▲ IBT (Internet-Based) score of 78
 - ▲ PBT (Paper-Based) score of 564
 - ▲ CBT (Computer-Based) score of 210
 - ▲ TOEFL Essentials score of 8 or higher MAY be considered
 - Minimum IELTS Requirement: 6.0
 - Minimum Duolingo Requirement: 105
- Evidence of Financial Support
 - Affidavit of Support from all financial sponsors
 - Official bank statements from applicant and all supporting sponsors

Proof of English proficiency may be waived on a case-by-case basis for those students who have attended secondary school in an English speaking (instruction) school. Please contact your admission counselor to discuss the waiver.

Credits earned through educational institutions located outside of the United States will be considered for acceptance after an appropriate evaluation. Educational institutions must be recognized by the Ministry of Education (or other accrediting body) of the respective country in order for credit to be accepted. Students may be required to send their documents to an evaluation agency for a course-by-course evaluation report. An official copy of this report should be sent directly to the Registrar's Office at Anderson University. This report will then be reviewed to determine acceptable transfer credit.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

Anderson University welcomes applications from transfer students. The same admission requirements are expected as for freshman applicants, with the following exceptions:

- An applicant with 12 or more college credits and a 2.0 GPA following high school graduation will be considered for admission as a transfer student. If less than 12 credits have been earned, a high school transcript showing proof of graduation (or GED) is required, and the applicant must meet the above guidelines for freshman admission.
- A transfer recommendation form may be required from the last university attended.
- An applicant with 12 or more college credits below a 2.0 GPA will be considered for conditional admission by committee, which may admit the student on probation. Students on probation may not enroll in more than 12 credit hours per semester until a 2.0 GPA is achieved.
- An official transcript must be received from each post-secondary institution attended, regardless of whether the student earned credit or withdrew prior to credit being earned.
- Official transcripts are those that are received by Anderson University directly from the institution(s) awarding the original credit. Official transcripts are used for admissions purposes only and are not returnable or transferable.
- Official transcripts will be evaluated for credit transfer upon receipt. Courses earning a C- or better from a regionally accredited or a Council for Higher Education accredited institution will be evaluated for credit by the Office of the Registrar at Anderson University. Students may use Indiana's Core Transfer Library transferin.net/earned-credits/core-transfer-library to perform an online self-assessment of transferable credits.
- For additional information regarding transfer of credit earned from other institutions, see also the Academic Policies section of this catalog.

READMISSION

Students planning to return to Anderson University after an absence must complete a readmission form, which can be obtained online at anderson.edu/admissions.

- Transcripts of all college work taken since the last date of attendance at Anderson University must be submitted.
- All students applying for readmission to Anderson University must be approved by the admissions committee before readmission can be granted.

APPEALING THE ADMISSION DECISION

An applicant denied admission or readmission, or who is granted a conditional admission or readmission, may appeal that decision by submitting a written request for review with the Director of Admissions. Any such appeal should include supporting documentation which was not previously available, particularly information of an academic nature. Appeals will be reviewed by the Admissions Committee. Appeals for admission in a given semester will not be considered after the first day of classes.

MARKETING, RECRUITING, AND ADVERTISING

As a member of National Association for College Admission Counseling (NACAC), Anderson University follows the NACAC Code of Ethics and Professional Practices in the recruitment of all students, available online at nacacnet.org/advocacy--ethics/NACAC-Guide-to-Ethical-Practice-in-College-Admission.

In addition to NACAC's Code of Ethics and Professional Practices, Anderson University will ensure compliance with program integrity requirements consistent with the regulations issued by the Department of Education (34 C.F.R 668.71-668.75 and 668.14) related to restrictions on misrepresentation, recruitment, and payment of incentive compensation. This applies to the educational institution itself and its agents including third party lead generators, marketing firms, or companies that own or operate the educational institutions. As part of efforts to eliminate unfair, deceptive, and abusive marketing aimed at Service members.

AU and its agents including third party lead generators, marketing firms, or companies that own or operate the educational institutions will:

1. Ban inducements, including any gratuity, favor, discount, entertainment, hospitality, loan, transportation, lodging, meals, or other item having a monetary value of more than a de minimis amount, to any individual or entity, or its agents including third party lead generators or marketing firms other than salaries paid to employees or fees paid to contractors in conformity with all applicable laws for the purpose of securing enrollments of service members or obtaining access to TA funds. Educational institution sponsored scholarships or grants and tuition reductions available to military students are permissible, and;
2. Refrain from providing any commission, bonus, or other incentive payment based directly or indirectly on securing enrollments or federal financial aid (including TA funds) to any persons or entities engaged in any student recruiting, admission activities, or making decisions regarding the award of student financial assistance, and;
3. Refrain from high-pressure recruitment tactics such as making multiple unsolicited contacts (three or more), including contacts by phone, email, or in-person, and engaging in same-day recruitment and registration for the purpose of securing service member enrollments.

FEES

All students have the benefit of a scholarship since they do not pay the full cost of their education. The Church of God, alumni, businesses, industries, foundations, and private donors contribute substantially to underwrite the education cost of each student attending Anderson University.

The following charges are the basic budget costs per semester for the 2022-23 academic year:

Tuition	$16,535
Room	3,310
Meal Plan	2,400
Fees	505
Total	$22,750

This budget provides admission as a full-time student enrolled for 12-18 hours. Students are also responsible for field trip costs. Room rent is based on two people per room in most regular university residence halls. Residential freshmen, sophomores, and juniors are required to purchase a meal plan.

The university meal plan offers students various dining options around campus, including the Marketplace (main cafeteria), Raven's Haven (Chick-fil-A and a student choice venue, which is a rotating concept for each semester determined by student vote), Mocha Joe's (student-run coffee venue), and Create (grab and go). Menu selection and hours of service vary to accommodate students' needs and schedules.

In addition to these basic costs, students should budget $2,500-$3,000 each semester for books, additional meals, and incidental expenses. Rates stated above are subject to change.

Although all tuition, room, and board charges are due and can be paid at the beginning of each semester, a monthly payment plan is available. Information regarding the payment plan is sent to all new and returning students. Payment plan information is available in the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships.

Special fees and other rates may be found on the university website.

FINANCIAL AID

Anderson University seeks to provide financial counseling and assistance to all students desiring such services. A number of aids and resources are available to the university to assist the varied financial needs of Anderson University students.

Most aid at Anderson University is based on financial need. Financial need can be defined as the difference between the cost of education and the anticipated financial contribution from the family toward college costs. Anderson University believes the basic responsibility of educational financing rests with students and their families.

Financial aid is offered to Anderson University students through a combination of aid programs available from federal, state, and local sources. This combination of sources is referred to as a financial aid package. The financial aid package is generally offered with two components of aid: non-repayable assistance (grants or scholarships) and self-help assistance (student loans and employment).

To be considered for need-based financial assistance, students must submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Financial aid is awarded annually; Dec. 1 is the preferred date for receiving the FAFSA. Aid requests are considered after March 1 and throughout the school year from the available funds remaining after the preference date.

Occasionally, students may find it necessary to vary their enrollment status (i.e., changing from full time to part time). Because eligibility to the financial aid programs is related directly to enrollment status, students should consult with the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships to learn what effect, if any, their contemplated change of enrollment will have on their financial aid.

Additional policies and procedures are available from the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships or online at anderson.edu/financial-aid.

VETERANS BENEFITS

Anderson University attempts to make a good-faith effort to comply with Executive Order 13607: establishing principles of excellence for educational institutions serving service members, veterans, spouses, and other family members. These principles were established to strengthen oversight, enforcement, and accountability of education programs and to ensure all service members, veterans, and their families have the necessary information they need to make informed decisions concerning their educational goals. In addition, we advise service members to speak with an education services officer or counselor within their military service prior to enrolling at the university.

Anderson University complies with regulations of the State of Indiana Department of Veterans Affairs, Veterans Educational Unit, including approval of the university calendar, tuition and fees schedule, and the academic policies of the university. The university is authorized to enroll recipients of Veterans Administration benefits in regularly scheduled credit courses leading to standard college degrees.

Inquiries concerning eligibility should be directed to the Department of Veterans Affairs. Individuals planning to study under one of the education chapters should receive approval before enrolling. More information is available online at anderson.edu/registrar/veterans.

VA Chapter 31 and Chapter 33 – Assessment of Late Fees. In accordance with Title 38 US Code 3679 (e), Anderson University adopts the following provisions for any students using U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) Post 9/11 GI Bill (Ch. 33) or Vocational Rehabilitation & Employment (Ch. 31) benefits, while payment to the institution is pending from the VA. Anderson University will not:

- Prevent the student's enrollment;
- Assess a late penalty fee to the student;
- Require the student to secure alternative or additional funding;
- Deny the student access to any resources (access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities) available to other students who have satisfied their tuition and fee bills to the institution.

However, to qualify for this provision, such students are required to:

- Produce the VA Certificate of Eligibility (COE) or Change of Program or Place of Training Form 22-1905.
- All students must submit a VA Education Benefit Request Form for each semester they intend to receive VA payments. Students' classes won't be certified to the VA unless they are enrolled in the classes.

Students who have questions about Veteran Affairs (VA) benefits prior to admission should address inquiries to the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs at (888) 442-4551 or www.va.gov/education. Students who have questions about VA benefits after admission should address inquiries to the Office of the University Registrar.

REFUND POLICY

Registration constitutes a contractual agreement between the university and the student. Students withdrawing from all classes after classes have begun or reducing the number of hours carried may be entitled to a reduction in charges for tuition, room rent, and meal ticket. Reductions for withdrawals or schedule revisions occurring on or before the end of:

- first week of classes — 90% reduction
- second week of classes — 80% reduction
- third week of classes — 60% reduction
- fourth week of classes — 40% reduction
- fifth week of classes — 20% reduction
- sixth week of classes — no reduction

Adjustments are based upon the date of official withdrawal. Official withdrawal from all classes must be preceded by an exit interview with the director of student success. In extenuating circumstances, students may initiate complete withdrawal from all classes by telephone or letter to the assistant provost and dean of students.

Reductions are based on charges made to students and not the amount paid on the students' accounts. There is no reduction of any charges for students who have been dismissed or suspended for disciplinary reasons. Proportional adjustments may be made for summer sessions and those classes where the start dates are not part of the standard term dates.

Questions concerning the policy for complete withdrawal should be directed to the dean of students. Questions of adjustment for reducing the number of hours should be directed to the Office of the University Registrar.

Academic Policies

ACADEMIC FORGIVENESS

The Academic Forgiveness Policy extends to a student who has been away from Anderson University for a period of at least five years and was not making satisfactory academic progress, meaning an overall GPA of less than 2.0. This is a one-time opportunity to establish a new GPA.

The policy will not apply if a student has earned a degree, diploma, or certificate from another college or university. A student receiving academic forgiveness is not eligible for graduation honors. The student must not have been enrolled in any coursework for credit at Anderson for a minimum of five consecutive years prior to the point of requesting academic forgiveness. Students who earn grades of C-, D, F, or WF may request up to 15-semester credits.

Upon readmission to AU, the student must demonstrate academic ability by successfully completing 12 semester credits at the university, with no grades below a C. Students who meet these two conditions may petition in writing to the university registrar by completing an academic forgiveness application to have their grades forgiven and not computed in the grade point average and have the words “academic forgiveness” annotated on their record.

Once the application for academic forgiveness has been approved and after consultation with the student, the Office of the University Registrar will make the following adjustments to the student’s transcript: Up to 15 semester credits of coursework, to be selected by the student, will be rescinded prior to the point of academic forgiveness; however, course titles and grades from these courses will remain on the transcript. Calculation of the student’s GPA will not include grades for classes approved for forgiveness. For more information, contact the Office of the University Registrar.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Anderson University supports and promotes academic honesty and personal integrity and regards cheating, plagiarism, and all other forms of academic dishonesty as serious offenses against the university community. The Policy on Academic Integrity may be found in full in the Faculty Handbook (Section 4.23) and is also referenced in the Student Handbook available online at anderson.edu/student-life/handbook.

ACADEMIC LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Anderson University offers undergraduate students who are in good standing, as defined by Anderson University’s academic policy, and who are not subject to disciplinary action the opportunity to request an academic leave of absence.

The Leave of Absence Policy applies to students who are pursuing a degree from Anderson University but leave the university for a semester to participate in a study-abroad program, internship, or practicum, which is not done with an AU matriculation. The leave of absence may also apply to students who, due to circumstances beyond their control (such as the need to care for ill parents or the onset of a personal illness or military training), must suspend their enrollment in classes for a semester. A leave of absence is typically granted for one semester but, depending on the specific circumstances, can be granted for a full academic year if the student intends to return to Anderson University for the completion of their degree. To qualify, students must be in good academic and financial standing and must complete the required application forms.

The academic records of students granted a leave of absence remain in an active status. While on academic leave of absence, the student retains the right to use some campus facilities such as the AU library, student counseling services, and career services.

Due to Visa restrictions, international students may not be eligible for academic leave and should consult with the Cultural Resource Center. For more information, please see the Office of the University Registrar.

ACADEMIC LOAD

A full-time academic load is 12-18 hours. Upon approval from their school dean, students with records of above-average academic performance may register at additional cost for additional hours. Summer school terms, international opportunity, or transfer work may not be used to establish a semester GPA.

The number of hours taken each semester is dependent upon a student's GPA:

- Students with a 3.25 GPA may register for 19 hours.
- Students with a 3.5 GPA may register for 20 hours.
- Students with a 3.75 GPA may register for 21 hours.

These guidelines also apply to students who have earned 52 or more hours and whose cumulative GPAs at the time of registration meet the stated standards. The factors of previous academic achievement, types of courses to be taken, and demands of employment must also be recognized.

ACADEMIC PROBATION

Students may be dropped from the university at any time when excessive class absences or academic performance indicates an inability or unwillingness to achieve normal progress toward a degree. Typically, however, students not in good academic standing are placed on academic probation for a maximum of two consecutive semesters.

In general, students on academic probation may not participate in any extracurricular activities. The provost has the final authority over the conditions placed upon students on academic probation.

Before attending classes, students on academic probation are expected to develop and sign an academic support contract with the director of educational support services. The contract may include, but is not limited to, such items as study assistance, limits on work commitments, housing, course load, and class attendance.

ACADEMIC PROGRESSION

Any student not achieving acceptable standards may be barred from returning to Anderson University for a period of at least one semester. Students who are readmitted after having been barred once are expected to attain a 2.0 current GPA in their next 12 hours and must continue to achieve or make substantial progress toward the stated minimum standards in order to continue. If the student is barred a second time, it will be for at least two years. Any subsequent readmission will be regarded as a final opportunity to continue studies at Anderson University.

The provost may request the barring appeals committee to review and make recommendations regarding cases when necessary. Extenuating circumstances may justify the continuation of students whose cumulative GPA falls below the stated standards.

ACADEMIC STANDING

To remain in good academic standing, students must maintain the following standards:

Hours Earned	GPA
1-29	1.6
30-59	1.8
60 or more	2.0

ADVANCED PLACEMENT

Advanced placement and/or credit may be earned through placement examination for a maximum of 30 credits. The four examinations Anderson University recognizes are the Advanced Placement Program (AP) of the College Board, the College Level Examination Program (CLEP), the Cambridge International Examinations (GCE A level), and the International Baccalaureate Program, subject to approval by the academic departments. Credit received by examination is tuition-free and applies toward the requirements for graduation. For more information, consult the university website at anderson.edu/registrar for the most current and updated information.

AUDITING A COURSE

As a means of enrichment to the degree-seeking student, Anderson University recognizes the following ways of auditing a course:

1. Occasional class visitation: A student may wish to visit a class to hear a lecture and/or a discussion on a given topic. The instructor's consent is the only necessary requirement.
2. Auditing one course without fee: Any student registered for 12-18 hours who is making satisfactory academic progress may enroll in an additional class on an informal audit or recorded audit basis.
 - A. Informal Audit: Infrequent attendance of a class with no course obligation. Although formal registration is not required, the student must have the written consent of the instructor. Permission forms are available in the Office of the University Registrar. No record is made of the audit on the student's permanent record.
 - B. Recorded Audit: Regular attendance with normal course obligations for the purpose of having the audit recorded on the student's permanent record. In this situation, the student should follow these procedures:
 - i. Register as an audit using the schedule of classes form or change of schedule form, signed by the advisor.
 - ii. Adhere to the instructor's stated attendance policies.
 - iii. Complete sufficient work of C- quality or better in order to have the audit recorded.
 - iv. Changes of schedules to or from an audit must be done no later than the end of the 5th week of the semester.

The course will be recorded on the student's permanent record as an audit if the above conditions are met and the student does satisfactory work in the course. If the above conditions are not met, the instructor will notify the Office of the University Registrar and no record of the audit will be made.

3. Auditing with payment of fee: A student who does not meet the specific requirements as outlined above may, upon payment of the audit fee, audit a course as outlined under "A" or "B" above. Full-time students are entitled to audit one course per semester at no additional charge. Other students will be charged the current fee.

The courses will appear on the transcript with a grade of "AU" and will not count toward academic credit. Auditing is a policy privilege extended to full- and part-time AU students only.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

Effective learning in a university requires the active involvement of both students and faculty. Students are expected to attend all classes unless prevented by extenuating circumstances. Inasmuch as students are responsible for the learning that may develop from both in-class and out-of-class experiences, they should anticipate absences for a good cause (such as varsity athletic trips, field trips, music, drama, and debate trips) and advise their instructors of such absences as far in advance as possible.

Any absence from a class results in a loss of learning for the student. It is the student's obligation to personally notify the individual course instructor(s) about any absence, in advance if possible. Students may be directly penalized only after the number of absences exceeds the number of class meeting hours per week. Where a student misses more than the number of classes stated above, the course instructor has the discretion to allow for the completion of missed work and to determine how such work will be evaluated, including possible penalties.

CLASS LEVEL IDENTIFICATION

Class identification at Anderson University is determined as follows:

- Freshman: A student who has completed fewer than 24 hours of college credit.
- Sophomore: A student who has completed 24-51 hours of college credit.
- Junior: A student who has completed 52-87 hours of college credit.
- Senior: A student who has completed 88 or more hours of college credit.
- Lower-Division: Freshman and sophomore students.
- Upper-Division: Junior and senior students.
- Part-time: A student carrying 1-11 hours.
- Special: Audit, guest student, or high school student. Also includes children or adults who are taking music lessons but are not enrolled in academic work at the university level.

COURSE REPETITION

Students may repeat courses for which they received a C- or lower by simply re-enrolling in the same institutional courses. If students wish to repeat courses for which the departmental captions or numbers have changed, they must petition the university registrar. Furthermore, students may repeat courses for which they received a C or above by petitioning the dean of the school in which each course is offered to be granted an exception. The following rules apply in all cases:

- Students may repeat any given course a total of only two times during their academic career.
- Withdrawal (W, WF, or AW) grade counts as an attempt, but it does not change the previous grade.
- All previous grades received will remain on students' academic records.
- Only the most recent grade received will be used in calculating GPA.
- Credit hours earned toward graduation will be counted for only the most recent course taken.

This policy does not apply to Anderson University credit by examination or transfer credit. The course repetition policy does not apply to courses taken at other colleges or universities and transferred to Anderson University.

CREDIT HOUR POLICY

Anderson University's definition of a credit hour formalizes compliance with federal and accreditation expectations and helps to provide consistency throughout the University. In general, academic courses constitute between 35-45 hours of learning engagement for every credit hour earned. For example, one credit is equivalent to 50 minutes (at a minimum) of class time (direct instruction) and a minimum of two hours of out of class student work per week. Therefore, a three-credit course will typically meet 150 minutes per week for 15 weeks (37.50 hours, direct faculty instruction). Credit hour guidelines for various modalities are as follows:

Classroom Instruction (Face-to-Face)

- Lecture/Seminar: Courses focus on principles, concepts or ideas, lecture, discussion and demonstration. A semester credit hour is earned across 15 weeks for three 50-minute sessions per week or two 75-minute sessions per week of direct faculty instruction with a minimum of two hours of student learning engagement outside of class per week throughout the semester. For example, a typical three-credit hour course meets for three, 50-minute sessions or two, 75-minute sessions a week for fifteen weeks. Most lecture and seminar courses are awarded 3 credits.
- Accelerated: Courses offered within the standard 15-week term but in an accelerated format (e.g. 7 or 8 weeks). The content and substantive learning outcomes are the same. These courses must meet the definition of standard lecture contact time and out of class engaged learning within the time frame the accelerated version is offered.

Practical Application

- Laboratory: Courses where the major focus is on "hands on" experience to support student learning (use of equipment, activities, tools, machines generally found in a laboratory). One to two Laboratory credits represents a minimum of 1 hour per week of lecture or discussion plus a minimum of 2-4 hours of scheduled supervised or independent laboratory work.
- Studio: Courses taught as applied study on a private or semi-private basis. Students receive anywhere from one to two credits for applied music courses. Private instruction ranges from 30 to 60 minutes with independent practice as prescribed by the instructor.
- Internship/Field Experience: Courses developed for independent learning and the development and application of job related or practical skills in a particular discipline. These courses allow for observation, participation, and fieldwork, and are generally offered off campus. Internship time includes a combination of supervised time by approved experts outside the university, student assignments, and time supervised by a university instructor.

- Practicum/Student Teaching: Courses developed for independent learning and the development and application of job related or practical skills in a particular discipline. These courses allow for observation, participation, client evaluation, fieldwork, and are offered off campus. Internship time includes a combination of supervised time by approved experts outside the university, student assignments, and time supervised by a university instructor (See above).
- Clinical Placement: Supervised experiences where students are afforded an opportunity to apply skills and techniques acquired from assessment and intervention-oriented course material. Number of hours varies by academic program based on clinical placement site hour requirements and student assignments (See above).

An equivalent amount of work is required in courses and academic activities where direct instruction is not the primary mode of learning, such as independent study, and directed study, online, and hybrid courses. Credits will be awarded on the basis of documented learning objectives, expected learning outcomes, and student workload expectations within a specified period of academically engaged time.

- Independent Study: Courses that permit a student to study a subject or topic in considerable depth beyond the scope of a regular course. Students meet periodically, as agreed upon with the faculty member, for the duration of the course. University faculty provides guidance, critique, and review of the student's work. Students demonstrate competency through the completion of a final assessment either by submitting a final paper, project or portfolio, etc. as required by the faculty member. Credit hours are assigned based on approximately 35-45 hours of learning engagement per credit hour for the amount of activity associated with the course, faculty supervision, and amount of student outside work.
- Directed Study: Courses that are regular courses, not available in the semester and that the student has not been able to schedule in the regular sequence. Scope, assignments, and requirements for a directed study course are the same as for the regular course with the same course number, title, and description. Student meets with the instructor as arranged completing approximately 35-45 hours of learning engagement per credit hour which may include face-to-face instruction, independent work, online discussion, and written assignments or tests.
- Hybrid: A course is considered hybrid (or blended) when it is composed of both online learning and classroom learning and incorporates the best features of both environments to meet the learning objectives of the course. No less than 51% of the course is to be scheduled as face-to-face, and no more than 49% of the course is to be scheduled as online. For a three-credit course, no less than 76.50 minutes (1.275 hours) a week can be scheduled face-to-face and no more than 73.50 minutes (1.225 hours) per a week can be scheduled online equaling a total of 150 minutes of instruction per week.
- Online (Asynchronous): Courses where "instructors and students do not meet in the same space". Regardless of mode of instruction, courses should be consistent in terms of quality, assessment, learning outcomes, requirements, etc. as courses offered face-to-face with the same department prefix, number, and course title. Faculty must demonstrate active academic engagement through interactive methods, including but not limited to, interactive tutorials, group discussions, virtual study/project groups, discussion boards, chat rooms, etc. Simply logging on, either by faculty or students, does not constitute active student learning. Credits hours assigned to a course delivered online must equal the number of credit hours for the same course delivered face-to-face.

Revised Expanded Policy: March 18, 2019

DEAN'S LIST

Full-time students (enrolled in 12 or more hours) who earn a semester GPA of 3.5 to 3.99 qualify for the Dean's List. Full-time students who earn a perfect 4.0 semester GPA qualify for the Dean's List with the additional honor of "Special Distinction."

GRADING

Grades, Hours, and Credit Points:

An "hour" is coursework equivalent to one class hour per week for a semester. A "credit point" is a measure of the quality of work performed. Credit points are figured only on work completed at Anderson University.

Grade reports are issued by the Office of the University Registrar in the following terms:

A, A-	Achievement of superior quality in course objectives.
B+, B, B-	Achievement of excellent quality in course objectives.
C+, C, C-	Achievement of average or somewhat above average quality in course objectives.
D+, D	Basically unsatisfactory achievement but of sufficient quality to meet minimum requirements.
F	Clearly unsatisfactory or below minimal achievement of course objectives.
I	Incomplete. Allows completion of delayed work by written agreement between instructor and student. Must be on file with the university registrar before grades are processed; becomes F at the end of the fifth week of the following semester if not completed.
IP	In progress.
NR	Faculty did not record a grade.
W	Withdrew.
WF	Withdrawn failing.
AW	Administrative Withdrawal.
S	Work completed at C- level or above.
U	Work completed at D+ level or below.
CR	Work completed at a satisfactory level.
NC	Work completed at an unsatisfactory level.

Students may withdraw from courses during the first five weeks without having a notation on their transcripts; they may withdraw with a recorded W after the fifth week but no later than the end of the 10th week. Students may change their registration to or from S/U during the first five weeks of the semester. No withdrawals or changes in registration are permitted after the 10th week.

Credit points per hour:	A	=4.0
	A-	=3.67
	B+	=3.33
	B	=3.0
	B-	=2.67
	C+	=2.33
	C	=2.0
	C-	=1.67
	D+	=1.33
	D	=1.0

No credit points are given for courses bearing grades of CR, NC, S, U, F, I, W, WF, or AW. The credit point index is the ratio of the number of credit points earned to the number of hours attempted (excluding CR, NC, S, U, and W). No credit points are issued for transfer courses.

Mid-semester grades are available to all students online. Final semester grades are based on the work of the entire semester, which includes examinations and evaluations throughout the course.

Grade Point Average:

Grade point average (GPA) is computed by dividing the total number of credit points accumulated in courses for which a grade of A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, C-, D+, D, F, or WF has been assigned by the total number of hours attempted in those courses. Courses for which a grade of IP, S, U, CR, NC, W, AW, or NR has been assigned are not included in computing the GPA.

When the course is repeated, only the hours and credit points for the latest grade assigned for that course are counted in the total hours attempted and total credit points. The following example shows how semester GPA and cumulative GPA are calculated:

Course	Hours Attempted	Grade	Credit Points
ENGL 1110	3	C	6.0
SOCI 2010	3	B	9.0
BIOL 2210	4	A-	14.68
PSYC 2000	3	D	3.0
HIST 2030	3	F	0.0
Semester Total	16		32.68
Previous Semesters	27		74.0
Cumulative Total	43		106.68
Semester Credit Points:	32.68	Cumulative Credit Points:	106.68
÷ Hours Attempted:	16	÷ Hours Attempted:	43
= Semester GPA:	2.04	= Cumulative GPA:	2.48

The GPA is truncated (not rounded). For example, a 2.999 GPA is still a 2.99, NOT a 3.0.

Grade Appeal:

Students believing there is adequate reason for grade reconsideration should consult the instructor who taught the course. If the question about the grade is not satisfactorily resolved, students should consult the appropriate school dean regarding procedures for further consideration. This procedure must be initiated by students no later than 30 days after grades have been issued.

Credit/Non-Credit Grading:

Some courses are offered only as credit or non-credit. As such, they appear in the master schedule of classes with a CR/NC registration. The hours taken are credited toward graduation but will not be considered in determining the grade point average.

Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory Grading:

In addition to registering for courses on a regular-grade basis, students also have the option of registering on a satisfactory/unsatisfactory (S/U) basis.

The S/U option seeks to facilitate intellectual exploration in search of a major, in support of a major, or in pursuit of a personal interest; to offer the flexibility of a grading process which most appropriately relates to the objectives of a particular course; and to provide an opportunity, without grade-point consideration, for students to assess their own interests and abilities. This encourages greater communication between students and faculty concerning the meaning of evaluation. Conditions for taking classes satisfactory/unsatisfactory are as follows:

- Choosing the S/U option is always at the student's discretion.
- S/U options are limited to 12 hours for the student's entire college career and a maximum of 4 hours taken S/U in any one semester.
- Liberal arts courses taken to meet liberal arts requirements may not be taken S/U.
- Courses in the academic major or minor or teacher certification programs may not be taken S/U once the major or minor or program has been declared.
- If a student subsequently elects to major in a discipline in which a course had been graded satisfactory, that course, but no other such courses may be counted toward the major or minor.
- An S signifies a grade of C- or better and U a grade lower than C-.
- Courses taken on the S/U basis will not be considered in determining GPA.

Students should consult their advisors or the chair of the department in which they major regarding the desirability of taking courses S/U. The end of the fifth week is the last day for making a change in registration to or from S/U.

GRADUATION PROCEDURES

A student's catalog expires 10 years after matriculation. If a catalog has expired, the requirements of the graduation catalog must be met. In matters of course standards, prerequisites, eligibility to continue, and other academic policies, students are subject to the regulations and procedures of the current academic year.

To graduate, students must be in good standing with the university and must have financial arrangements satisfactorily made with the Office of Financial Aid & Scholarships. All incomplete grades must be removed, all institutional examination results recorded, and transfer credits from other institutions must be on file in the Office of the University Registrar. The university reserves the right to remove students from participation in commencement based on academic deficiencies and/or disciplinary actions as defined by the dean of students at any time. Petitions to graduate in absentia must be filed with the university registrar at least three weeks prior to commencement.

An Application for Graduation should be filed with the Office of the University Registrar by the following deadlines to allow sufficient time for processing:

- For December and May graduates, by the last Friday in April.
- For August graduates, by the first Monday in October.

DIRECTED OR INDEPENDENT STUDY

On occasion a student may need or desire to take a course out of schedule (i.e. Directed Study) or to do individual work on a project or topic (i.e. Independent Study) under the supervision of a faculty member.

Directed Study: When a student is unable to take a required catalog course as regularly scheduled the student may petition to the faculty member to take the course as a Directed Study. The same course objectives are used with the only difference being that the student completes the course independently under the direction of the faculty member.

Independent Study: Students interested in pursuing academic credit for an individually constructed course under the supervision of a faculty member may request to develop an Independent Study syllabus. An Independent Study requires a syllabus/learning contract, mutually constructed by the student and faculty member, and must have permission from the faculty member, department chair, academic advisor, and dean. Students may schedule a maximum of 8 hours of independent study applicable to a major, 4 hours to a minor, and no more than 4 hours in a given semester.

INSTITUTIONAL EXAM

Anderson University recognizes the need for student advancement according to ability and achievement. Therefore, students who are competent in a given subject by reason of their particular background or experience outside the university classroom may choose to receive credit by institutional examination. Examinations are to be taken prior to enrollment in the next level course. Not all courses, however, are appropriate for credit by institutional examination.

Results from Anderson University institutional examinations are considered for purposes of advanced standing or advanced placement.

Students must earn a grade of C- or above in the Anderson University institutional examinations to receive credit for the courses. Satisfactory-unsatisfactory (S-U) grading option is available as well as regular letter grades. Graduating seniors must have examination results on file in the Office of the University Registrar by April 1 of their graduation year.

INTERSHIPS

So as to comply with federal and state regulations and to address concerns for university liability, the University requires students to register for an internship prior to the start of the internship and within university deadlines. Granting credit for internships requires enrollment in the class during the semester/term in which participation in the internship occurs. If an internship extends to more than one semester or term, the student's registration must reflect the credit hours earned each semester or term. This policy satisfies the need to limit university liability and to comply with governmental regulations concerning financial aid.

LATIN HONORS

Students earning a cumulative GPA of 3.7 or above will graduate cum laude; 3.8 and above, magna cum laude; and 3.9 and above, summa cum laude. Such honors are open only to students who have earned the qualifying GPA with a minimum of 60 hours at Anderson University.

PROGRAM AND POLICY CHANGES

The schedule of classes for each academic year is published the preceding February. Both the master schedule of classes and this catalog are regarded as official statements of anticipated course offerings. The university reserves the right to change or cancel any course for which enrollment is less than six students or for which satisfactory arrangements cannot be made.

In addition to courses listed in the catalog, departments may offer special seminars or other courses, as the need arises, under the numbers 1600, 2600, 3600, and 4600.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT

To earn a degree from Anderson University, students must be in residence at the university for the last 24 hours applicable to the degree. Under some circumstances, and with special permission, a maximum of six hours of the final 24 hours may be taken elsewhere. Contact the Office of the University Registrar for more information.

TRANSCRIPTS

Students wanting transcripts of their university work must submit a written request to the Office of the University Registrar, giving at least one week's notice. The appropriate fee is to be included with the request. All financial obligations to the university must be arranged to the satisfaction of the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships before transcripts will be released. Transcripts may be ordered online at getmytranscript.org.

TRANSFER OF CREDIT FROM OTHER INSTITUTIONS

The Office of the University Registrar will evaluate and determine the applicability of all college credits being transferred from other institutions. Students who transfer a substantial number of hours from other institutions are required to complete at least 50% of their majors, minors, or professional fields at Anderson University. Generally, credit is accepted without condition for courses with a grade of C- or above from traditional institutions holding either a regional or Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). Students should consult with the Office of the University Registrar concerning policy on acceptance of credit from non-traditional institutions and institutions not holding regional accreditation.

GPA is figured only on work completed at Anderson University. Grades for courses from other institutions do not transfer in.

All international students seeking to transfer credit to the university from outside the United States are required to provide an official foreign credit evaluation (FCE) in English, including the cumulative grade point average. Anderson University will accept course-by-course foreign credential evaluations (FCE) from any National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES) member. The international institution must be recognized by the country's Ministry of Higher Education or equivalent government agency. Note: All expenses associated with foreign transcript evaluations are the student's responsibility.

Transfer courses may be considered applicable to the liberal arts requirement for advanced writing or speech competency (writing/speaking-intensive) if either the transcript indicates that the course(s) were counted toward the other institution's advanced writing or speaking-intensive requirements which meet or exceed Anderson University requirements (see requirements in the Liberal Arts Program section in this catalog), or the student can produce a syllabus that clearly shows how the course(s) satisfies Anderson University's requirements. No more than 64 semester credit hours earned from an Associate Degree may be applied to any Anderson University baccalaureate degree. The transfer credit process can only be initiated for students who have applied to AU.

For more information, contact the Office of the University Registrar.

Associate of Arts and Associate of Science Degree Transfer Policy:

Any student transferring to Anderson University from a regionally-accredited or CHEA-recognized college/university with an Associate of Arts or Associate of Science degree and has completed at least 24 credits in the Liberal Arts will have satisfied the Anderson University Liberal Arts Core requirements with the noted exceptions of the religion requirements (Biblical Literacy and Christian Ways of Knowing) and the liberal arts requirements that are embedded in the majors (Writing-Intensive, Speaking-Intensive, and Experiential requirements). Associate degree transfer students must complete at least 60 hours at Anderson University and reach 120 credits to graduate. This policy only applies to students who hold an Associate Degree prior to matriculating to Anderson University. For more information, contact the Office of the University Registrar.

Transfer of Credit – Current Students:

Students currently enrolled at Anderson University should obtain permission from the university registrar to take courses elsewhere if they intend to transfer that coursework to AU. Courses need to be taken at a regionally accredited college or university.

A syllabus or catalog description from the other institution is required to determine the applicability of the intended coursework toward the liberal arts or program requirements. Students who have a declared major need departmental approval as well as approval from the university registrar for course that apply to a major or minor

A final grade of C- or above must be earned in order for transfer credit to be received. Grades for courses taken at other institutions will not appear on your AU transcript, but credit hours may count toward graduation requirements. The Anderson University Course Repetition Policy requires that the same course must be taken at AU to adjust the GPA.

WITHDRAWAL FROM COURSES

Student-Initiated Withdrawal:

Official withdrawal from all courses must be completed by an interview with the Director of Student Success. The official date of withdrawal will be the date the student last attended and/or participated in coursework in any class. In extenuating circumstances, students may initiate complete withdrawal from all courses by phone or letter to the Office of the University Registrar.

Students desiring to drop individual courses may do so through their assigned academic advisors. Students are required to present the Office of the University Registrar with a change-of-schedule form noting the changes and their advisors' signatures.

Questions concerning the policy for complete withdrawal should be directed to the dean of students or university of registrar. Questions regarding dropping an individual course should be directed to the student's adviser or the Office of the University Registrar.

University-Initiated Withdrawal

The university has the authority to withdraw a student from the university and to revoke the student's registration at any time during the academic year. There are two types of university-initiated withdrawals: withdrawn failing (WF) and administrative (AW).

The faculty assigns WF at any time before the 10th week of the semester or by the dean of students whenever it is deemed appropriate. It is assigned either when a student has stopped attending classes without officially withdrawing or when a student is withdrawn for disciplinary reasons. For purposes of grade point average calculation WF is equivalent to F.

A grade of AW is recorded for administrative withdrawals. It is assigned by the administration or the dean of students when circumstances do not warrant a failing grade or whenever it is deemed appropriate. The grade of AW is not computed in the student's grade point average and therefore involves no academic penalty. The registrar must authorize the recording of this grade.

For the most up-to-date information, please contact the Office of the University Registrar. Further academic policy information is also available on the university website.

STUDENT HANDBOOK

In addition to academic policies, students are expected to follow the campus policies and procedures contained in the Student Handbook which is published annually by the Center for Student Life. The handbook also serves as a resource to connect students to faculty and staff working to help them succeed. Some of the policies included in the student handbook include:

- Chapel Attendance
- Residence Life
- Title IX
- Housing
- Student Code of Conduct

There is also information available in the handbook related to the following:

- Financial Aid
- Student Services
- Police and Security Services

For a full list of Student Life policies, procedures, and resources, please review the student handbook, published online at anderson.edu/student-life/handbook.

Academic Organization

The academic programs of Anderson University are grouped into six schools:

- Falls School of Business
- School of Humanities, Education, and Behavioral Science: Communication & Design Arts; English; History& Political Science; Liberal Arts; Modern Languages; Psychology; Social Work, Criminal Justice, & Family Science; and Teacher Education
- School of Music, Theatre, and Dance
- School of Nursing and Kinesiology
- School of Science and Engineering: Biology; Computer Science; Mathematics; Physical Sciences & Engineering
- School of Theology and Christian Ministry

Each school has its own dean who serves as chief operational officer regarding its programs and personnel.

MAJORS AND MINORS

Majors provide the opportunity to take a grouping of courses, usually concentrated in one department, for purposes of specialization or professional certification. In addition to the major, a minor or cognate of 15-18 hours may be selected but is not required.

Students are responsible for planning and completing the requirements of their majors, minors, and cognates. A GPA of at least 2.0 is required for all courses applied to the major or area of concentration.

Students completing two or more majors (including complementary majors) must earn a minimum of 15 hours that are unique to each major. To be awarded a major, students must complete at least 50% of all coursework in residence at Anderson University.

DECLARATION OF MAJOR AND MINOR

Students should file a declaration of major and minor or cognate with the Office of the University Registrar. For planning the proper sequence of courses, students should declare the major as soon as possible.

This application and the procedures involved in its approval afford students an opportunity for evaluation of their objectives in college and life. Students formally state their proposed majors, minors, and/or professional or pre-professional programs and confer with the major advisor of the department or program regarding requirements. This procedure constitutes students' official declarations of majors or minors.

To change majors or minors, students must file the appropriate form in the Office of the University Registrar at the earliest possible date.

ADMISSION TO A PARTICULAR MAJOR

Admission to Anderson University does not automatically include admission to specialized programs within the university, such as athletic training, business, education, music, nursing, and social work. The criteria for admission and acceptance to specialized programs are determined by the faculty of those programs. Information regarding application deadlines and admissions criteria may be obtained from the departments offering the programs to which students wish to apply.

MAJORS

Majors are defined as a concentration of at least 30 hours of related courses, designed to provide individual depth within a discipline or a recognized field of study. Unless otherwise noted, all majors lead to the Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree. Majors include the following:

- Accounting
- Athletic Training
- Bible & Religion
- Biochemistry (BA or BS)
- Biology (BA or BS)
- Business & Integrative Leadership
- Chemistry (BA or BS)
- Christian Ministries
- Cinema and Media Arts
- Computer Engineering (BS)
- Computer Science (BA or BS)
- Criminal Justice
- Cybersecurity
- Dance
- Data Science (BA or BS)
- Electrical Engineering (BS)
- Engineering Management
- Engineering Physics (BS)
- Exercise Science
- Family Science
- Finance
- Global Business
- History
- Instrumental Performance
- International Relations
- Journalism
- Literary Studies
- Management
- Marketing
- Mathematics (BA or BS)
- Mathematics-Decision Science
- Mathematics-Economics
- Mathematics-Finance
- Mechanical Engineering (BS)
- Mechatronics Engineering (BS)
- Ministry Studies
- Music
- Music Business
- Music & Entertainment Business
- Musical Theatre (BA or BMus)
- National Security
- Nursing (BSN)
- Physical Science
- Physics (BA)
- Political Science
- Political Science/Philosophy/Economics
- Professional Development
- Psychology
- Public Health (BA or BS)
- Public History
- Public Relations
- Social Work
- Songwriting
- Spanish
- Sport & Recreational Leadership
- Sport Marketing
- Teaching Majors (listed below)
- Theatre
- Visual Communication Design
- Voice Performance
- Worship Arts
- Writing
- Youth Ministries

TEACHING MAJORS

A teaching major is a grouping of 36-83 hours, sometimes in more than one department, for purposes of specialization and teacher certification. Unless otherwise noted, all teaching majors lead to the Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree. Teaching majors include:

- Elementary Education
- Language Arts
- Mathematics
- Music Education (BMus)
- Social Studies
- Spanish Education: P-12

THREE-YEAR MAJORS

The following majors can be completed in three years of full-time, year-round work:

- Accounting
- Bible & Religion
- Biology
- Chemistry
- Christian Ministries
- Computer Science (BA)
- Criminal Justice
- Cybersecurity
- Data Science (BA)
- Elementary Education
- Exercise Science
- Family Science
- Finance
- Global Business
- History
- Literary Studies
- Management
- Marketing
- Mathematics (BA or BS)
- Mathematics-Decision Science
- Mathematics-Finance
- Music Business
- Political Science
- Psychology
- Public Relations
- Spanish
- Sport Marketing
- Writing
- Youth Ministries

COMPLEMENTARY MAJORS

A complementary major is a group of related courses (26-54 hours) that must be taken with one of the majors listed in the preceding section. A complementary major is intended to enhance a primary major and may not stand alone to fulfill graduation requirements. Complementary majors may not be coupled with other complementary majors to fulfill graduation requirements. Complementary Majors include the following:

- Business Administration
- Business-Information Systems
- Christian Ministries
- Christian Spiritual Formation
- Computer Science
- Dance
- Data Science
- Financial Planning
- Humanitarian Engineering
- Journalism
- Music
- Psychology
- Spanish
- Youth Leadership-Development

NON-CATALOG MAJORS

A student may construct and pursue a major course of study not listed in the catalog to achieve a goal of personal significance. Such a major must be strong enough to justify inclusion in the catalog if student demand is sufficient and the institutional resources adequate, and may only be taken as a complement to a primary major. If such a major is interdepartmental or interdisciplinary, it must have the approval of all departments involved as well as the dean of the school.

MINORS

A minor is defined as a clustering of related courses intended to provide individual depth in an area other than a student's major. It is a grouping of 15-18 hours in a single discipline or recognized field of study and must include 12 hours which do not overlap with any other requirement (i.e. another major or minor requirement). A GPA of at least 2.0 is required for all courses applied to the minor. To be awarded a minor, students must complete at least 50% of all coursework in residence at Anderson University. In some cases, a student may wish to complete a second major in lieu of a minor. A student may present a major and a minor in a department offering more than one major. This minor must be in a different field and must include a minimum of 12 hours not applicable to one or more majors. Minors include the following:

- Accounting
- Athletic Coaching
- Biblical Studies
- Biology
- Chemistry
- Christian Ministries
- Christian Spiritual Formation
- Cinema & Media Arts
- Communication
- Computer Science
- Criminal Justice
- Cybersecurity
- Dance
- Data Science
- Economics
- Education
- English Studies
- Entertainment & Music Business
- Entrepreneurship
- Ethics
- Event Planning & Management
- Family Science
- Finance
- French
- Global Business
- Health Education
- History
- History of Christianity
- Humanitarian Engineering
- Information Systems
- International Relations
- Journalism
- Legal Studies
- Literary Studies
- Management
- Marketing
- Mathematics
- Music
- Music Performance
- Nonprofit Leadership
- Nutrition
- Peace & Conflict Transformation
- Philosophy
- Physical Education
- Physics
- Political Science
- Psychology
- Public Health
- Public History
- Public Relations
- Religion
- Social Media
- Social Work
- Sociology
- Spanish
- Special Education
- Sport Marketing
- Sport & Recreational Leadership
- Statistics
- Theatre
- Visual Communication Design
- Women's Studies
- Writing

TEACHING MINOR

- Special Education Mild Intervention

ASSOCIATE DEGREES

- Associate of Arts with a Concentration in Criminal Justice. For more information, see the Department of Social Work, Criminal Justice, and Family Science in this catalog.
- Associate of Science with Concentration in any area with the approval of the academic advisor. Online students may choose from concentrations in Business, Business Administration and Leadership, History, or Sociology. For more information, contact the Dean of the School of Humanities, Education, and Behavioral Science.

COGNATES

A cognate is defined as a cluster of courses designed to enrich or provide breadth to an academic major. It consists of 15-18 hours in two or more disciplines and may include no more than 4 hours in courses applied to other requirements. A GPA of at least 2.0 is required for all courses applied to the cognate.

Cognates are generally individually designed and are developed with the approval of the chair of the department offering the related major as well as the dean of the school.

Pre-Professional Programs

MEDICAL TECHNOLOGY

The student interested in becoming a medical technologist completes three years at Anderson University and the final (clinical) year of training at one of two hospitals in Indiana: Parkview Hospital in Fort Wayne or Clarian Health (Methodist Hospital) in Indianapolis. Tuition for the clinical year is paid to Anderson University. After successful completion of this program, students earn a Bachelor of Arts in biology and are eligible to pursue clinical laboratory scientist certification through the Board of Registry or the National Certification Agency for Medical Laboratory Personnel.

Admission to a school of medical technology requires the satisfactory completion of three years (92 hours) of academic study that includes completion of all liberal arts requirements; 22 hours of biology, including microbiology and immunology; at least 12 hours of chemistry (8 hours general and 4 hours organic); one course (4 hours) in mathematics; and one course (4 hours) in physics. Students must meet the graduation requirements and biology major requirements stated elsewhere in this catalog. Upon successful completion of these requirements, students are eligible to apply to one of the clinical programs. Interested students should contact the Department of Biology for more details and advising.

PHYSICAL THERAPY

Anderson University offers a program that prepares students for entry into physical therapy programs. Most students seeking to enter the profession obtain a bachelor's degree in exercise science or biology. Because of the small number of schools offering graduate degrees in physical therapy and the large number of students who apply, admission to those programs is very competitive. Anderson University has developed an articulation agreement with Southwest Baptist University in Bolivar, Missouri, to facilitate admission for Anderson University graduates to a doctorate degree program in physical therapy. Interested students should contact the Department of Biology for more details and advising.

PRE-HEALTH PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS

Anderson University offers pre-health professional programs for students desiring careers in medicine, athletic training, physical and occupational therapy, dentistry, physician assistant, pharmacy, chiropractic, optometry, podiatry, and veterinary medicine. Individualized programs are developed for students wishing to enter other health professions not listed above.

Although most pre-health profession students major in biology, biochemistry, chemistry, or exercise science, in most cases any major may be chosen as long as the particular health profession program and course requirements are met. The length and specific coursework for each program varies depending on the field and the individual professional school selected. Each pre-health professional program is designed to give students a broad, Christian, liberal arts preparation for service in the health field of choice. The program usually consists of the following components:

- A standard pre-health profession core of courses (one year each of laboratory-based, college-level general biology, general chemistry, and physics).
- Additional courses in the sciences to increase study skills and knowledge base in the medically related subjects.
- A requirement to include courses in psychology, sociology, biblical studies, and communication as part of the liberal arts component.
- Preparation for the particular health profession standardized exam.
- Being an active member in the Pre-Professional Health Society.
- A committee evaluation and recommendation process for the professional school application procedure.

Students interested in a particular pre-health professional program should contact the director of pre-health professional programs for more information and/or referral to the appropriate advisor in that profession.

The success of Anderson University's pre-health profession programs can be measured in a variety of ways. The university has an excellent placement record during the past 15 years, with approximately 85-90% of students who applied to professional programs having been accepted. Of those students receiving strong committee recommendations, essentially 100% have been accepted. Many of our students during the past 15 years have been in the upper 10% of their professional school classes upon graduation from their respective schools.

PRE-LAW

Students planning to attend law school are not restricted to any one major. The top majors for students who apply to law school are political science, English, history, psychology, economics, and business. Students are encouraged to work with their major advisor and AU's pre-law advisor to select courses from across the curriculum that prepare them for admission to law school and the practice of law.

Taking classes across the curriculum helps students develop the analytical, writing, research, and oral communication skills necessary to succeed in law school and beyond. These classes also help students acquire the knowledge of history, politics, societies, cultures, economies, and philosophies that make success in law school more likely.

Interested students should consider the minor in legal studies and consult with AU's pre-law advisor as early as possible.

PRE-SEMINARY STUDIES

The university seeks to serve students preparing for seminary admission through a range of courses considered basic to such graduate professional study. There is no single normative pattern for pre-seminary education because of widely varying emphases and settings for ministry. The Anderson University School of Theology and Christian Ministry follows current admission recommendations of the Association of Theological Schools when it suggests the following categories of learning as foundational for graduate seminary study:

- The ability to read, write, and speak clear and correct English is vital for interpreting and communicating the faith of the church. It is highly desirable that a reading knowledge of Hebrew and/or Greek be developed as a basic tool. Additional language skills might be essential, depending on vocational intent.
- General understanding of human selfhood, modern social institutions, culture and religion, science and technology. Students are expected to have some academic understanding of the fields of philosophy, sociology, psychology, and history, and in some instances, may major in one of these areas.
- Theological understanding of major religious traditions and the contemporary understanding of values and faith. A knowledge of the nature and content of biblical materials is of particular significance.

Details of admission requirements for the Anderson University School of Theology and Christian Ministry should be considered in the planning of undergraduate junior and senior years.

Courses of Instruction

CAPTION

Each course in the catalog is listed under a particular caption, a four-character code that identifies the discipline or field of study to which the course is related. Courses offered by the university are listed under caption headings in the sponsoring department's or program's section in this catalog.

LEVEL

1000/2000-Level Courses:

In general, courses in the 1000 or 2000 series count toward the liberal arts requirements and are to be taken during the freshman or sophomore years. Some courses in the 2000 series are first-level courses applicable to a given major or specialization.

Upper-Division (3000/4000-Level) Courses:

Courses listed in the 3000 and 4000 series are considered upper-division courses and are primarily intended for juniors and seniors. However, freshmen or sophomores in good standing may be allowed to take upper-division courses if they have met the prerequisites and have the approval of their advisors.

TITLE

Designates the course number and title for this course (e.g., 3070 Genetics, listed under the BIOL caption heading).

CREDIT HOURS

Indicates the number of credit hours that may be earned by taking this course. Within parentheses, the number to the left indicates the number of classroom hours associated with this course, and the number to the right indicates the number of laboratory or studio hours. These numbers may include a range of hours (i.e. 1-4) or the word "arranged" where the number of hours may vary.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

The course description, listed directly beneath the course title, provides details about themes, topics, and issues covered by the course, as well as additional information:

- EXPECTATION: Indicates skills or experiences which students are expected to have achieved or demonstrated before taking this course. Also indicates restrictions regarding who may take this course (i.e. departmental exams, minimum grade in a prerequisite course, etc.).
- CONSENT: Indicates whether students must obtain consent to take the course. If no designation is listed, no special consent is required.
- PREREQUISITE: Indicates required class standing, required major, or course(s) which must be completed before this course may be taken.
- COREQUISITE: Indicates required class standing, required major, or course(s) which must be taken in the same semester as this course.
- REPEAT: Indicates when a course may be repeated for credit. May also include limitations on the number of times the course may be repeated or total credits that may be counted.
- GRADE: Indicates when CR/NC grading is in effect. No listing indicates standard A-F grading.
- SAME AS: Indicates when this course shares the same description and requirements as another course in the catalog.
- OFFERED: Indicates the semester and/or year in which this course will be offered, or other terms by which the course will be offered (i.e. with sufficient demand). If no designation is listed, the course is usually offered every year.

Liberal Arts Framework

Through the centuries, “higher” education has attempted to lead the learner toward growth and fulfillment in ways consistent with the assumptions and demands of the times. Standard components of this process evolved and became known as the “liberal arts.” These areas of study were thought to be freeing and empowering, thus enabling maturity and responsibility in a person’s thoughts, values, and actions.

In modern times, such liberal arts studies continue to have fundamental importance, even though their content and design have continued to evolve as societal assumptions and demands have changed. Anderson University stands in this long tradition, designing for all its students a curricular pattern that includes fundamental skills and ways of perceiving the world considered essential for meaningful and effective living in the 21st century.

As a Church of God academic institution, Anderson University is committed to the goals and ideals of liberal education as understood through a Christian faith perspective. The requirements for undergraduate degrees have been established with these commitments in view. The university’s conception of liberally educated people involves the freeing and empowering of the total person — his or her spiritual, intellectual, aesthetic, emotional, and physical resources.

LIBERAL ARTS CORE CURRICULUM

Anderson University has structured its Liberal Arts Core Curriculum to develop students’ skills, insight, and appreciation in six Foundational Skills and six Ways of Knowing (40-43 hours).

Foundational Skills:

- The First-Year-Experience Requirement: 1 hr.
Course designed to help students adjust to AU’s academic community. Students work both independently and with classmates to Reflect, Connect, and Grow intellectually, socially, and spiritually as whole people in AU’s community while also obtaining the necessary practical knowledge to meet their college goals.
LART 1050.
- Civil Discourse and Critical Reasoning in the Academy, Church, and Society: 2 hrs.
Courses designed for students to develop their civil discourse and critical thinking skills.
One required course in this category.
- Written Communication Requirement: 6 hrs.
Courses designed for students to develop their writing and research skills.
Two required composition courses in this category. Two writing-intensive courses required in this category (WI built into the major).
- Speaking and Listening Requirement: 3 hrs.
Courses designed to develop oral communication skills.
COMM 1000. One speaking-intensive course (built into this major).
- Quantitative Reasoning Requirement: 3 hrs.
Courses that pertain to the art of problem-solving by means of critical thinking, logic, and quantitative methods. Courses in this area require prior demonstration of basic mathematics proficiency as determined by a placement examination or the completion of MATH 1000.
One required course in this category.

- Biblical Literacy Requirement: 3 hrs.
This course is designed to accomplish two goals: (1) to foster the student's development of a critically based knowledge of the content of the Bible and (2) to assist students in becoming fluent in the interpretation of Scripture.
BIBL 2000.
- Personal Wellness Requirement: 2 hrs.
These courses and experiences examine the relationships of physical activity, leisure, diet, and health and fitness to total personal development.
One required course in this category.

Ways of Knowing:

- Christian Ways of Knowing Requirement: 3 hrs.
Included in the Anderson University community is a faith perspective that is prepared to raise questions of truth, value, meaning, and morality. Therefore, we foster an atmosphere of free inquiry, consistent with the sponsoring church's tradition that prizes hospitality as a Christian virtue. These courses explore the role of religion in human experience.
One required course in this category.
- Scientific Ways of Knowing Requirement: 4 hrs.
These courses present students with a way of understanding the natural laws that govern the behavior of the material world, focusing on knowledge that is quantifiable and accessible through human senses and human reason.
One laboratory science course required in this category.
- Civic Ways of Knowing Requirement: 3 hrs.
Courses in this area present students with a way of understanding the world through the study of the philosophical and political developments that have led to modern notions of responsible citizenship.
One required course in this category.
- Aesthetic Ways of Knowing Requirement: 3 hrs.
These courses present students with a way of understanding the deepest levels of human experience as expressed in communication arts, dance, literature, music, and theatre from diverse cultures and time periods.
One 3-credit course -OR-
One 2-credit appreciation course plus one 1-credit experiential course.
- Social and Behavioral Ways of Knowing Requirement: 3 hrs.
These courses present students with ways of understanding human behavior in either individual or social contexts. Emphasis is placed on the application of a scientific perspective to explain human conduct, including related theoretical views and the development of empirical knowledge through research.
One required course in this category.
- Global and Intercultural Ways of Knowing Requirement: 7 hrs.
The combination of these courses presents students with ways of understanding human diversity through the development of intercultural perspectives.
One language course (4 cr.) based on departmental placement;
One global/intercultural or additional language course (3 cr.).
- Experiential Ways of Knowing Requirement: Built into the major
Anderson University values experiential learning and requires every major to provide significant experiential learning opportunities for their students. These experiences must intentionally connect academic theory, hands-on practice, and student reflection with a significant academic component.
One experiential competency that can be fulfilled by a course, internship, practicum, capstone, clinical, or approved activity.

Because of the immediate usefulness of writing, oral communication, and mathematics, students should endeavor to complete the written communication (ENGL 1100 or 1110 and 1120), speaking and listening (COMM 1000), and quantitative reasoning requirements during the first college year. Students must enroll in the appropriate writing skills courses every consecutive semester until they have met the writing-skills requirement.

The first-year-experience seminar (LART 1050) must be taken within the first 24 hours at Anderson University. Students must continue to take LART 1050 as offered until the requirement is met.

In addition, students should endeavor to complete the world language component of the Global and Intercultural Ways of Knowing during the first college year. If necessary, however, the world language component may be completed after the first year, preferably no later than the second year.

The phrase “upper-division course” means a course numbered 3000 or above. These courses are designed primarily for upper-division students and may assume some prior introductory understanding.

For details on how Honors Program (HNRS) courses apply to the liberal arts core curriculum, see the Honors “Courses of Instruction” section of this catalog.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Faculty at Anderson University have approved learning outcomes that must be addressed in courses that are approved for inclusion in the liberal arts requirements. These learning outcomes are as follows:

- Critical reasoning/thinking: Opportunities will be provided to develop intellectual curiosity, independence of thought, and an ability to formulate and test positions on major questions.
- Communication: Opportunities will be provided for students to speak and write both within their major fields of study and more general areas with clarity and precision. The experiences will develop an ability to listen and respond effectively to the expression of ideas by others, and they will have the technological and bibliographic skills needed for the development of defensible positions.
- Cross-disciplinary view: Opportunities will be provided for students to develop a variety of perspectives on major issues, events, and questions.
- Christian commitments and practices: Opportunities will be provided for students to explore the relationship between Christian commitments and practices and personal and global questions and issues. They will be encouraged to explore their obligation for service in personal and professional areas of life and have a sensitivity to their relationship to God, the church, and society.
- Intercultural perspectives: Opportunities provided for students to develop an understanding of people from diverse cultural groups, races, genders, socio-economic backgrounds, political opinions, languages, and religious experiences.
- Preparation for service: Opportunities will be provided for students to develop the knowledge, skills, and dispositions required in graduate or professional education or the job market. We consciously bring together the liberal arts, professional preparation, and biblical faith and understanding to assist students to serve in diverse local, national, and global societies.

As an institution committed to Christian service, Anderson University strives through its curricula and informal activities to achieve student development in these areas, providing the breadth and depth necessary for the fullest preparation for life.

The liberal arts program requirements are defined in terms of courses to be taken at Anderson University. The most current list of approved courses is available online at anderson.edu/registrar and may also be obtained in person in the registrar’s office.

Adult Learning

Adult education at Anderson University provides meaningful learning experiences for students age 25 and older by offering a quality education with programs designed with the adult learner in mind. Adult students choose from daytime, evening, or online classes. Anderson University is committed to offering accessible and affordable programs that are relevant in the current workforce and economy. Adult learners are supported with dedicated advisors and success coaches. Recognizing its distinct role in the mission of Anderson University, the Department of Engagement and Adult Learning develops relationships and cultivates partnerships to enhance the student learning experience on campus and community.

DEGREE PROGRAMS

All traditional degree programs offered by the university are available for adult students to pursue.

Online programs designed specifically for adult studies include:

- Associate of Science degree in General Studies. (p. 196)
- Bachelor of Arts degree in Business and Integrative Leadership (p. 64)
- Bachelor of Arts degree in Criminal Justice (p. 209)
- Bachelor of Arts degree in Ministry Studies (p. 72)
- RN to BSN degree completion (anderson.edu/academics/rn-to-bsn-completion)

ADULT STUDENT TUITION

Adult students pay a flat rate per semester hour for tuition (exceptions: nursing and transition to teaching). Additional information for adult students can be found at anderson.edu/adult.

Associate Degrees

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS: CRIMINAL JUSTICE (60 hrs.)

This two-year Associate of Arts degree program is designed for students pursuing careers in criminal justice, as well as for individuals already employed in the criminal justice field. The curriculum provides foundational courses in criminal justice and approximately one-half of the hours required for the four-year Bachelor of Arts degree program. The curriculum assumes proficiency in writing at the ENGL 1100 or 1110 level and in mathematics at the MATH 1000 level.

- BIBL 2000; SOCI 2010 or SOCI 2020; SOCI 2450
- CRIM 2510, 2520, 3110
- 9 hours from additional CRIM courses
- 12-14 hours from the liberal arts program (see Liberal Arts Core Curriculum); no more than one course from any one component and no more than 4 hours from courses offered by the department.
- Remaining hours from additional courses in any caption; no more than 31 hours from CRIM courses.
- Students must complete 60 hours and also meet other graduation requirements as listed in this catalog.

ASSOCIATE OF SCIENCE (60 hrs.)

This two-year Associate of Science degree provides foundational courses for the university's bachelor's degrees. The curriculum assumes proficiency in writing at the ENGL 1100 or 1110 level and in mathematics at the MATH 1000 level.

- 15-18 hours in concentration area in any discipline to be approved by your academic advisor. Online students may take concentrations in Business, Business Administration and Leadership, History, or Sociology.
- At least 30 hours of the liberal arts core curriculum requirements from the following categories: ENGL 1100 or 1100, ENGL 1120, COMM 1000, Quantitative Reasoning, BIBL 2000, Personal Wellness, Scientific Ways of Knowing, Civic Ways of Knowing, Aesthetic Ways of Knowing, and Social and Behavioral Ways of Knowing.
- At least 30 hours must be completed at Anderson University.
- Completion of 60 hours and also other graduation requirements as listed in this catalog.

Bachelor Degrees

BIOLOGY

Prof. Bailey, Dr. Lyle-Ippolito; Dr. An and Prof. Clem (Clarian Health); Prof. Goff and Dr. Smith (Parkview Hospital)

The Department of Biology provides a quality educational program combining a broad foundational core curriculum with four areas of specialization:

- Pre-Professional: a curriculum designed to enhance the student's appreciation of and success in a professional education program in various medical arts.
- Science Education: a curriculum chosen to prepare students to be at the forefront of science education for the 21st century.
- Molecular/Biochemistry/Microbiology: a curriculum designed to provide the skills, knowledge, and analytic ability to succeed in modern biology research and/or industrial arenas.
- Ecology/Environmental: a curriculum designed to prepare for bachelor entry programs in field biology and environmental science and graduate studies in the fields of ecology, the environment, and zoology.

For those students wanting to go on to graduate school or medical school, the BS is strongly recommended. For more information regarding these programs, contact the chair of the department or visit the departmental office located in Hartung Hall 220.

The ecology/environmental concentration is greatly enhanced through Anderson University's participation in programs offered by the Au Sable Institute of Environmental Studies. The institute has five field stations worldwide: northern Michigan, Puget Sound (Washington), Vara Blanca (Costa Rica), Chicago, and Tamil Nadu (South India). Each station offers field courses (mostly during the summer) in ecology and environmental science appropriate to its location. Students taking courses from Au Sable remain Anderson University students. Since the university has been identified as an institution eligible for financial grants, qualified students may be awarded Au Sable fellowships and scholarships. Interested students should contact Dr. Scott Carr for further application information.

The Department of Biology supervises and advises students in medical technology programs. Biology majors pursuing the medical technology program must complete a 22-hour core — BIOL 2210, 2220, 3030, 2240, 3510 or 3920, and 4050 — but are exempt from taking BIOL 4070, 4910, and 4920. The final (clinical) year is taken off campus; courses taken off campus will be counted as upper-division biology courses. Students entering this program should contact the allied health advisor as early as possible to facilitate completion of the program.

The department undertakes advising and supervision of undergraduate programs in a variety of health and science vocations other than those specifically mentioned above (e.g. pharmacy, physical and occupational therapy, physician's assistant, etc.). These pre-professional programs require completion of two to four years at Anderson University followed by graduate or clinical training at another institution in order to enter the profession or stand for licensure examinations. Biology faculty share the advising for these programs and interested students should contact them for additional information.

BIOLOGY

BIOLOGY MAJOR (BA) (48 hrs.)

- 28 hours from BIOL 2210, 2220, 2240, 3030, 3510 or 3920, 4050, 4070, 4910, 4920
- 8 hours from additional upper-division BIOL courses (completion of both BIOL 2410 and 2420 will substitute for 4 hours of upper-division biology)
- CHEM 2110, 2120, 2210

BIOL 2230, 3800, and 4700 do not apply toward the major.

Additional CHEM courses, especially CHEM 2220 and 3100, are strongly recommended.

BIOLOGY MAJOR (BS) (72 hrs.)

- 28 hours from BIOL 2210, 2220, 2240, 3030, 3510 or 3920, 4050, 4070, 4910, 4920
- 12 hours from additional upper-division BIOL courses (completion of both BIOL 2410 and 2420 will substitute for 4 hours of upper-division biology)
- CHEM 2110, 2120, 2210, 2220
- PHYS 2140 or 2240, 2150 or 2250
- MATH 2120 or PSYC 2440
- 4 hours additional MATH at 2000 level or above; MATH 2010 highly recommended

BIOL 2230, 3800, and 4700 do not apply toward the major.

BIOLOGY MINOR (16 hrs.)

- BIOL 2210, 2220
- 8 hours from BIOL courses numbered 2230 and above

BIOL 3800 and 4700 do not apply toward the minor.

BIOCHEMISTRY

The biochemistry major is an interdisciplinary major that applies the principles and methods of both biology and chemistry to understanding the molecular basis of life. The major requires a number of basic classes from each discipline with advanced courses in chemical instrumentation, cell and molecular biology, genetics, and biochemistry, and allows the student to select additional courses necessary to pursue certain career objectives. Students considering a biochemistry major should begin their study with CHEM 2110 and BIOL 2210.

BIOCHEMISTRY MAJOR (BA) (56 hrs.)

- CHEM 2110, 2120, 2210, 2220, 3100, 4510, 4520
- BIOL/CHEM 4210
- BIOL/CHEM 4220
- BIOL/CHEM/PHYS 4910, 4920
- BIOL 2210, 2220, 2240, 4050, 4310
- Elective hours from CHEM 3140, 4090, 4110; BIOL 3030, 4120

It is suggested that students pursuing pre-medicine should elect BIOL 3030, 4120.

They should also take PHYS 2140, 2150 or MATH 2010, 2020, PHYS 2240, 2250.

It is suggested that students pursuing graduate school should elect CHEM 3140, 4090, 4110; BIOL 3030; as well as MATH 2010, 2020, PHYS 2240, 2250.

It is suggested that students pursuing an industry career elect CHEM 3140.

BIOCHEMISTRY MAJOR (BS) (76 hrs.)

- CHEM 2110, 2120, 2210, 2220, 3100, 4110, 4510, 4520
- BIOL 2210, 2220, 2240, 3030, 4050, 4310
- BIOL/CHEM 4210
- BIOL/CHEM 4220
- BIOL/CHEM/PHYS 4910, 4920
- PHYS 2140 or 2240
- PHYS 2150 or 2250
- MATH 2010
- MATH 2120 or PSYC 2440

BIOLOGY TEACHING TRACK

Students who wish to pursue a career in teaching should complete the Biology BA degree following the three-year plan. After graduation with their BA, students will complete the one year Anderson University Transition to Teaching program. By obtaining a degree in Biology students will have the expertise required to teach high school biology. The last year in the Transition to Teaching program will provide students the training and credentials required for high school educators.

BIOL COURSES

- 1000 Principles of Modern Biology 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Fundamental ideas in the science of biology, including molecules, cells, genetics, ecology, the diversity of life, and the human body. OFFERED: Sem. I; Summer.
- 2010 Medical Terminology 2 hrs. (2, 0)
The objective of this course is to make students familiar with the common root words, prefixes, and suffixes of terms used in the medical fields. The material to be covered includes anatomical, procedural, diagnostic, disease, and pharmacology terms. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 2040 Personal and Community Health 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Health problems of individuals, home, school, and community. Covers nutrition, child growth, personality development, home living, and the human body. Includes application of exercise to the maintenance of individual and community health. SAME AS: PUBH 2040. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2070 Humans and the Environment 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Students are exposed to basic concepts of ecology and to select environmental issues. They are encouraged to engage in vigorous discussion and to think critically about our impact on the environment. The perspective of Christian environmental stewardship is emphasized throughout the course. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2023-24.
- 2080 Flora of Indiana 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Taxonomic study (identification, classification, and nomenclature) of flowering plants of Indiana. OFFERED: Summer.
- 2210 Foundations of Modern Biology I 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Basic principles of cell structure and function, genetics, evolution, biodiversity, and ecology using animal and human models. Through these themes, the student becomes familiar with major animal groups, their salient characteristics, environmental interactions, and postulated evolutionary relationships. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2220 Foundations of Modern Biology II 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Concepts of cell structure and function, cell metabolism, genetics, organismal structure and function, and principles of ecology using plant models. Through these themes, the student becomes familiar with major plant groups, their salient characteristics, environmental interactions, and postulated evolutionary relationships. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 2210. OFFERED: Sem. II.

- 2230 Microbes and Disease 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Introduction to the science of microbiology using clinical microbiology as a model. Some emphasis is given to general areas such as microbial classification, genetics, physiology, and ecology, with concentration on subjects related to disease-microorganism relationships: classification, culture and identification of pathogenic organisms, control processes (antisepsis, disinfection, antibiotics), infection patterns, control of disease, and elementary immunology. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 2220 or 2420. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2240 Cell Biology 4 hrs. (3, 3)
Introduction to fundamental concepts of cellular and molecular biology. Integrated lab and classroom curriculum introduces the student to the subject in four parts: 1) fundamentals of biochemistry, 2) the flow of genetic information in the cell, 3) cellular anatomy and physiology, and 4) cell regulation. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 2220. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2310 Field Biology in Spring 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Springtime plants and animals, their field identification, field biology, behavior and landscape context, with a focus on spring flora, amphibia, and birds. Focuses on observation and sounds of life in the field occurring between the end of the spring college semester and the end of spring high school semester to provide prospective teachers and naturalists with an opportunity to investigate the natural history of this time of year. OFFERED: At Au Sable Institute.
- 2410 Human Anatomy and Physiology I 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Topics will include cell form and function and organization of human cells into tissues, organs, and organ systems. This course will emphasize skeletal tissues, muscles, and the nervous and endocrine systems. Emphasis will be given to pathological conditions that alter the normal functions of these organ systems and how these alterations affect the organism as a whole. The lecture and laboratory experiences will emphasize how the structure and function of each topic is interrelated (that function follows form). OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2420 Human Anatomy and Physiology II 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Topics will include cell form and function as well as the human digestive, cardiovascular, respiratory, urinary, and reproductive systems. Emphasis will be given to pathological conditions that alter the normal functions of these organ systems and how these alterations affect the organism as a whole. The lecture and laboratory experiences will emphasize how the structure and function of each topic is interrelated (that function follows form). PREREQUISITE: BIOL 2410 or CHEM 1000. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2700 Science Teaching Methods I 3 hrs. (2, 1)
Involves the learning and application of the methods of teaching science. In addition to some lecture and classroom discussion, students complete a practicum experience with a master teacher in a public or private school setting. Topics covered and jointly pursued by AU faculty and the master teacher include learning theories, classroom management, inquiry-based teaching, history of science, special/gifted education, and an introduction to rubrics/grading/assessment. Emphasizes the key roles that a teacher's caring attitude and ability to engage students have in a successful learning environment. SAME AS: CHEM/PHYS 2700. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3030 Microbiology 4 hrs. (3, 4)
Introduction to microbiology using a study of various microbes. Biochemical, genetic, and ecological aspects of Archaea, prokaryotes, viruses, fungi, and protozoans will be covered. One unit will cover human pathology and immunology. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 2220. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3050 Advanced Topics in Microbiology 2 hrs. (2, 0-3)
Topics important to the understanding and practice of microbiology will be covered in a seminar/laboratory format customized to the topic being discussed. Includes latest developments in the topic areas of immunology, virology, and mycology. May be repeated under a different topic. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 3030. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 3080 Animal Ecology 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Interrelationships between animals and their biotic and physical environments, emphasizing animal population dynamics in old growth pine forests and bogs. This field-intensive course centers on the ecology of northern Michigan fauna from a stewardship perspective. Included are individual student projects. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 2220. OFFERED: At Au Sable Institute.

- 3170 Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy 5 hrs. (3, 4)
Lecture emphasizes major themes of vertebrate structure, function, and development, such as the vertebrate transition to land, adaptations for terrestrial life, the evolutionary relationship between birds and theropod dinosaurs, and the evolution of flight. Laboratory emphasizes comparative morphology of representative chordate types. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 2220. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 3270 Human Gross Anatomy and Histology 5 hrs. (3, 4)
Detailed study of gross anatomy, microscopic and ultramicroscopic structures of tissues and organs of the human body. Laboratory emphasizes examination of the gross to microscopic structure through various techniques. Relationship of structure and function emphasized. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 3030. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2022-23.
- 3310 Entomology 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Study of insects, with an emphasis upon their identification and role in the environment. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 2220. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 3420 Fish Biology and Ecology 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Covers in detail the systematics, evolution, and anatomy of fishes. Students will be exposed to selected topics in fish physiology, ecology, and behavior. Fishery issues will be touched upon as time permits. The lab component includes identification and classification of fishes using specimens from the university's collections, as well as comparative dissections of sharks and representative teleosts. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 2220. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 3510 Bioethics 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Seminar course examines ethical questions that arise in the relationships among life sciences, biotechnology, medicine, politics, law, philosophy, and theology. Topics and case studies are selected and discussed in terms of the ethical issues they present. These issues include beginning of life, death and dying, human and animal testing, and environmental stewardship. Applies to the Civil Discourse and Critical Reasoning component of the Liberal Arts. PREREQUISITE: Junior standing. SAME AS: PUBH 3510. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3800 Internship in Science Education 1-4 hrs. (0, 1-4)
An opportunity to broaden the diversity of a student's experience in educational settings. Internships are arranged in environments not typically experienced by the student. Tri-S and other international experiences may be appropriate, as well as experiences in large inner-city schools or small rural schools. EXPECTATION: BIOL/CHEM/PHYS 2700 completed or taken concurrently. SAME AS: CHEM/PHYS 3800.
- 3920 Integration of Faith and Science 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Seminar course featuring reading and discussion on topics common to science and Christianity. Topics include origins issues, natural law, environmental stewardship, and the nature of the soul. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 4050 Genetics 4 hrs. (4, 2)
Study of the principles of genetics, including Mendelian, molecular, microbial, developmental, and behavioral genetics, as well as cytogenetics and genomics. Laboratory experiences range from classical to molecular procedures and concepts. This course applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 2240. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4070 Ecology and Evolutionary Biology 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Covers essential concepts and principles in ecology and evolutionary biology, including natural selection, genetic drift, speciation, energy flow, nutrient cycling, and physiological and community ecology. The course has four main goals: the first is to provide an overview of the current status of the science of ecology; the second is to provide some exposure to current environmental concerns; the third is to engage in thoughtful, informed discussion of some of the controversies in modern ecology, and the fourth is to expose students to some field methods. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 4050. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4120 Mammalian Physiology 4 hrs. (3, 3)
A study of the function and interrelationships of various tissues, organs, and organ systems, with emphasis on homeostatic mechanisms. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 2240. OFFERED: Sem. I, 2023-24.

- 4210 Biochemistry I 4 hrs. (3, 3)
Introduction to fundamental principles of biochemistry. Lectures and project-oriented laboratories emphasize concepts of macromolecular structure, aspects of enzymology, and intermediary metabolism. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 2240, CHEM 2220. SAME AS: CHEM 4210. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4220 Biochemistry II 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Further discussion of particular metabolic pathways in animals and plants with an overall emphasis on control of metabolism and regulation of pathways. PREREQUISITE: BIOL/CHEM 4210. SAME AS: CHEM 4220. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2023-24.
- 4310 Molecular Biochemistry and Genetics 4 hrs. (3, 4)
Emphasizes molecular and biotechnology aspects of the fields of biochemistry and genetics. This is a laboratory-intensive course on techniques involved in biotechnology for the cloning and investigation of gene function, and is designed to train students in the types of techniques used in the current biotechnology industry. EXPECTATION: BIOL/CHEM 4210 strongly recommended. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 4050. PREREQUISITE or COREQUISITE: CHEM 2220. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2022-23.
- 4650 Independent Study 1-4 hrs. (arranged)
Independently executed investigations, normally by students with upper-division standing. REPEAT: May be repeated. Credit not to exceed 12 hours.
- 4910 Science Seminar I 1 hr. (1, 0)
Techniques and practice of written and oral technical communication with respect to experimental or library research projects. Required of all science majors. Both BIOL 4910 and 4920 must be completed to receive advanced writing competency (writing-intensive) and speaking-intensive credit. PREREQUISITE: Science major. SAME AS: CHEM/PHYS 4910. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4920 Science Seminar II 1 hr. (1, 0)
Techniques and practice of written and oral technical communication with respect to experimental or library research projects. Required of all science majors. Both BIOL 4910 and 4920 must be completed to receive advanced writing competency (writing-intensive) and speaking-intensive credit. EXPECTATION: 4910 Science Seminar I should be completed. PREREQUISITE: Science major. SAME AS: CHEM/PHYS 4920. OFFERED: Sem. II.

BUSINESS

Dr. Lonnie Leeper, dean; Dr. Bates, Dr. Dulaney, Dr. Fox, Dr. Hochstetler, Dr. Lucas, Prof. Newton, Prof. Shaw, Dr. Shin, Dr. Sylvester, Prof. Tijerina.

The mission of the Falls School of Business is to create an environment that will enable and encourage our graduates to be:

- professionally competent through understanding the knowledge base of their discipline and possessing the ability to apply analytical and problem-solving skills to organizational problems,
- ethically sensitive, and
- informed by the Christian ideal of servanthood.

This mission is realized through a commitment to teaching excellence and genuine concern for each individual student and is supported by a faculty commitment to continuous professional development and service to the community.

The Falls School of Business is fully accredited by the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP). The Falls School of Business offers Bachelor of Arts, Master of Business Administration, and Doctor of Business Administration programs.

The Falls School of Business offers stand-alone majors and concentrations in:

Accounting with a concentration in CPA preparation and an optional concentration in:

- Certified Management Accountant (CMA) preparation

Engineering Management with concentrations in:

- Management
- Sales and Marketing

Finance

Global Business with concentrations in:

- Accounting
- Economics
- Finance
- Management
- Marketing

Management

Marketing with concentrations in:

- Social Media
- Marketing Strategy and Tactics
- Integrated Branding and Promotion
- Global Marketing
- Music and Entertainment Business

Music and Entertainment Business

Sport Marketing

A complementary major in Business Administration is offered to students with a primary major outside the Falls School of Business.

A wide selection of minors is available to all students, whether their major is inside or outside of the Falls School of Business:

- Accounting
- Economics
- Entertainment and Music Business
- Entrepreneurship
- Finance
- Global Business
- Management
- Marketing
- Social Media
- Sport Marketing

BUSINESS CORE (43-44 hrs.)

The following core classes are required of all accounting, finance, global business, management, marketing, and sport marketing majors:

- ACCT 2010, 2020
- ECON 2010, 2020
- BSNS 1050, 2310, 2450, 2510, 2710, 2810
- BSNS 3270, 3420, 4500, 4910
- MATH 1300, 1400, or 2010

ACCOUNTING

The accounting major is designed to provide a knowledge base in both financial and managerial accounting. Accounting courses expose the student to a broad perspective of accounting needed for management responsibility within a company, in the field of public accounting, and for studies in a graduate program.

The major provides coursework that helps prepare students for the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) exam. Indiana and many states require individuals to have completed a minimum of 150 hours of college credit to be eligible to take the CPA exam. Accounting majors who plan to enter the public accounting field are strongly encouraged to complete at least 150 hours before they complete their college education. Students wanting to take the Certified Management Accountant (CMA) exam can take the optional CMA concentration.

ACCOUNTING MAJOR (68 hrs.)

Accounting with CPA preparation:

- 43-hour business core
- 25-hour accounting core: ACCT 3010, 3020, 3110, 3500, 4020, 4050, 4100, 4310, 4900
- ACCT 4850 is strongly recommended for students preparing for the CPA exam.

Optional Concentration in Accounting:

CMA preparation

- BSNS 3240, 3350, 4150
- Recommended: ACCT 4860

ACCOUNTING MINOR (15 hrs.)

- 15 hours from ACCT courses

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Courses in business administration are designed to provide general understanding of the operation of organizations, preparation for careers in administration in business and various other kinds of societal organizations, and preparation for graduate study.

MAJORS

ENGINEERING MANAGEMENT MAJOR (63-65 hrs.)

- One course from MATH 1300, 1400, 2010
- BSNS 2450 or MATH 2120
- PHYS 2140 or PHYS 2240
- ENGR 2130 or CPSC 2040
- ECON 2010 or ECON 2020
- ENGR 2001, 2002, 2003, 2060, 2090
- BSNS 1100, 2710, 2810, 4500, 4910
- ACCT 2010
- PSYC 2100
- Select one of the following concentrations:
 - Management
 - BSNS 3240, 3270, 3510, 4010, 4050, 4480
 - Sales and Marketing
 - BSNS 3210, 3220, 3510, 3550, 4110, 4330, 4440

FINANCE MAJOR (61 hrs.)

- 43-hour business core
- BSNS 3150, 3350, 4150, 4160; ECON 3410
- 3 hours from BSNS 3850, BSNS 4240, BSNS 4320, BSNS 4800, ACCT 4020

GLOBAL BUSINESS MAJOR (65 hrs.)

- 43-hour business core
- BSNS 3120, 4120
- 3 hours from ACCT, BSNS, or ECON courses listed in the catalog
- Select one of the following concentrations:
 - Accounting
 - 1 course from SPAN 2010, FREN 2010, GERM 2010
 - 3 courses from ACCT 3010, 3020, 3110, 4310
 - Economics
 - 1 course from SPAN 2010, FREN 2010, GERM 2010
 - ECON 3020, 3110, 3410
 - Finance
 - 1 course from SPAN 2010, FREN 2010, GERM 2010
 - BSNS 3350, 4150; ECON 3410

Management

- 1 course from SPAN 2010, FREN 2010, GERM 2010
- BSNS 3230, 3240, 4480

Marketing

- 1 course from SPAN 2010, FREN 2010, GERM 2010
- BSNS 4250
- 2 courses from BSNS 3220, 3510, 4110, 4330

International Business Institute (IBI) Program

- ECON 3250
- BSNS 4170, 4250 and 4450

MANAGEMENT MAJOR (63 hrs.)

- 43-hour business core
- BSNS 3120, 3230, 4010, 4480; 3850 or 4800
- 6 hours from BSNS 3100, 3240, 3510, 4050, 4120, 4240, 4310

MARKETING MAJOR (61 hrs.)

- 43-hour business core
- BSNS 3220, 4110, 4330
- Completion of one of the following concentrations (9 hrs.):

Marketing Strategy and Tactics

- BSNS 3210, 3510, 3550

Social Media

- BSNS 3400, 4400
- 3 hours from BSNS 3510, 3550, 4240, 4310, 4800

Integrated Branding and Promotion

- BSNS 3550, 4550
- 3 hours from BSNS 3210, 3400, 4240, 4400, 4800; COMM 2240, 3240

Global Marketing

- BSNS 3120, 4250
- 3 hours from BSNS 4120 or INCS 3850*
- or
- IBI Program

Music and Entertainment Business

- BSNS 3360, 3330
- 3 hours from BSNS 3270, 3550, 4400, 4550

MUSIC AND ENTERTAINMENT BUSINESS MAJOR (52 hrs.)

- ACCT 2010
- ECON 2010
- BSNS 2310, 2450, 2510, 2710, 3270, 3320, 3330, 3360, 3550, 4400, 4500, 4550
- MUBS 2010, 2020, 3100
- 4 hours from BSNS 4810 or 4800

SPORT MARKETING MAJOR (66-67 hrs.)

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS INSTITUTE PROGRAM

The International Business Institute (IBI) Program is a 10-week, 12-credit-hour academic summer program that allows business students to incorporate a distinctive international experience into their field of study. The IBI program facilitates personal interaction with business leaders from top multinational corporations. Visits with industry leaders and top policymakers have included Daimler Benz, Nestlé, the Bank of England, and the British Parliament. Travel has included visits to England, Russia, Western and Eastern Europe, and Scandinavia. Acceptance into the program is on a competitive basis. Students should apply early in the fall semester of their junior year. The program is normally completed the summer between the student's junior and senior years. For additional information, visit ibi-program.org or contact the Falls School of Business.

The IBI Program may be taken to satisfy some requirements for the global business major, the global business minor, the global business concentration in the management major, or the global marketing concentration in the marketing major.

The IBI Program courses are ECON 3250; BSNS 4170, 4250, 4450.

 When taken to fulfill a requirement for a major, BSNS 4240 must have the prior approval of the student's advisor. When taken to fulfill a minor requirement, the course must have the approval of the dean of the Falls School of Business.*

* Practicum or internship must focus on experience related to the student's major or minor and must be approved by the dean of the Falls School of Business.*

Statistical analysis concepts and methods assist the student in identifying a problem area, collecting data, proposing a solution and measuring results. Each student gives an oral report of project findings. Applies to both the liberal arts writing-intensive and speaking-intensive requirements.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

Dr. Burnett, chair; Dr. Kirkpatrick, Dr. Lozano, Dr. Overstreet, Dr. Varner, Dr. Willowby

Questions of truth and destiny confront each generation and are at the root of all human enterprises, necessitating that the very nature of the educational task focus on these basic issues. With a firm commitment to the centrality of the Christian tradition for all such considerations, the Department of Christian Ministry offers coursework and field experiences designed to accomplish the following:

- Develop in all students a familiarity with and appreciation for the biblical foundations of the Christian faith;
- Make available from a Christian perspective a wide range of knowledge concerning the religious experience of humankind;
- Provide the biblical, theological, and pastoral Christian education, field courses, and experiences central to preparing enlightened and committed Christian leaders; and
- Develop students' appreciation for and critical reflection on their own and others' beliefs, practices, and experiences.

Students seeking two or more majors in the department (including complementary majors) must earn a minimum of 15 hours that are unique to each major. Students seeking minors as well as majors in this department must choose a different area of study for the minor and present a minimum of 12 hours not applied to the major.

BACHELOR OF ARTS AND MASTER OF DIVINITY 5-YEAR (4+1) DEGREES

The BA/MDiv 4+1 degree program is designed for undergraduate students who are highly motivated academically and sense an early call to ministry. It is designed to enable the student to complete both the BA and Master of Divinity degrees in a seamless 5-year program between Anderson University undergraduate studies and Seminary preparation. (Traditionally, completing both the BA and MDiv degrees has taken an average of seven years.) Basic requirements for the 5-year program are:

- Students must complete all requirements for an undergraduate BA degree at Anderson University and all requirements for the MDiv degree from AU Seminary.
- Students must submit the appropriate "change in major" form with the University Registrar so that graduate Seminary courses may be taken by undergraduates and substitute for the appropriate undergraduate courses.
- The MDiv degree may be combined with one of three undergraduate majors in the Department of Christian Ministry: Bible and Religion, Christian Ministries, or Youth Ministries.

For more information and a complete outline of courses, contact the Chair of the Department of Christian Ministry, the Dean of the School of Theology and Christian Ministry, or the Anderson University Office of Admissions.

BIBLE AND RELIGION

Courses in this major are drawn from the related areas of theology, Bible, and religion as students explore the biblical sources of Christian religion and its theology, practice, and relation to life and culture. This major is valuable for pre-seminary students and for students who want to pursue graduate studies in Bible or religion, such as a PhD degree.

BIBLE AND RELIGION MAJOR (36 hrs.)

RELIGION MINOR (15 hrs.)

- RLGN 2000, 3060, 3320
- Remaining hours from RLGN-captioned courses not applied to liberal arts requirements.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES

The Christian ministries major is designed to prepare students to serve as Christian leaders and servants in the world. It offers undergraduate study of ministry which may lead to (1) lay ministry while pursuing another profession; (2) a position of leadership in ministry in a local congregation, a church-related organization, or a related field; or (3) graduate study in ministry. This major is intended to be a first step in a plan of lifelong learning for ministry. Courses in the Christian ministries major include biblical and theological studies as well as ministry courses involving skill development in core ministry tasks, the exploration of various ministry options, and supervised practical experience.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES MAJOR (46 hrs.)

This major is designed for students desiring to enter ministry upon graduation, but who might choose to continue their studies later, and for students entering seminary immediately upon graduation. Courses in this major encourage ministry practice and informed reflection on that practice, giving students both depth and breadth of preparation.

- 24 hours from departmental core courses: BIBL 2000, 2050; RLGN 2000, 2130, 2150, 3040, 3060, 3300
- 19 hours from ministry core courses: CMIN 2000, 2810, 3050, 3080, 3910, 4250, 4810
- 3 hours from additional courses offered by the department

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES COMPLEMENTARY MAJOR (28 hrs.)

The Christian ministries complementary major may be taken only in conjunction with another major. This approach strengthens students' preparation for servanthood in today's world by connecting theological, biblical, and ministerial knowledge with students' bases of knowledge. It offers the opportunity to prepare for ministry while also preparing for another profession and gives students a broad base in preparation for graduate study in ministry.

- BIBL 2000; RLGN 2130, 2150, 3040, 3060
- CMIN 2000
- 3 hours from CMIN 3050, 3080, or 3910
- At least 1 hour from CMIN 2810, 4810 or 3340
- 3 additional hours from CMIN-captioned courses
- 3 additional hours from upper-division courses offered by the department

CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES MINOR (16 hrs.)

- CMIN 2000
- 9 additional hours chosen from CMIN courses
- 1 hour of CMIN 2810 Ministry Exploration
- 3 upper-division hours from additional courses offered by the department

YOUTH MINISTRIES MAJOR (49 hrs.)

- 24 hours from departmental core courses: BIBL 2000, 2050; RLGN 2000, 2130, 2150, 3040, 3060, 3300
- 10 hours from ministry core courses: CMIN 2000, 2810, 4250, 4810
- 3 additional hours from ministry core courses: CMIN 3050, 3080, or 3910
- 6 hours from youth ministry courses: CMIN 2260, 3260
- 3 hours from family courses: CMIN 3230, HIST 4030, or SOCI 2100
- 3 additional hours from courses offered by the department

The student may wish to join this major with the youth leadership development complementary major (Psychology Dept.).

Christian Ministries Experiential Education

The Christian ministries and youth ministries majors also offer experiential education in ministry, including internships (CMIN 2810, 4810) and experiential courses (CMIN 3340, 4650, 4910) offered in conjunction with agencies such as Urban Studies in cities like Chicago or Indianapolis and the Heart Institute in Florida. CMIN 3340 or CMIN 4810 will meet the experiential component of the liberal arts requirements for the Christian ministries major, the Christian ministries complementary major, and the youth ministries major.

CHRISTIAN SPIRITUAL FORMATION COMPLEMENTARY MAJOR (28-30 hrs.)

The Christian spiritual formation complementary major may be taken only in conjunction with another major. It is designed to aid students in becoming complete and mature disciples of Jesus Christ by integrating their Christian faith with academic knowledge from their particular major and from the field of Christian spirituality. The major will include questions of worldview, interdisciplinary approaches to Christian spirituality, and departmental offerings aimed towards developing a holistic understanding of God, the world, and self. Students will study the history, theology, and practices of major figures in Christian spirituality and how to apply that knowledge to serve as Christian leaders in their professional lives and in society-at-large.

- 9 hours from RLGN 1100; either RLGN 2410 or RLGN 2430; and RLGN 4960

PHILOSOPHY MINOR (15 hrs.)

Courses in philosophy involve students in relative consideration of the nature of humanity, society, morality, religion, the arts, and the natural world. These courses contribute to the liberal arts education in two basic ways: they help students understand and assess beliefs that are integral to their views of human existence, and they are meant to enable students to acquire philosophical skills and materials that enrich and integrate the study of other disciplines. Essential to the success of each course is an atmosphere of openness to diverse viewpoints and a respect for the high standards of critical thinking.

- 3020 Christianity and Social Justice 3 hrs. (3, 0)
The call to "do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with your God" is deeply rooted in Christian faith. Just what this element of Christian commitment means in lived experience, however, is neither consistently interpreted nor universally applied. This course affords students the opportunity to explore in some depth the relationship between Christian faith, in its various articulations, and social justice. The class addresses a selection of contemporary social justice issues (for example, racial justice, gender justice, environmental justice), exploring ways in which representative groups and individuals from the Christian tradition have understood the relationship between faith and social justice. The goal of the course is to introduce students to the complexities of each social justice issue, to encourage them to consider ways in which Christian faith commitments intersect with concerns about the issue, and to prompt them to develop a lifelong engagement with these concerns. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3040 Introduction to Christian Theology 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Beginnings in theology: province and methods of theology, doctrines of God, human nature, Christ, the church, and eschatology. PREREQUISITE: BIBL 2000. OFFERED: Sem. II.

The Department of Communication and Design Arts is committed to preparing students for an active and faithful life of stewardship within their chosen disciplines. Recognizing the close connection between creativity and the Creator, we seek to do this work with integrity, free and open inquiry, discipline, collaboration, and excellence.

Programs in the Department of Communication and Design Arts enable students to bring to the communication and design professions both breadth and depth, and they provide students with the opportunity to gain knowledge and learn skills and techniques.

The Department offers majors and minors in the following fields of study:

- Cinema and Media Arts

The major emphasizes the art of storytelling as the foundation for creating visual media. Instruction in audio, video, and cinema production prepares majors for careers in scriptwriting, production, management, and related areas. Students create and showcase their original work through the Black Bird Media Lab and the Black Bird Film Festival, and they have the opportunity to spend a semester in Hollywood through the CCCU's Los Angeles Film Studies Center.

- Journalism

Emphasis on newswriting skills aids students in preparing for careers in writing, reporting, announcing, and editing for print and electronic media. Practical experiences include generating news stories in classes, writing for the professional press, interning at a variety of news organizations, and publishing the student newspaper, the Andersonian.

- Public Relations

The field of public relations focuses broadly on strategically building and maintaining relationships with the various constituencies that are important to organizations. In the public relations major, students learn foundations, media writing, campaigns, research, ethics, social media, and event planning. Students may choose one of three tracks: public relations, public relations with a concentration in event planning, and public relations with a concentration in social media. This program offers an option to complete the major in three years rather than the traditional four. Classes are complemented by experiential learning through internships and the student-operated PR agency, Fifth Street Communications. The program also houses a chapter of the Public Relations Student Society of America (PRSSA). Juniors and seniors are required to maintain a PRSSA membership, with dues assessed each fall in COMM 2840.

- Visual Communication Design

This major prepares students for professional practice through intensive studio, theory, and history studies. A primary focus is the development of a visual portfolio — both print and digital. Courses engage students in the creation of visual products for print, web, and time-based media. Emphasis is placed on learning how to communicate ideas through appropriately and creatively designed visual products. Professional preparation opportunities include working with clients in studio-based projects and internships at the junior and/or senior levels. Students completing the major are prepared to work in design studios; advertising, marketing, and public relations agencies; corporate and church in-house communications departments; and other professional environments where visual communication is a primary component.

ARTH COURSES (History)

- | | | |
|-------------|---|----------------------|
| 2000 | Great Themes in Art History | 3 hrs. (3, 0) |
| | An integrative course focusing on important themes found in art and design history through lecture and studio experiences. The course examines these themes from medieval through modern times. OFFERED: Sem. I, II. | |
| 3010 | Ancient to Medieval Art | 3 hrs. (3, 0) |
| | Study of art and architecture from ancient cultures through the Middle Ages. OFFERED: Sem. I, 2023-24. | |
| 3020 | Renaissance to Modern Art | 3 hrs. (3, 0) |
| | A study of art and architecture from Italian Renaissance through the Modern period. OFFERED: Sem. I, 2022-23. | |
| 3030 | Contemporary Art and Design | 3 hrs. (3, 0) |
| | A survey of the prevailing theories, art and design products, and practitioners that emerge from the mid-twentieth century to the present. Students are expected to develop verbal and written skills in discussing contemporary visual products and to learn to identify significant characteristics of these products. This course is intended to promote the student's understanding of important ideas that shaped art and design practices and to expand knowledge of the debates regarding contemporary critical theory and criticism. This course applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2023-24. | |
| 1210 | Drawing for Liberal Arts | 3 hrs. (3, 0) |
| | Covers the basic aspects of drawing; investigating art elements of space, value, line, and form. OFFERED: Sem. II. | |

ARTS COURSES (Studio)

- 1230 Painting for Liberal Arts 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Introduction to concepts and processes of painting. Basic problems of space, image, and color are explored. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 1250 Graphic Design for Liberal Arts 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Study of graphic design history, color theory, design rules, and graphic design software. Students create theme-based projects. OFFERED: Sem. I, Summer.
- 2010 Introduction to Drawing 3 hrs. (6, 3)
Covers a variety of skills and subject matter attempting to develop visual understanding and sensitivity. Formal art elements relevant to drawing; exploration of various graphic media. Main concerns are concepts of processes and seeing as related to drawing. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2011 Two-Dimensional Design 3 hrs. (6, 3)
A series of directed studio problems, using a variety of media, concerned with the elements of form and the principles of organization in two-dimensional visual forms. Emphasis on composition, such as Gestalt principles, structural arrangements, and visual communication theories. Students are introduced to a design/research process that is applied to course assignments and to the departmental sketchbook/journal requirement. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2060 Illustration 3 hrs. (6, 3)
Builds on the visual concepts in Introduction to Drawing. Emphasis is placed on problem solving through structured, illustrative projects that engage the relationship of form and concept. PREREQUISITE: ARTS 2010. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2100 Introduction to Graphic Design 3 hrs. (3, 2)
Introduction to problem-solving in visual communication. Students engage in hands-on design and computer activities, develop creative thinking strategies, and devise solutions to visual communication design challenges. Intended for Visual Communication Design majors. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3110 Visual Design Studio I 3 hrs. (6, 3)
An introduction to the practice of graphic design. Students engage in studio problems that explore the communicative potential of visual symbol-making. The meaningful interrelation of text and image is investigated through the integration of drawing, photography, illustration, and typography. Students also begin to develop an individual design methodology that includes textual and visual research, explorative design thinking, appropriate visual/ verbal presentation approaches, and critique skills. PREREQUISITE: ARTS 2011, 2060, 2100. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3114 Visual Design Studio II 3 hrs. (6, 3)
Utilizes visual research and design thinking introduced in Visual Design Studio I. Through the execution of projects employing layout, illustration and photo-imaging software, students examine aspects of the complexities of visual communication. PREREQUISITE: ARTS 2011, 2060, 3110. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3310 Typography Studio 3 hrs. (6, 3)
Introduction to history, aesthetics, and process of typography. Examines layout formats and the interrelationships of text, display types, composition, and content. Study of letter forms and designing with type. PREREQUISITE: ARTS 2011, 2060, 2100. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4114 Design for Digital Media 3 hrs. (6, 3)
Advanced study and application of systems, principles, and procedures underlying the practice of graphic design as related to digitally based projects. Introduction to interactive digital media technology and the impact upon design professions. Students encounter the complexities of working with clients and vendors in the realization of designed electronic materials and virtual environments. Interdisciplinary design teams work to structure design problems to develop well-conceptualized solutions. PREREQUISITE: ARTS 3114. OFFERED: Sem. I.

- 4310 Design Thinking 3 hrs. (6, 3)
Further investigation of effective visual communication with an emphasis on problem solving, conceptual development, and visual logic. Students develop design methodology while exploring various facets of the design process. PREREQUISITE: ARTS 3114. OFFERED: Sem. II
- 4420 Design Methodology 3 hrs. (6, 3)
Research and communication theory and practice related to practicum experiences. Series of meetings and discussions with visiting experts. PREREQUISITE: ARTS 4114, 4310. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 4450 Special Topics in Graphic Design 3 hrs. (6, 3)
Opportunity to explore in depth a specialization in the graphic design industry that is outside the design core. Topics may include design within nontraditional media, book layout and illustration, and packaging design. PREREQUISITE: ARTS 4114, 4310. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2023-24.
- 4650 Special Projects in Art (Two-Dimensional) 1-4 hrs. (arranged)
Exploration of specific problems in students' areas of concentration, carried out independently with instructor. EXPECTATION: Appropriate introductory and intermediate-level experience. Does not count toward the visual communication design major. CONSENT: Instructor. REPEAT: May be repeated. Total credit not to exceed 4 hours. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 4820 Internship 1-4 hrs. (arranged)
Practical experiences in the professional field, typically up to 20 hours per week. Students learn employers' job methods relating to creative design applications, production responsibilities, and client contact. CONSENT: Instructor. REPEAT: May be repeated. Two hours of credit are required in the major; an additional two hours may be taken. PREREQUISITE: ARTS 4114, 4310. OFFERED: Sem. I, II; Summer.
- 4930 Comprehensive Projects I 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Development of paper utilizing inquiry-based research approach. Exhibition planning. PREREQUISITE: ARTS 4114, 4310. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 4950 Comprehensive Projects II 4 hrs. (4, 2)
Students prepare portfolios, written inquiry papers, an oral presentation on their work, and concluding exhibitions. This course applies to the liberal arts speaking-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: ARTS 4930. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.

COMM COURSES

- 1000 Introduction to Speech Communication 3 hrs. (3, 0)
The exploration and practice of public speaking with respect to topic selection, research, organization, and presentation. Students deliver speeches extemporaneously and by manuscript in the informative, persuasive, and commemorative modes. Emphasis on verbal and nonverbal aspects of speaking. OFFERED: Sem. I, II; Summer.
- 2000 Media and Society 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Examination of major print and electronic media in terms of historical development, functions, structures, and issues. Entry course to majors in public relations, journalism, and cinema and media arts. Students are encouraged to take the COMM 2010 requirement concurrently whenever possible. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 2010 The Communication Professional 1 hr. (1, 0)
Orientation to working in the media, professional attitudes and expectations, planning a career, and developing a professional portfolio. Students are encouraged to take the COMM 2000 requirement concurrently whenever possible. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.

COMM (cont.)

- 2020 Audio Concepts and Production 3 hrs. (3, 1)
Introduction to the basic tools, disciplines, and concepts of audio production. Using current audio hardware and software, students will develop skills in announcing, recording, mixing, and digital editing. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2060 Video/Cinema Concepts 3 hrs. (2, 2)
Introduction to the disciplines, concepts, hardware, and software of video/cinema production. Topics and practices include theory of video/cinema, visual space, camera operation, graphics, digital editing, directing, and producing. Both multi-camera and single-camera production opportunities. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2130 Writing for the Media 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Research and writing in a variety of media, with an emphasis on news, features, public relations, and commercial copy. This course applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2140 Digital Production Techniques in Journalism and Public Relations 3 hrs. (3, 2)
Introduction to the basic knowledge and skills required of journalists and public relations practitioners in digital media. Includes single-camera production, audio and video editing, use of the teleprompter, etc. PREREQUISITE: COMM 2130, 2200. OFFERED: Sem. I, 2022-23.
- 2160 The Art of Storytelling 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Introduction to theme, plot, story arc, character, and narrative view as told through cinema and media arts. Particular emphasis on screenwriting. COMPUTER SCIENCE

Prof. Craton, chair; Prof. Koontz, Prof. Niezgodski, Dr. Preston

The mission of the Department of Computer Science is to provide students with a strong foundation in the field, build a love for lifelong learning, and ignite a desire to use their skills in service to the church and to society. The Department of Computer Science offers three standard majors — computer science (Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Arts), data science (Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Arts), and cybersecurity (Bachelor of Arts), which is an interdisciplinary major offered in conjunction with the security studies program. Also, for students wishing to add a concentration of coursework in these subjects to an existing major, three complementary majors are offered — business-information systems, computer science, and data science. The knowledge and skills gained in these majors are uniquely suited to allow our students to be servant leaders in their communities. Anderson University computer science, cybersecurity, and data science students are immersed in project-based experiential learning in both the classroom and the community.

Students develop and apply their knowledge outside the classroom by completing on-campus internships with area companies or the Center for Security Studies and Cyber Defense, working with Anderson University Information Technology Services, and working within the Department of Computer Science to install and maintain servers, network, and lab computers. Additional off-campus opportunities include internships with companies in the surrounding counties. Anderson University students in these majors are recognized by employers as having the key abilities necessary in quality employees: integrity, Christ-centered servant leadership, strong written and oral communication skills, problem-solving abilities, excellent computer science skills, and an eagerness to learn what is needed to solve problems.

COMPUTER SCIENCE PROGRAMS

The curriculum for a bachelor's degree in computer science at Anderson University follows the current Association of Computing Machinery (ACM) curriculum guidelines, incorporates software engineering throughout the curriculum, and provides students with the opportunity to use a wide array of software development technologies. During the freshman and sophomore years, students build the foundation of computer science knowledge while also developing the soft skills that employers value from a liberal arts education. Juniors and seniors focus on applying principles of this foundational knowledge and software engineering to advanced topics, including cybersecurity, computer networks, and operating systems. Teamwork, problem solving, and communication skills (written and oral) are emphasized throughout the program. Projects are oriented toward service to the surrounding community and the university when possible.

A major in computer science allows graduates to pursue jobs in the technology sector, including software development, testing, information technology support, and web development, among many other opportunities. Students who intend to continue their education in graduate school or focus on computationally complex problems in the computer science industry should complete the requirements for the Bachelor of Science in computer science, which adds foundational courses in math and science as well as requiring an additional computer science course.

A complementary major allows graduates to apply computer science in the specific area of their primary major; nearly any area of study can benefit from the use of computer science principles. The minor in computer science is designed for students who intend to use computer skills within a major to assist in the study of that major. Students are encouraged to speak with computer science faculty when selecting elective credit in order to choose courses that are most applicable to their concentration.

Students majoring in computer science are urged to complete additional coursework in mathematics, accounting, business administration, physics, cybersecurity, or related areas.

COMPUTER SCIENCE MAJOR, BACHELOR OF ARTS (59 hrs.)

- CPSC 1400, 1500, 2100, 2330, 2420, 2430, 2500
- ENGR 2200, MATH 2200/CPSC 2250
- CPSC 3380, 3410, 4420, 4430, 4950, 4960
- 6 credit hours from courses numbered CPSC/ENGR 2000 and above
- 3-4 hours from MATH courses numbered 1300 or above

COMPUTER SCIENCE MAJOR, BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (82 hrs.)

- CPSC 1400, 1500, 2100, 2330, 2420, 2430, 2500
- ENGR 2200, MATH 2200/CPSC 2250
- CPSC 3380, 4420, 4430, 4950, 4960
- CPSC 3410 or ENGR 4050
- CPSC 3500 or CPSC 3520
- MATH 2010, 2020, 3010, 4010
- PHYS 2240
- 2-3 credit hours from courses numbered CPSC/ENGR 2000 and above
- an additional 6 credit hours from:
 - MATH 3020 and above
 - CHEM 2110 and above
 - PHYS 2250 and above
 - ENGR 3260, 3270, 3280 or 4020

COMPUTER SCIENCE COMPLEMENTARY MAJOR (32 hrs.)

- CPSC 1400, 1500, 2100, 2500
- 4 hours from one of the following courses: MATH 2010, 2020, 2120, 2200
- 12 hours from any course CPSC 1200 or above, as approved in a plan of study by the computer science advisor

COMPUTER SCIENCE MINOR (16 hrs.)

- CPSC 1400, 1500
- 8 hours of additional credit from CPSC 1200 and above

CYBERSECURITY PROGRAMS

The cybersecurity major is an interdisciplinary major and can be found in the Security Studies section of the catalog. The cybersecurity major is aligned to meet the standards required for accreditation by the Department of Homeland Security and National Security Agency as a National Center of Academic Excellence in Cyber Defense Education (CAE-CDE).

DATA SCIENCE PROGRAMS

The curriculum for a Bachelor of Science degree in data science at Anderson University follows the current Association of Computing Machinery (ACM) curriculum guidelines for data science programs. Both the Bachelor of Science and the Bachelor of Arts major in data science prepares graduates to pursue a life of curiosity, exploration, and knowledge creation. Graduates of these programs will have developed an intuition for discovering meaning in data and will have the skills needed to provide value and purpose in almost any field. The Bachelor of Science data science major prepares students with the advanced mathematical foundations to pursue graduate school or tackle the most challenging problems in industry, while the Bachelor of Arts focuses on the application of the knowledge and techniques of data science to problems in a wide variety of fields.

The complementary major in data science provides students with the foundational understanding to be able to utilize data science techniques and tools within their primary major. The techniques of data science are applicable to a broad range of different domains, so that nearly any major can be enhanced by a complementary major in data science. The minor in data science provides an initial foundation for understanding the functionality of data science tools, and is intended to serve as the first step towards the use of data science techniques in the student's major field of study.

DATA SCIENCE MAJOR, BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (72-74 hrs.)

- MATH 2010, 2020, 3010, 3020, 4010, and POSC 2420
- CPSC 1400, 1500, 2040, 2080, 2100, 2330, 2500
- CPSC 3520, 4100, 4430, 4950, 4960, and PHIL 3250
- 3-4 hours from selected Communication Electives (see below)
- 3-4 hours from selected Domain Electives (see below)
- a minor or major in an application domain (see below)

DATA SCIENCE MAJOR, BACHELOR OF ARTS (57-59 hrs.)

- MATH 2010, 2120, and POSC 2420
- CPSC 1400, 1500, 2040, 2080, 2100, 2330, 2500
- CPSC 3520, 4100, 4430, 4950, 4960, and PHIL 3250
- 3-4 hours from selected Communication Electives (see below)
- 3-4 hours from selected Domain Electives (see below)
- a minor or major in an application domain (see below)

DATA SCIENCE COMPLEMENTARY MAJOR (34-36 hrs.)

- MATH 2120 and POSC 2420
- CPSC 1400, 1500, 2040, 2100, 4100
- 4 hours from any computer science course numbered greater than CPSC 3000
- 3-4 hours from selected Communication Electives (see below)
- 3-4 hours from selected Domain Electives (see below)

DATA SCIENCE MINOR (15 hrs.)

- MATH 2120
- CPSC 1400, 2040, 2100

Eligible data science communication electives:

- ARTS 2100, COMM 2200, ENGL 3140, ENGL 3160, or a course approved by the data science advisor

Eligible data science minors:

- Students are required to minor in an application domain, as approved by a data science advisor.
- Suggested minors include: Accounting, Biology, Chemistry, Criminal Justice, Marketing, Management, Physics, Psychology, Social Media, and Sports Marketing.

Eligible data science domain electives:

- One course at the level of 3000 or above in the domain area is required, as approved by the data science advisor
- The following courses are pre-approved for students in the corresponding domain: BIOL 4050, CHEM 3100, CHEM 4110, ENGR 4120, PHYS 4220, PHYS 4410, SOCI 3700, POSC 3140, POSC 3360, PSYC 3240, ACCT 3110, BSNS 2450, BSNS 3240, MATH 3400, BIBL 2050, HIST 2300, RLGN 3120

BUSINESS-INFORMATION SYSTEMS

The business-information systems complementary major combines coursework in subjects relevant to both computer science and business. This complementary major is a valuable supplement to other majors with key knowledge in the use of computer science and business principles especially applicable in the major's studies. The minor in information systems is designed for individuals who intend to apply computer skills to business-related problems or for those who wish to complement any degree with marketable computer skills.

BUSINESS INFORMATION SYSTEMS COMPLEMENTARY MAJOR (31 hrs.)

- ACCT 2010
- BSNS 2710, 2810, 3400, 4400
- CPSC 1400, 1500, 2100
- any 4 hours from CPSC 1100 or above

INFORMATION SYSTEMS MINOR (15 hrs.)

- CPSC 1100 or BSNS 3400
- CPSC 1400
- Either CPSC 1200 and 2300 or CPSC 1500 and 2100

CPSC COURSES

Note: For all courses with a CPSC 2000 caption, a laptop is required.

- | | | |
|-------------|---|----------------------|
| 1100 | Introduction to Business Informatics | 3 hrs. (3, 0) |
| | An introduction to computer-based business-problem-solving applications and methods. Core topics include spreadsheets with emphasis on formulas and functions, relational databases with emphasis on relational database design and use of SQL, and web software development with emphasis on HTML 5 and CSS. Students are to take the Certiport Microsoft Excel certification exam as part of the course. PREREQUISITE: Mathematics proficiency (see Liberal Arts Program in this catalog). OFFERED: Sem. I. | |
| 1200 | Introduction to Web Programming | 4 hrs. (4, 0) |
| | An introduction to program design and development using HTML 5, CSS, JavaScript, and WordPress. Emphasis is on problem-solving and issues related to web publishing. PREREQUISITE: Mathematics proficiency (see Liberal Arts Program in this catalog). OFFERED: Sem. II. | |

- 1400 Computer Science I 4 hrs. (4, 0)
An introduction to disciplined, object-oriented program development. Topics include a survey of computer architecture and systems, problem-solving and algorithm development, data types and variables, control-of-flow structures, event-driven programming, private methods, and parameter passing. An introduction to the command line environment is presented. PREREQUISITE: Mathematics proficiency (see Liberal Arts Program in this catalog). OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 1500 Computer Science II 4 hrs. (4, 0)
This course builds upon the topics covered in Computer Science I and provides experience developing complex applications. Topics include net-centric computing, arrays, file processing, object modeling using UML, and object-oriented programming with emphasis on writing classes. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 1400. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2040 Introduction to Data Science 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Students will gain practical knowledge of Data Science using the Python programming language. Topics covered will include data wrangling, storage, analysis, and visualization. Basic applications of statistical inference will be covered using Jupyter Lab, pandas, numpy, scipy, and sklearn. PREREQUISITE: Math proficiency (see Liberal Arts Program in this catalog). OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2080 Introduction to Cybersecurity 3 hrs. (3, 0)
This course introduces cybersecurity beginning with the foundational concepts and security principles then proceeding to threat, vulnerability, and risk management. Students will work with different offensive and defensive cyber tools to identify, protect, detect, respond, and recover critical infrastructure. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2100 Database Programming 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Study of relational database management systems and information storage and retrieval techniques. Topics include ERD and UML modeling, normalization, and SQL programming, stored procedures, triggers, views, transaction processing, concurrency control. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 1400. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2180 Scripting and Systems 3 hrs. (3, 0)
This course teaches students to develop scripts for managing systems and automating operations. Students in the class will write scripts for command environments in Windows and Linux operating systems. The course introduces fundamental scripting goals and programming concepts like algorithms, data structures, type checking, loops, conditional logic, functions, parameters, and regular expressions. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2250 Discrete Mathematical Structures 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Topics include Boolean algebra, computer logic, relations and functions, logic and proof techniques, combinatorics, algebraic structures, and graph theory. PREREQUISITE: Mathematics proficiency. SAME AS: MATH 2200. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2300 System Administration 3 hrs. (2, 2)
Students will learn systems administration principles and practices focusing on both Windows and Linux based environments. Students will be exposed to hardware and software components of modern computing systems (desktop, server, IOT, virtual and cloud), data storage devices, data in use and transmission, networking and security components, as well as operating system kernel, configuration hardening, vulnerability, and patch management. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 1400 or CPSC 2180 or ENGR 2003. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2320 C++ Programming 1 hr. (0, 2)
Introductory course in C++ programming for students who know a different high-level language. The course introduces the C++ syntax and semantics of functions, classes, and parts of the standard template library (STL). Hands-on projects use the C++ language to solve mathematical and engineering problems. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 2310 or CPSC 1500. OFFERED: Sem. I.

- 2330 Web Application Development 4 hrs. (4, 0)
This course introduces students to a broad range of web application software development tools and technologies. It includes coverage of HTML 5, CSS, and JavaScript. Topics include client and server side web page development, the creation of asynchronous web applications, database access and MVC software design. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 2100. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2420 Computer Architecture 2 hrs. (1, 2)
Principles of computer architecture are introduced, including instruction and data representation, fundamentals of assembly language, and low-level operating systems concepts, including registers, memory addressing, caching, the operating system stack, and bus architecture. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 1500 or ENGR 2310. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2430 Programming Languages and Compilers 2 hrs. (1, 2)
A survey of programming languages and methods of translation. Topics include programming paradigms, language syntax and lexical analysis, language design choices, and design of compilers. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 2500. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2500 Data Structures and Algorithms 4 hrs. (3, 2)
In-depth study of data structures and algorithms, including stacks, queues, and trees through the use of abstract data types to facilitate problem solving. Searching and sorting techniques will be applied to appropriate data structures. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 1500 or ENGR 2310. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2550 Selected Topics 2-4 hrs. (arranged)
Courses offered periodically on selected topics related to computer science or cybersecurity, and intended for both non-majors and majors within the department. Prerequisites vary according to course content. REPEAT: Different topics can be counted towards major electives, up to 6 total credit hours. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 2800 Computer Science Internship 2-4 hrs. (arranged)
Participation under professional supervision in business and industry, and experience in a production environment. CONSENT: Instructor. GRADE: CR/NC.
- 3300 Numerical Analysis 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Introduction to numerical algorithms fundamental to scientific and mathematical computer use. Solutions of transcendental, polynomial, and differential equations; matrix algebra; linear programming; numerical integration and differentiation; Monte Carlo methods; and curve fitting. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 1400, MATH 2020. SAME AS: MATH 3300. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3380 Applied Cryptography and Security 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Covers topics in applied cryptography (symmetric and asymmetric), public-key infrastructure, hashing, digital signatures, VPN, confidentiality and identity mechanisms, as well as common cryptographic failures. Protocols for securing data, applications, and network transmissions are covered in hands-on labs. This course covers the technical skills necessary to understand cryptographic standards and assess their implementation. The current state of technology and cybersecurity is also discussed. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 1500 or CPSC 2180 or ENGR 2310. MATH 2200 or MATH 2010. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3410 Computer Networks 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Students will learn the fundamental concepts, technologies, components, and issues related to communications and data networks. The course topics include networking models (OSI and IP), media (wired, wireless, optical), architectures (PAN, LAN/WAN, DMZ, VLAN, subnetting), devices (routers, switches, firewalls), and protocols (IP, TCP, UDP, ICMP). The fundamental concepts behind network security and network related threats are presented. Practical network software programming is covered with hands-on experience in the lab. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 2180 or CPSC 2500. OFFERED: Sem. I.

- 3500 Design and Analysis of Computer Algorithms 4 hrs. (4, 0)
A study of techniques used in advanced algorithms, including algorithmic approaches such as brute-force, greedy, and divide-and-conquer algorithms, as well as recursive backtracking and dynamic programming. Supporting data structures like trees and graphs are studied, as well as search methods and related algorithms. In addition, the differences between P, NP, and NP-complete problems are discussed. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 2500. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 3520 Introduction to Artificial Intelligence 4 hrs. (3, 2)
This course introduces a range of topics in artificial intelligence including classical search algorithms, knowledge bases and logical inference, Bayesian networks and statistical inference, and machine learning. Emphasis is given to applications of these techniques. Students are required to implement many of the algorithms discussed throughout the course in the form of multiple larger projects. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 2500, MATH 2120 or MATH 4010, MATH 2010. EXPECTATION: Strong mathematical background and Python proficiency. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 3550 Special Topics 2-4 hrs. (arranged)
Courses offered periodically on special topics related to computer science or cybersecurity, intended for majors within the department. Prerequisites vary according to course content. REPEAT: Different topics can be counted towards major electives, up to 6 total credit hours. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 3650 Independent Study 2-4 hrs. (arranged)
Independent study under faculty direction. CONSENT: Instructor. REPEAT: May be repeated.
- 3800 Computer Science Internship 2-4 hrs. (arranged)
Participation under professional supervision in business and industry, and experience in a production environment. CONSENT: Instructor. GRADE: CR/NC.
- 4080 Network Security 3 hrs. (2, 2)
This class provides students with an understanding of the concepts used in designing a secure network, defending a network, and a familiarity with the tools and techniques that can be used to protect a network from cyber threats. Issues in network forensics are addressed. Students will use packet capturing and logging to diagnose real-world network and security issues. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 2300, CPSC 3380, and CPSC 3410. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 4100 Advanced Databases and Big Data Analytics 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Lecture and discussion of advanced topics in data management is combined with a student-managed big data concept project. The course emphasizes applying research and planning to provide robust and efficient solutions to common complex big data issues. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 2100. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 4420 Operating Systems 4 hrs. (3, 2)
This course focuses on the fundamentals of operating systems (OS), including how the OS manages processes, memory, I/O, and file management. Process and thread management are emphasized, including synchronization, communication, races, and deadlocks. Virtual memory, virtualization/hypervisors, and disk management are also discussed. With each topic, the security implications and design considerations are thoroughly discussed. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 2420 and CPSC 2500. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 4430 Software Engineering 4 hrs. (3, 2)
A study of the principles of software design and development through the development of a large group project. Topics include requirements specification, project design and scheduling, security issues, verification, and validation. Software tools will be used for static code analysis, vulnerability scanning, and fuzzing. An emphasis is put on writing secure, high quality software that will work as expected in all circumstances and not be easily susceptible to vulnerabilities. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 2100 and CPSC 2500. RECOMMENDED: CPSC 2330. OFFERED: Sem. I.

- 4480 Cybersecurity Certification 1 hr. (arranged)
Students study for a cybersecurity certification exam using prior course experiences and online resources. Students must take the certification exam to earn credit for the course. Eligible certification exams include CompTIA Security+ and EC-Council Certified Ethical Hacker. Students are responsible for required course materials and exam fee.
REPEAT: May be repeated once for a second certification. Meets the Experiential Learning Requirement of the Liberal Arts catalog. PREREQUISITE: Junior standing. GRADE: CR/NC. OFFERED: As a directed study class only.
- 4800 Computer Science Internship 2-4 hrs. (arranged)
Participation under professional supervision in business and industry, and experience in a production environment.
CONSENT: Instructor. GRADE: CR/NC.
- 4950 Senior Design Capstone I 2 hrs. (1, 2)
Students will apply software engineering principles through the development of significant projects. Course topics include discussion of ethical issues, career-readiness topics, and networking with guest speakers. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 2100 and senior standing. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4960 Senior Design Capstone II 2 hrs. (1, 2)
Students continue to apply software engineering principles, focusing on overall project design, facilitating teamwork, and further building their critical-thinking, written, and oral communication abilities. Meets the Experiential Learning Requirement of the Liberal Arts catalog. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 4950. OFFERED: Sem. II.

ENGLISH

Prof. Miller Fox, chair; Prof. Elliott, Dr. Imafuji, Dr. C. Miller, Dr. Parks, Prof. Ranfeld

The academic programs hosted by the English department pursue two objectives: to facilitate students' study of literature within the context of the great humanities and to support students' professional preparation.

Courses in the Literary Studies major develop a dialogue between the past and the present across political, cultural, linguistic, and ideological barriers, covering American, British, and global literature. The study of literature, as it reflects human activity, helps us to understand human values, motives, identity, and social structures. Introductory courses develop necessary skills for critical reading, analytical thinking, scholarly research, linguistic study, and literary interpretation.

Courses in the Writing major engage students through advanced training in expository, argumentative, poetic and narrative writing techniques. The department also offers lower-division writing courses to develop basic skill competencies necessary for success in college-level work.

Courses in the Language Arts Teaching major prepare students to teach composition and literature in middle school or high school classrooms. Courses fulfill requirements for content knowledge and meet standards established by state licensing boards and accreditation bodies.

Additionally, the English department hosts minors in Literary Studies, English Studies and Writing, all of which are designed to complement any other major on campus.

LITERARY STUDIES MAJOR (35 hrs.)

- Literature (18 hrs.)
 - ENGL 2400
 - Plus five of the following six courses:
ENGL 2220, 3540, 3560, 3570, 3580, 3320
- Language (3 hrs.)
 - Choose one: ENGL 3000, 3050
- ENGL 4910 (3 hrs.)
- Electives (11 hrs.)
 - Choose from any 2000-level or higher ENGL course, including ENGL 3870, 3880

Credit for internship experience (ENGL 4880) of up to 3 hours may be applied toward the major and must be approved in advance by the department chair.

The department strongly recommends adding a Writing major (35 hours) or minor (15 hours) to increase one's competency in writing. The Literary Studies major and Writing major must have a minimum of 15 hours that are unique to each. The Literary Studies major and Writing minor may share up to 3 hours in common.

ENGL 1100, 1110, 1120, 1400, and 4700 do not apply to the major.

LITERARY STUDIES MINOR (15 hrs.)

- ENGL 2400

- One or more courses from each group:
 - British Literature: ENGL 3320, 3540, 3560
 - American Literature: ENGL 3570, 3580
 - 3000-level writing courses: ENGL 3110, 3120, 3140, 3160, 3180, 3190
- ENGL 1100, 1110, 1120, 1400, and 4700 do not apply to the Literary Studies minor.

LANGUAGE ARTS TEACHING MAJOR (44 hrs.)

To fulfill requirements for teaching language arts at the secondary level, students must complete the core requirements as well as the literature courses listed below. In addition to these requirements, students pursuing a teaching major must also meet additional requirements listed in the Department of Teacher Education section of this catalog.

Core requirements (29 hrs.):

- ENGL 2220, 2400, 3000, 3050, 3580, 3590, 4700, COMM 2200, 4750, PSYC 2100

Remaining requirements (15 hrs.):

- One course from each of the following pairs (6 hrs.):
 - ENGL 3110 or 3120
 - ENGL 3180 or 3190
- British Literature (6 hrs.): Two courses from ENGL 3320, 3540, 3560
- American Literature (3 hrs.): ENGL 3570

WRITING MAJORS AND MINOR

The writing major provides the student with opportunities to develop advanced writing competencies in a range of creative and professional writing arenas.

WRITING MAJOR (35 hrs.)

- ENGL 4910
- 18-25 hours from ENGL 2500, 2510, 2580, 3000, 3110, 3120, 3140, 3160, 3180, 3190, 3870, 3880, COMM 3220 or COMM 3260
- 3-8 hours from any other ENGL course level 2000 or higher, not listed above.
- ENGL 4800: 1-3 hours of writing internship experience (required of all writing majors and must be approved in advance by the department chair).
- 3-4 hours from ARTS 2100, ARTS 1250, COMM 2240, CPSC 1100, CPSC 1200

Please note if a student chooses to also pursue the Literary Studies major, the Writing major and the Literary Studies major may share in common up to 15 credit hours. In practice, however, given each major's requirements, it is likely that they will share fewer hours in common.

WRITING MINOR (15 hrs.)

Courses may be selected from the following:

- ENGL 2500, 2510, 2580, 3000, 3110, 3120, 3140, 3160, 3180, 3190, 3870
- COMM 2130 or FREN 3240 or SPAN 3010 or MUBS 2070

ENGLISH STUDIES MINOR (15 hrs.)

A flexible, generalized minor that provides students with the opportunity to take any combination of English courses 2000-level or above.

Courses may be selected from the following:

- Literature courses: ENGL 2400, 2220, 3320, 3540, 3560, 3570, 3580
- Language courses: ENGL 3000, 3050
- Writing and experiential courses: 2500/2510 (corequisites), 2580, 3110, 3120, 3140, 3160, 3180, 3190, 3870, 3880, 4800, 4910

English 1100, 1110, 1120 and 4700 do not apply to the English Studies minor.

SONGWRITING MAJOR (44 hrs.)

The following major is offered for those interested in songwriting. English department offerings comprise 14 hours of the major.

- MUSC 1010, 1030, 2110
- MUPF 1050
- 2 hours of MUPF 2900
- 2 hours of applied music study
- MUBS 2010, 2020, 2070, 4500
- 6 hours from MUBS 3100, 3210, 3220, 3310, 4800, 4900; BSNS 3330, 3360
- ENGL 2400, 2500, 3120
- 6 hours from ENGL 2580, 3320, 3540, 3560, 3570

ENGL COURSES

- | | | |
|-------------|---|----------------------|
| 1100 | Rhetoric and Composition - Basic
Designed for students who need supplemental help with writing skills. Focuses on theory and practice of expository writing based on experience and observation. Emphasizes development of functional and flexible writing processes for a range of purposes and audiences. Includes assigned readings. Requires attention to sentence style, diction. Grade of C- or better is required. | 4 hrs. (4, 0) |
| 1110 | Rhetoric and Composition
Focuses on theory and practice of expository writing based on experience and observation. Emphasizes development of functional and flexible writing processes for a range of purposes and audiences. Includes assigned readings. Grade of C- or better is required. | 3 hrs. (3, 0) |
| 1120 | Rhetoric and Research
Focuses on theory and practice of writing based on external sources. Emphasizes library, electronic, and primary research sources and methods. Satisfies writing skill requirement for graduation. Does not satisfy the Advanced Writing Competency requirement. Grade of C- or better is required. PREREQUISITE: Grade of C- or better in ENGL 1100 or ENGL 1110. | 3 hrs. (3, 0) |
| 1400 | Valuing Through Literature
Examines literature from a variety of cultures and time periods. Works are selected and discussed in terms of value systems and ethical issues presented in them. | 3 hrs. (3, 0) |

ENGL (cont.)

- 2220 Global Literature 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Surveys representative 20th-century and contemporary literature from the several inhabited continents. Seeks to explore both the diversity and commonality of the global community in the social, political, ethical, and cultural dimensions. Applies to the liberal arts speaking-intensive requirement.
- 2400 Introduction to Literary Studies 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Examines works in English, American, and world literature to help students learn to read poetry, fiction, and drama for maximum enjoyment, appreciation, and understanding. Emphasis on critical analysis of literature and applying these skills in written work as well as discussion. Major scholarly approaches to literature introduced. Required for literary studies and language arts teaching majors. Strongly recommended as the first literature course in the major. OFFERED: Every fall.
- 2500 Appreciation of the Writing Craft 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Defines and analyzes the fundamental elements and writing techniques of various creative genres, such as short fiction, poetry, literary nonfiction, and/or drama. Applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. Strongly recommended as a prerequisite to ENGL 3110, 3120, or 3180. PREREQUISITE: Grade of C- or above in ENGL 1120.
- 2510 Creative Writing Workshop 1 hr. (1, 0)

HISTORY

The traditional model of education in history has been to prepare history majors for possible graduate-level work and offering history and education majors the necessary comprehensive understanding of history subjects to pursue careers in education. Such is the model for both lower- and upper-level coursework in history, not only at Anderson University but nearly all liberal arts universities.

This is as it should be, and we certainly do not neglect these goals. However, the history faculty of Anderson University believe it critical for students to think holistically and deliberately integrate into our traditional historical fare broader theoretical issues and life skills — particularly communication and critical-thinking skills — that students will find useful and marketable.

Accordingly, our course offerings pursue three primary goals:

- Historical content and critical-thinking skills: The traditional matter of a history course focuses on major events, themes, people, etc. Students will continue to receive a strong and comprehensive education in the bread-and-butter topics that have always defined the history discipline.
- Theoretical content and critical-thinking skills: Particularly in upper-division history courses, the broader themes and issues which are rooted in historical events and issues also focus to speak directly to present as well as past concerns, such as the promise and problems of democracy, the nature of community, global affairs, and the various challenges related to writing and understanding biography.
- Writing and communication skills: Upper-level history courses in particular place an emphasis on developing the student's communication skills but with different variations for each course, such as traditional term papers; a series of brief, shorter papers culminating in a larger project; personal interviews; ethical and professional use of electronic communications such as Twitter; archival research; and/or writing projects pursued in coordination with experiential and technology-driven components.

The history degree prepares students for graduate and law school; careers in public service, museums, archives, and nonprofit associations; education; and many other diverse fields.

PUBLIC HISTORY MAJOR (59-60 hrs.)

The public history major and minor prepares students who wish to work in the field of history outside the classroom, in settings where history is encountered by the public: museums, community history centers, national parks and historical sites, and many more settings. Public historians — museum staff and curators, government historians, archivists, historical site interpreters, preservationists — come from a variety of disciplines.

Preparation for work in public history is therefore, and necessarily, interdisciplinary, as it prepares individuals to preserve and transmit our past to the non-academic public.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

The political science program offers three majors, each of which is designed to transform students with an interest in or concern for politics into graduates who can understand, evaluate, manage, and shape political events and governmental actions in a manner consistent with a Christian faith perspective.

The majors offered by the political science program provide excellent training for a variety of careers. Recent graduates are working in government (national, state, and local), law, electoral politics, nonprofits, and business.

Students in the political science program are expected to successfully complete the foundational courses before attempting upper-division coursework. They are also strongly encouraged to pursue a minor or a second major in one or more of the following: history, economics, modern languages, journalism, legal studies, peace and conflict transformation, psychology, sociology, or women's studies. Minors or second majors should be selected only after consultation with a political science program advisor. Students are also encouraged to consider completing an internship or taking a semester to participate in an off-campus program. Appropriate opportunities can be identified by consulting a political science program advisor.

SOCIAL STUDIES TEACHING

To fulfill requirements for teaching social studies at the senior high/middle school level, students must complete specific courses in two teaching fields and in professional education. The required teaching fields are historical perspectives and government and citizenship. Students are strongly encouraged to pursue a third field of licensure in economics, psychology, sociology, or special education. All courses listed for historical perspectives, and some courses listed for government and citizenship, economics, psychology, and sociology, meet the standards for social studies teaching, as established by the National Council for the Social Studies, thus preparing candidates to teach the following criteria: culture and cultural diversity; continuity and change; people, places, and environment; individual development and identity; individuals, groups, and institutions; power, authority, and governance; production, distribution, and consumption; science, technology, and society; global connections; and civic ideals and practices.

In addition to these requirements, students pursuing a teaching major must also meet additional requirements listed in the Department of Teacher Education section of this catalog. Social Studies Secondary Education majors should fulfill the Liberal Arts category of "Aesthetic Ways of Knowing" by successfully completing ENGL 1400 or ENGL 3590.

HONORS PROGRAM

Prof. Miller Fox, co-director; Dr. Stull, co-director; Dr. T. Fox, Dr. Lozano, Dr. Murphy, Dr. Parks, Dr. M. Scott, Dr. Varner

The Honors Program at Anderson University is devoted to fostering within its honors scholars a passionate dedication to intellectual inquiry and spiritual development so they may serve as leaders in their professions and in their communities. Within this context, our scholars will be challenged to cultivate the life of the spirit, maturing in the Christian virtues of integrity, justice, and generosity.

The program provides a series of small, discussion-based, interdisciplinary courses that satisfy liberal arts program requirements. These courses, as well as close interaction with faculty and peers, offer intellectually challenging experiences that will stimulate and refine the skills of clear expression, acute analysis, critical thinking, and imaginative problem-solving. In the first three years of the Honors Program, scholars will participate in courses designed to enrich understanding of the humanities, science, and social science while creating a small community of learners dedicated to Christian scholarship. In the fourth year, they will pursue independent study in partnership with faculty mentors. Throughout the program, honors scholars are encouraged to pursue opportunities for international study and travel and service to the church and community. Upon completion of this four-year program, honors scholars will receive special recognition at commencement and on their transcript.

Enrollment in the Honors Program curriculum is by invitation to students who have successfully completed the Honors Program application and selection process.

Each course in the first three years of the Honors Program fulfills at least one of the required components of the liberal arts program, as listed below:

- HNRS 2110 fulfills Written Communication, Civic Ways of Knowing, and First Year Experience
- HNRS 2125 fulfills the Speaking-Intensive Requirement and Civil Discourse/Critical Reasoning
- HNRS 2210 fulfills Scientific Ways of Knowing
- HNRS 3311 fulfills Social and Behavioral Ways of Knowing
- HNRS 3221 fulfills Global/Intercultural Ways of Knowing and is Writing-Intensive
- HNRS 3325 fulfills Christian Ways of Knowing

Students enrolled in the Honors Program are exempt from taking LART 1050.

KINESIOLOGY

Dr. Hamlyn chair; Prof. A. Jones, Prof. Masi, Prof. A. Miller, Dr. J. Scott, Dr. Whiteman; Instructors: Beach, T. Miller, Myhre, Palmer

The Department of Kinesiology offers two majors designed to prepare students to enter careers, vocations, or service in healthcare, sport performance, clinical physiology, and sport and recreational leadership. Three minors are available: athletic coaching, nutrition, and sport and recreational leadership. Additionally, the department offers activity courses designed to provide instruction in fundamental skills in selected sports and activities.

EXERCISE SCIENCE

Exercise science is a growing field that addresses issues of health and wellness as well as human performance. Anderson University's exercise science major provides classroom, laboratory, and practical experiences for students interested in human performance and health. The exercise science program offers 3 concentrations: clinical exercise physiology, pre-health, and sport performance. The exercise science program prepares students for employment in a variety of health care settings and corporate wellness, as well as excellent pre-professional preparation for students desiring to pursue graduate degrees in allied health, such as exercise physiology, biomechanics, athletic training, physical therapy, occupational therapy, and physician assistant, amongst others.

All students must:

- maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or better
- earn a C- or better for each course within the exercise science major
- demonstrate proficiency in the EXSC 4150 Exercise Testing and Prescription lab practicum exam with a grade of B- or better.

Any student falling short of the minimum standards is expected to address the shortcoming immediately.

EXERCISE SCIENCE CONCENTRATIONS

Every Exercise Science major chooses one of three concentrations:

- Clinical Exercise Physiology: - for those students desiring to pursue careers working with chronic diseased populations, cardiopulmonary rehabilitation, and cardiac stress testing, in addition to preparation for a master's in exercise physiology.
- Pre-Health: for those students desiring to prepare for an allied health field such as athletic training, physical therapy, occupational therapy, sports psychology, and physician assistant.
- Sports Performance: for those students desiring to pursue careers in strength and conditioning, personal training, health/wellness coordinators, community health centers, and senior adult fitness programs.

 - EXSC 2550 - Health, Exercise, and Aging (2 hrs.)
 - EXSC 3300 - Health Implications of Obesity (3 hrs.)

Pre-Health:

- 14 hours from:
 - BIOL 2010 - Medical Terminology (2 hrs.)
 - BIOL 2210 - Foundations of Modern Biology I (4 hrs.)
 - BIOL 2220 - Foundations of Modern Biology II (4 hrs.)
 - CHEM 2120 - General Chemistry II (4 hrs.)
 - MATH 2120 - Introduction to Statistics with Application (4 hrs.)
 - PHYS 2140 - General Physics I (4 hrs.)
 - PHYS 2150 - General Physics II (4 hrs.)
 - PSYC 2510 - Developmental Psychology (4 hrs.)
 - PSYC 3120 - Abnormal Psychology (4 hrs.)
 - PSYC 3450 - Health Psychology (4 hrs.)
 - SOCI 2010 - Intro to Sociology (3 hrs.)

Sports Performance:

- ATRG 1530 - Theory of Conditioning (3 hrs.)
- EXSC 4010 - Advanced Resistance Training and Conditioning (3 hrs.)
- 8 hours from:
 - BIOL 2010 - Medical Terminology (2 hrs.)
 - BIOL 2040 - Personal and Community Health (3 hrs.)
 - EXSC 2440 - Stress Management (3 hrs.)
 - EXSC 2550 - Health, Exercise, and Aging (2 hrs.)
 - PETE 2250 - Motor Behavior (3 hrs.)

 - SPRL 3250 - Legal Aspects of Sport and Recreation (3 hrs.)
 - SPRL 3300 - Management of Sport Facilities and Events (3 hrs.)

NUTRITION MINOR (16 hrs.)

The nutrition minor is an ideal minor to accompany majors within the Department of Kinesiology and other science majors at Anderson University. The minor is designed to provide a sound background in nutrition but without courses that stress clinical chemistry and dietetics. A minor in nutrition is an excellent choice for students who wish to enter the fitness, medical, health, and human services-related professions. It will strengthen the academic component of coursework in these fields and contribute to students becoming more effective practitioners.

Required Courses:

- EXSC 2140, 2580, 3100, 3200, 3300

SPORT AND RECREATIONAL LEADERSHIP

The sport and recreational leadership major prepares students to work in recreation and sports centers, with athletic programs, at camps, and/or in YMCAs, churches, businesses, etc. The goal of this major is to help young people find their niche in the sport and recreation industry. Students will take a common core of classes and then gain knowledge and experiences in specific areas of sport and recreation programming, management, business, and leadership.

SPORT AND RECREATIONAL LEADERSHIP MAJOR (52 hrs.)

- SPRL 1350, 2450, 2550, 3150, 3250, 3300, 4850
- PETE 1300, 2250, 3720, 4900
- PEHS 1450, 3340, 3410
- ATRG 1530
- EXSC 2580
- ACCT 2010
- BSNS 2710, 2810

SPORT AND RECREATIONAL LEADERSHIP MINOR (16-17 hrs.)

The sport and recreational leadership minor provides students in other majors with a relevant option regarding sports, physical activity, and recreation, which may enhance their career pathway. Through the intentional selection of courses within the sport and recreational leadership major, students may be prepared to work in recreation centers, sports facilities, churches, and camps.

- PETE 1300
- PEHS 1450
- SPRL 1350, 2450, 2550, 3150
- Select one course from the following options:
 - PETE 3720, 4900
 - SPRL 3300, 4850

ATHLETIC COACHING MINOR (15 hrs.)

The athletic coaching minor is a non-teaching program that offers students the opportunity to learn requisite skills to become coaches in a youth-sport setting.

Coaching core (10-11 hrs.):

- PEHS 1450
- PEHS 1550
- ATRG 1530 or EXSC 4010
- PEHS 2340 or 3340
- 1 hour from PEHS 1200 and 1 hour from any coaching theory class (PEHS 3030, 3040, 3050, 3060, 3070, 3080) OR 2 hours from any two coaching theory classes

Elective classes (4-5 hours):

- PEHS 1060, 2020, 2040, 2260, 2340, 3030, 3050, 3060, 3070, 3080, 3340, 3410, 4850
- EXSC 2580
- SPRL 1350, 2550, 3300

Students may earn only 1 hour of PEHS 2260 credit for the minor. Students may elect 2 hours of Techniques of Coaching courses OR 1 hour of PEHS 1200 credit. Students may earn only 1 hour of PEHS 2260 credit for the minor.

ACTIVITY PROGRAM

The activity program provides instruction in fundamental skills in each sport or activity offered. The aim is to encourage individuals to develop the skills, strategies, and knowledge to participate at a recreational level. This program fosters personal enrichment of body, mind, and spirit through participation in physical activity.

Activity classes are offered in different formats. Some are taught daily in a six-week block. Others are taught two or three days a week for a semester. Some classes require a fee, which is charged to the student's account at the beginning of the semester. Students are encouraged to bring and use their own sports equipment.

An intramural/recreational program provides additional opportunities for regular physical activities. Swimming activities are offered in the natatorium. The weight room is open for recreational use during scheduled hours.

PEHS COURSES

Liberal Arts Requirement:

- 1000 Fitness and Wellness for Life 2 hrs. (1, 2)
Provides a base upon which students may build healthy bodies through understanding of and participation in fitness/leisure activities. Surveys key fitness/wellness concepts in the lecture portion of class.

Activity Program:

- 1050 Bowling 1 hr. (0, 2)
Fee required. OFFERED: 2023-24.
- 1060 Weight Training 1 hr. (0, 2)
- 1100 Beginning Swimming 1 hr. (0, 2)
- 1120 Golf 1 hr. (0, 2)
NOTE: Six-week class only; meets daily.
- 1130 Scuba 1 hr. (0, 2)
Earn the Scuba Educators International Open Water Diver certification through our education-oriented classes. Classes occur in the classroom and pool. Course fee covers the full cost of certification. OFFERED: Sem. I in even years Fee required. GRADE: CR/NC.
- 1150 Badminton 1 hr. (0, 2)
NOTE: Six-week class only; meets daily.
- 1190 Mind-Body Fitness 1 hr. (0, 2)
Provides opportunity to experience yoga-like stretches and poses while learning deep- breathing relaxation techniques and centering activities.
- 1200 Co-Curricular Activity 1 hr. (0, 2)
Provides academic credit for participation in intercollegiate sports activities, including cheerleading. Credit must be taken in the primary semester of competition. Does not count toward PEHS major or minor. REPEAT: May be repeated in a different activity only. Total credit not to exceed 2 hours. GRADE: CR/NC.
- 1220 Tennis 1 hr. (0, 2)
NOTE: Six-week class only; meets daily.
- 2000 Intermediate Swimming 1 hr. (0, 2)
- 2020 American Red Cross Lifeguarding 1 hr. (0, 2)
Provides instruction in the American Red Cross lifeguarding program, which can lead to ARC certification. EXPECTATION: Swimming proficiency at ARC Level VII.
- 2040 Water Safety Instructor 1 hr. (0, 2)
Provides instruction in the American Red Cross water safety program, which can lead to ARC certification. EXPECTATION: Swimming proficiency at ARC Level VII.

General Education Electives:

- 1450 First Aid 2 hrs. (2, 1)
Students earn American Red Cross Responding to Emergencies certification upon successful completion (includes first aid, community CPR, and AED). Credit may not be earned in both PEHS 1450 and ATRG 1460. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 1550 Care and Prevention of Injuries and Illnesses 3 hrs. (2, 1)
Introduces the basic concepts of prevention and care of injuries and illnesses including emergency procedures. Upon completion the student may become first aid and CPR certified through the American Red Cross. OFFERED: Sem. I.

PEHS (cont.)

- 2260 Advanced Conditioning for Sports Performance 1 hr. (0, 3)
Provides instruction in and supervision of planned, ongoing exercises and training regimens (strength, anaerobic, and aerobic) for the purpose of sports performance enhancement. Open to all students. REPEAT: May be repeated. Total credit not to exceed 4 hours. GRADE: CR/NC. NOTE: Weeks and days the class meets vary by section and semester. OFFERED: Every semester according to sport.
- 2340 Psychology of Coaching 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Applies scientific principles to coaching at different levels of competition. Discusses motivation, personality differences, communication, and effect of winning and losing. OFFERED: Sem. I of even years.
- 3030 Techniques of Coaching Volleyball 1 hr. (1, 1)
OFFERED: Sem. I of odd years.
- 3040 Techniques of Coaching Soccer 1 hr. (1, 1)
OFFERED: Sem. I of odd years.
- 3050 Techniques of Coaching Football 1 hr. (1, 1)
OFFERED: Sem. I of odd years.
- 3060 Techniques of Coaching Track 1 hr. (1, 1)
OFFERED: Sem. II of odd years.
- 3070 Techniques of Coaching Basketball 1 hr. (1, 1)
OFFERED: Sem. II of even years.
- 3080 Techniques of Coaching Baseball 1 hr. (1, 1)
OFFERED: Sem. I of even years.
- 3100 Health Concepts II 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Examines the prevalence and types of diseases. Discusses prevention and treatment of common diseases. Examines stress, good and harmful. Discusses coping behaviors. Examines human sexuality, including gender identity and roles, and behavioral choices and their consequences. Examines the healthy and natural process of death/dying. Develops skills in the organization and administration of interscholastic athletics, including philosophy, scheduling, budget, equipment care, awards, legal aspects, and facilities. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3490 School Health Organization 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Develops skills in the organization and management of health programs in the school, including classroom, school health services, and related community-based health services. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2022-23. LAST OFFERED: 2023-24.
- 4850 Practicum in Physical Education or Sport 1-4 hrs. (arranged)
Provides opportunity for independent work or field experience in settings like camps, agencies, city parks and recreation centers, or other physical activity locations. CONSENT: Instructor. EXPECTATION: Played on a high school or college athletic team at the varsity level. REPEAT: May be repeated for a total of 8 hours. GRADE: CR/NC. OFFERED: Every semester as needed. LAST OFFERED: 2023-24.

- 4860 Practicum in Health 1-4 hrs. (arranged)
 Provides opportunity for independent work or field experience in teaching health in area schools. CONSENT: Instructor. EXPECTATION: Must be accepted into Teacher Education Preparation Program. REPEAT: May be repeated for a total of 8 hours. PRE-/COREQUISITE: PEHS 3100 or PEHS 3490. GRADE: CR/NC. OFFERED: Every semester as needed. LAST OFFERED: 2023-24.

ATRG COURSES

- 1530 Theory of Conditioning of Athletes 3 hrs. (2, 0)
 Investigates the physiological background, techniques/methods, and precautions of conditioning athletes. Analyzes nutrition, ergogenic aids, gender, age, and climatic issues. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2200 Psycho-Social Aspects of Sport 2 hrs. (2, 1)
 Athletic trainers must be able to recognize and appropriately refer athletes and physically active people based on psychological and sociological well-being. Emphasis will be placed on the psychological/ sociological principles as they apply to athletic participation, burnout, injury treatment and rehabilitation compliance, the use of performance enhancing drugs, body image dysmorphia, and eating disorders. OFFERED: Sem. II. LAST OFFERED: 2022-23.
- 3400 Clinical Experience in Athletic Training IV 1 hr. (0, 1)
 Guided experiences in the evaluation and treatment of upper extremity injuries, sports nutrition, and pharmacology in sport. Students will be tested throughout this course in both real-time and practice settings. PREREQUISITE: Athletic training major in good standing. OFFERED: Sem. I, II. LAST OFFERED: 2022-23.
- 3440 Therapeutic Rehabilitation 3 hrs. (2, 2)
 Introduces students to common therapeutic rehabilitation techniques and their use in sports medicine. Includes the application of each technique in consideration of the healing process. Emphasizes proper rehabilitation program design and laboratory experiences. This course applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: ATRG 2420, 2540; athletic training major in good standing. Fee required. OFFERED: Sem. I. LAST OFFERED: 2022-23.
- 3450 Medical Issues in Athletic Training I 2 hrs. (2, 0)
 Examines advanced topics in sports medicine, including anatomy, pathology, recognition, evaluation, management, and emergent treatment of general medical illnesses and conditions involved in an athletic health-care environment. Special topics include environmental-related illness, administration of pre-participation physical examinations, and athletic health care for special populations (aging athletes, female athletes, etc.). PREREQUISITE: ATRG 2420, 2540; BIOL 2410, 2420; athletic training major in good standing. Fee required. OFFERED: Sem. I. LAST OFFERED: 2022-23.
- 3500 Clinical Experience in Athletic Training V 1 hr. (0, 1)
 Guided experiences in the therapeutic rehabilitation of athletic injuries. Students will be tested throughout the course in both real-time and practice settings. PREREQUISITE: Athletic training major in good standing. OFFERED: Sem. I, II. LAST OFFERED: 2022-23.
- 3550 Medical Issues in Athletic Training II 2 hrs. (2, 0)
 Examines advanced medical issues concerning anatomy, kinesiology, pathology, recognition, evaluation, management, and emergent treatment of specific injuries and conditions involved in an athletic health-care environment. Includes an introduction to pharmacology. PREREQUISITE: ATRG 3450; athletic training major in good standing. OFFERED: Sem. II. LAST OFFERED: 2022-23.
- 4400 Clinical Experience in Athletic Training VI 1 hr. (0, 1)
 Guided experiences in the treatment of general medical conditions and sports performance of athletes. Students will be tested throughout this course in both real-time and practice settings. PREREQUISITE: Athletic training major in good standing. OFFERED: Sem. I, II. LAST OFFERED: 2022-23.

- 4460 Administration of Athletic Training 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Develops skills in the organization and administration of an athletic training/sports medicine program, including philosophy, budget, facilities, equipment, insurance, legal aspects, records, employment, personnel, and structure of the National Athletic Trainers Association. PREREQUISITE: Athletic training major in good standing; senior standing. OFFERED: Sem. I. LAST OFFERED: 2023-24.
- 4500 Clinical Experience in Athletic Training VII 1 hr. (0, 1)
Guided experiences in the organization and administration of the athletic training profession, including ethics, risk management, legal aspects, professional development, and athletic training management. Students will be tested throughout this course in both real-time and practice settings. PREREQUISITE: ATRG 3440; athletic training major in good standing. OFFERED: Sem. I, II. LAST OFFERED: 2023-24.
- 4550 Research in Athletic Training 1 hr. (2, 0)
The need for quality evidence-based practice is growing in all allied health professions. Student athletic trainers must be prepared to understand and utilize the evidence related to all aspects of athletic training. Likewise, students must learn how to add to the body of knowledge within athletic training. This course will discuss a variety of research methods, including both qualitative and quantitative, as they relate to athletic training and health care. Students will begin a yearlong independent research project. Fee required. This course applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. OFFERED: Sem. I. LAST OFFERED: 2023-24.
- 4850 Practicum in Athletic Training 1-4 hrs. (arranged)
Provides opportunity for independent work or field experiences in the sports medicine field. PREREQUISITE: Athletic training major in good standing. CONSENT: Instructor. REPEAT: May be repeated for a total of 8 hours. GRADE: CR/NC. OFFERED: Every semester as needed. LAST OFFERED: 2023-24.
- 4910 Seminar in Athletic Training 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Overview of research methodology in athletic training. Prepares students for the BOC examination and entry into the profession. Capstone course in athletic training. Selected topics of current interest in sports medicine. Requires the development and presentation of an independent research project. This course applies to the liberal arts speaking-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: Athletic training major in good standing; senior standing. Fee required. OFFERED: Sem. II. LAST OFFERED: 2023-24.

Exercise Science Professional Program:

EXSC COURSES

- 1360 Introduction to Exercise Science 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Explores the discipline and sub-disciplines represented within exercise science. Examination of the historical and cultural aspects of exercise science as well as current trends and future developments, including professional development and certification. Fee required. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2140 Nutrition in Health and Disease 4 hrs. (3, 2)
An introductory view of the relationship between nutrition and disease. Covers the methodology used to determine nutritional and health status and how evidence is gathered to determine links between nutrition and the prevention of specific diseases and conditions, such as cardiovascular disease, cancer, diabetes, obesity, gastrointestinal disorders, and osteoporosis are covered in depth. Emphasis is placed on the scientific method and how scientific processes allow these facts to be known. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 2440 Stress Management 3 hrs. (3, 1)
Investigates stressors in the personal, work, and social environments and the interconnectedness of health and stress. Discusses the physiological aspects of the stress response. Explores various coping strategies for stress management. OFFERED: Sem. I.

EXSC (cont.)

- 2455 Foundations of Exercise Leadership 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Emphasizes fundamentals necessary to design safe and appropriate cardiovascular and strength training programs for personal-training clients based on exercise prescription principles. Develops applicable teaching methodology in various activity and lecture situations. Fee required. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2550 Health, Exercise, and Aging 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Examines the health-related physiological dimensions of aging and the role of lifestyle activity and exercise as strategy for coping with the changes. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2580 Sports Nutrition 3 hrs. (2, 1)
Explores principles of nutrition as they relate to athletes and athletic competition, including the role of athletic trainers and coaches in implementing sound sports nutrition programs to promote optimal health and performance for athletes. Includes topics such as pre-event and post-event meal planning, nutritional assessment, nutritional counseling, carbohydrate loading, electrolyte drinks, ergogenic aids, protein and vitamin supplementation, recognition of eating disorders, and physiological aspects of nutrition as they relate to athletic competition. Fee required. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 3100 Eating Disorders 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Analysis of factors involved in etiology, assessment, medical consequences, treatment, and prevention of eating disorders. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3200 Nutrition in the Life Cycle 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Addresses specific nutritional needs at various stages of the human life cycle: lactation, infancy, childhood, adolescence, and adulthood, including old age. The most common nutritional concerns, their relationship to food choices and health status, and strategies to enhance well-being at each stage of the life cycle are emphasized. PREREQUISITE: EXSC 2140 or EXSC 2580. OFFERED: Summer.
- 3300 Health Implications of Obesity 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Study of obesity and being overweight with special emphasis on diet, nutrition, and exercise. Modes of prevention and treatment will also be discussed. PREREQUISITE: EXSC 2140 or EXSC 2580. OFFERED: Summer.
- 3470 Physiology of Exercise I 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Studies physiological changes in the human organism as a result of physical exercise, including immediate and chronic responses of the body to exercise, physiological limitations to exercise, and limitations of present physiological knowledge for total understanding of exercise response. Practical applications of physiology to coaching and teaching. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 2420. Fee required. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3480 Physiology of Exercise II 4 hrs. (3, 2)
An advanced course in the area of exercise and human performance. Which provides further in-depth examination of the physiological mechanisms responsible for both the acute and chronic changes which occur with exercise. PREREQUISITE: EXSC 3470. Fee required. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3520 Biomechanics I 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Examines the scientific principles basic to human motion: both anatomical and biomechanical. Includes a laboratory experience. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 2410. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3530 Biomechanics II 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Continues to explore and apply biomechanical principles to human movement through lecture and laboratory experiences. Topics include the Newtonian mechanics, kinematics, and kinetics of human motion through applied knowledge of anatomy and physics. PREREQUISITE: EXSC 3520. FIRST OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 4010 Advanced Resistance Training and Conditioning 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Analyzes advanced principles of skeletal muscle physiology and bioenergetics in the application of strength training and conditioning programs designed for athletes and recreational exercisers. PREREQUISITE: EXSC 3470 and ATRG 1530. OFFERED: Sem. II.

- 4050 EKG and Cardiovascular Disease 3 hrs. (2,1)
Introduction to the basic principles and interpretation of the electrocardiograph (EKG) as it relates to clinical and fitness programs. Students learn how to record EKGs, vital signs, recognize cardiac rhythms and will learn the importance of an EKG and how EKG rhythms provide important data for the diagnosis of heart conditions. Will cover the many risk factors associated with coronary artery disease and the management and treatment of cardiovascular disease. PREREQUISITE: EXSC 3470. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 4150 Exercise Testing and Prescription 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Provides an in-depth study of the theoretical basis and applied knowledge required for graded exercise testing and individualized exercise prescription. Includes electrocardiograph techniques/interpretation, pharmacological considerations, test data interpretation, and emergency procedures. PREREQUISITE: EXSC 3470. Fee required. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 4160 Clinical Experience in Exercise Testing and Prescription 1 hr. (0, 2)
Provides laboratory experiences designed to present and refine skills in conducting various health fitness assessments (e.g. resting and exercise blood pressure, body composition, submaximal aerobic capacity, maximal graded exercise stress tests, EKG placement and rhythm recognition). Students will also demonstrate the ability to prescribe physical activity and exercise programs to maintain and promote good health. This course discusses the implications of test results and application to exercise prescription. PREREQUISITE: EXSC 4150; exercise science major. Fee required. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 4650 Independent Research in Exercise Science 1-3 hrs. (0, 3)
Provides opportunity for independently executed investigations, normally by students with upper-division standing. REPEAT: May be repeated. Credit not to exceed 6 hours. OFFERED: Every semester as needed.
- 4800 Internship in Exercise Science 4 hrs. (arranged)
Intended for students to observe and gain practical experience in a professional environment in which they plan to work as a career. Students are required to complete 4 credits of internship before graduation. CONSENT: Instructor. PREREQUISITE: EXSC 4150. GRADE: CR/NC. Fee required. REPEAT: May be repeated. OFFERED: Every semester as needed.
- 4850 Practicum in Exercise Science 1-4 hrs. (arranged)
Provides opportunity for independent work or field experience in settings of personal training, agencies, or clinics in the exercise science field. CONSENT: Instructor. PREREQUISITE: Exercise science major; junior standing. REPEAT: May be repeated for a total of 8 hours. GRADE: CR/NC. OFFERED: Every semester as needed.
- 4910 Research in Exercise Science 3 hrs. (3, 0)
The need for quality evidence-based practice is growing in all allied health professions. Students must be prepared to understand and utilize the evidence related to all aspects of professional practice. This course will discuss a variety of research methods, including both qualitative and quantitative. Students will begin a yearlong independent research project. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4920 Seminar in Exercise Science 3 hrs. (2, 0)
Investigates selected topics of current interest in exercise and health science. Capstone course in exercise science. Requires a written and oral presentation of a creative project involving either applied, experimental, or library research. This course applies to the liberal arts writing and speaking-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: Exercise science major; senior standing. Fee required. OFFERED: Sem. II.

PETE COURSES

- 1300 Introduction to Sports, Physical Activity, and Recreation 2 hrs. (2, 1)
Introduces foundational concepts in sports, physical activity, physical education, and recreation, including historical and philosophical orientations, current issues, and career opportunities. Fee required. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2250 Motor Behavior 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Examines the forces that influence the acquisition of motor skill and movement patterns. Surveys growth and development patterns. Identifies characteristics of skilled movement forms. Reviews factors which impact the learning of skills like knowledge of results and performance. Discusses motivational patterns and sport interests. Surveys the sub discipline of motor learning. This course applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3710 Instructional Strategies (K-5) 3 hrs. (3, 1)
Examines and develops instructional strategies for teaching physical education in grades K-5. The development of fundamental movement patterns and foundational movement concepts will be examined as well. Includes teaching practicum with children ages 4 to 12 years. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3720 Sports, Physical Activity, and Recreation for Special Populations 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Introduces students to a variety of physical, mental, and emotional disabilities, including characteristics and behavior patterns. Physical activities and recreational activities, which are developmentally appropriate for all age groups and populations will be discussed, including their physical and social benefits. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2023-24.
- 3750 Instructional Strategies (6-12) 3 hrs. (3, 1)
Provides a laboratory experience in teaching methodology of physical education for grades 6-12. Requires planning and implementing lessons using a variety of teaching strategies. Considers sociological and psychological issues in student interactions. EXPECTATION: At least six hours of activity classes. PREREQUISITE: Junior standing; SPRL 1350, 2350, 2450. OFFERED: Sem. I. LAST OFFERED: 2023-24.
- 4260 Directed Experience in Teaching Physical Education 3 hrs. (1, 3)
Provides students with field experiences in teaching physical education within public schools prior to the student-teaching semester. Applies content knowledge, management strategies, motivational ideas, and pedagogical skills that they have learned in previous courses. Allows a real-life teaching situation so that students can test their skills with the guidance of a veteran public school teacher as a mentor. PREREQUISITE: Teaching major. PETE 3710, 3750. GPA of 2.75 or higher. COREQUISITE: PETE 4300. EXPECTATION: Passed Praxis Core Exam. Fee required. OFFERED: Sem. I. LAST OFFERED: 2024-25.
- 4300 Curriculum Development and Assessment in Physical Education 3 hrs. (3, 2)
Examines the integration of content, instruction, and assessment to the principles and practices of program development. Requires the creation of teaching documents that shape the physical education curriculum. Provides a field experience that promotes the application of curriculum development in three age-level settings. Reviews administrative issues facing physical education teachers. This course applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: Teaching major. PETE 3710, 3750. GPA of 2.75 or higher. COREQUISITE: PETE4260. EXPECTATION: Passed Praxis Core Exam. OFFERED: Sem. I. LAST OFFERED: 2024-25.
- 4850 Practicum in Physical Education Teaching 1-4 hrs. (arranged)
Provides opportunity for independent work or field experiences in physical education teaching in area schools. CONSENT: Instructor. PREREQUISITE: Physical education teaching major; junior standing. REPEAT: May be repeated for a total of 8 hours. GRADE: CR/NC. OFFERED: Every semester as needed. LAST OFFERED: 2024-25.
- 4900 Technology Applications in Sport, Physical Activity, and Recreation 2 hrs. (2, 1)
Investigates and applies techniques and practice in the use of technology-based media, which supports and enhances sport, physical activity, and recreation programs. Emphasizes computer and smartphone applications that support teaching, coaching, and recreation (e.g., databases, PowerPoint, screencast, geocaching, etc.). This course applies to the liberal arts speaking-intensive requirement. OFFERED: Sem. I.

Sport and Recreational Leadership Program:

SPRL COURSES

- 1350 Physical Activity Cluster I - Focus on Team Sports 3 hrs. (0, 4)
Develops content knowledge and instructional skills in selected team sports such as basketball, team handball, football, soccer, volleyball, softball, and ultimate. Emphasizes skill development, instructional strategies, rules and strategies, management, and assessment. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2350 Physical Activity Cluster II - Focus on Fitness/Wellness Activities 3 hrs. (0, 4)
Examines physical activity and fitness levels of various age groups while promoting a lifetime of physical activity. Develops content knowledge and instructional skills in fitness and wellness activities such as fitness games, dance, yoga, group exercise, water workouts, and weight training as well as fitness testing. OFFERED: Sem. I. LAST OFFERED: 2022-23.
- 2450 Physical Activity Cluster III - Focus on Recreational Activities & Outdoor Pursuits 3 hrs. (0, 4)
Develops content knowledge and instructional skills in recreational and outdoor activities such as archery, golf, bowling, badminton, pickleball, tennis, Frisbee golf, adventure education, and outdoor pursuits. Emphasizes skill development, instructional strategies, rules and strategies, and management. Fee required. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2550 Youth and Adult Sports Programming 2 hrs. (2, 1)
Introduces planning, programming, and implementation of sports programs for youth and adults within such organizations as recreation centers, YMCAs, churches, camps, and businesses. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3150 Recreational Leadership 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Examines the essential elements and basic principles of organization and leadership of recreational and leisure programs, including planning and conducting organized programs in private and public agencies. Special emphasis will be given to the role of face-to-face leadership within recreational organizations. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3250 Legal Aspects of Sport and Recreation 3 hrs. (3, 0)
An examination of the laws and policies governing the various aspects of sport and sport business and their relationship to personal and professional ethics. The role of regulatory commissions and organizations in sport will be explored. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3300 Management of Sport Facilities and Events 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Designed to give students information and knowledge on the operation and management of athletic and recreational facilities. In addition, event planning, sponsorship, budgeting, management, and evaluation of athletic and recreational events will be emphasized. Fee required. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 4850 Practicum in Sport and Recreational Leadership 3 hrs. (arranged)
Introduces planning, programming, and implementation of sports programs for youth and adults within such organizations as recreation centers, YMCAs, churches, camps, and businesses. CONSENT: Instructor. PREREQUISITE: Sport and recreational leadership major; junior standing. REPEAT: May be repeated up to 6 hours. GRADE: CR/NC. OFFERED: Every semester as needed.

LIBERAL ARTS AND INTERCULTURAL STUDIES

Dr. Lambright, Prof. Coplin, Prof. Clay, Prof. Stankiewicz

LART COURSES

- 1000 College Survival Skills 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Provides an opportunity for students to learn and adopt methods to be successful in undergraduate work. Deals with basic academic, study, and life skills, and attitudes necessary for collegiate success. OFFERED: Sem. I, II, Summer.
- 1010 Strategies for Academic Success 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Introduces the concept of how emotional intelligence (EQ) and personal learning preferences affect the student's ability to think critically and therefore improve learning. Provides an opportunity to assess and develop basic EQ skills and study strategies necessary for academic success, including textbook reading, note-taking, test-taking, time management, communication skills, collegiate writing skills, presentation skills, and career planning. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 1020 Strategies for Academic Success for Adult Learners 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Introduces adult students to strategies necessary for academic success, including time management, note-taking, test-taking, reading strategies, communication skills, collegiate writing skills, and research skills. Introduces the concept of how emotional intelligence (EQ) affects the ability to think critically and achieve success. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 1050 First-Year Experience Seminar 1 hr. (1, 0)
A holistic orientation during which students reflect, connect, and grow intellectually, socially, and spiritually as part of AU's community. Students reflect upon AU's five core values and its distinctive Christian character while also connecting to campus resources necessary for their success. Students grow as whole people by considering how their core values, individual strengths, and vocational call can work together to benefit their personal and professional future. GRADE: CR/NC. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 1100 Critical-Thinking Seminar 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Cultivates critical-thinking, communication, and community-building skills common to most other university-level classes and useful for pursuing truth and living lives of faith and service. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 1200 Career and Life Planning 1 hr. (2, 0)
Addresses the role of decision-making skills in choosing a college major. Students assess interests, personality, skills, and values to assist them in finding the "best fit" among the majors and career options they are researching. Students also learn effective problem-solving skills that can be used over a lifetime for career and life-planning decisions. PREREQUISITE: This course is designed for the undecided freshman or sophomore student but is open to juniors and seniors with instructor's consent. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2900 Student-Leadership Seminar 1 hr. (1, 0)
Students will explore the discipline of leadership. With a biblical framework, applicable themes will give students practical ways to reflect on their strengths and grow in their leadership skills. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 4500 Critical Thinking and Professional Development 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Focuses on transforming learning from the classroom to the real world through the assessment and development of the 6 major areas and 16 subcomponents of emotional intelligence (EQ) and the 8 Competencies for a Career-Ready Workforce (National Association of Colleges and Employers). Students incorporate a variety of methods to enhance the critical-thinking skills and EQ skills necessary to positively affect decision-making skills and personal, collegiate, and professional relationships that define success. Applies to the liberal arts speaking-intensive and experiential requirements. OFFERED: Sem. I, Summer.

INCS COURSE

- 3850 Practicum in Service Experience 1-4 hrs. (arranged)
Participation in an intercultural service/learning experience. This course is generally offered in conjunction with a Tri-S program. CONSENT: Instructor. OFFERED: Sem. I, II; Summer.

MATHEMATICS

Dr. C. Taylor, chair; Dr. Lambright, Dr. Van Groningen

The program in mathematics has three major objectives: to provide the non-specialist with some understanding of the contributions of mathematics to cultural development; to offer students in natural, social, and behavioral sciences the mathematics necessary for understanding their own fields of interest; and to prepare mathematics majors for graduate study, for teaching at the secondary level, or for work in business and industry.

Students considering careers in mathematics should realize that the emphasis in mathematics courses changes as progress is made through the undergraduate program. The early emphasis on problem solving is later subordinated to the task of formulating and dealing effectively with mathematical structures and abstract ideas.

Students who have pursued accelerated mathematics programs in high school may request advanced placement. Such requests should be made through correspondence with the department chair before registration. Credit, if granted for high school work in calculus or statistics, is through the Advanced Placement Program of the College Entrance Board. Consult with the chair of the Department of Mathematics or the Office of the University Registrar for details.

Students who plan to major in mathematics should consult the chair of the department as soon as possible. Students interested in actuarial science should consider the mathematics-finance major.

MATHEMATICS MAJOR, BACHELOR OF ARTS (30 hrs.)

- MATH 2010, 2020, 3010, 3020, 4000
- One course numbered MATH 4010 or above
- At least two additional courses numbered MATH 3100 or above
- If necessary, remaining hours from additional MATH courses
- MATH 1000, 1100, 1110, 1220, 1250, 1300, 1400, 4700 do not apply toward the major

MATHEMATICS MAJOR, BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (47 hrs.)

- MATH 2010, 2020, 2200, 3010, 3020, 3300, 4000
- MATH 2120 or MATH 4010
- MATH 4100 or MATH 4200
- An additional 3 credit hours from MATH courses numbered 3100 or higher, excluding MATH 4700
- ENGR 2310
- CPSC 2320
- PHYS 2240
- An additional 4 credit hours from CHEM 2110 or above, PHYS 2250 or above, BIOL 2210 or above

MATHEMATICS-DECISION SCIENCE MAJOR, BACHELOR OF ARTS (53 hrs.)

- MATH 2010, 2020, 2120, 3010, 3020, 3200, 4000, 4010
- One of MATH 3100, 3300, 3400
- BSNS 2710, 2810, 3240, 3510, 4110, 4330
- A 3-hour independent study course combining mathematics and decision science

MATHEMATICS-ECONOMICS MAJOR, BACHELOR OF ARTS (38 hrs.)

- MATH 2010, 2020, 3010, 3020, 4000, 4010
- ECON 2010, 2020, 3020, 3410
- Remaining hours from additional upper-division MATH and ECON courses

MATHEMATICS-FINANCE MAJOR, BACHELOR OF ARTS (53 hrs.)

- MATH 2010, 2020, 2120, 3010, 3020, 3400, 4000, 4010
- One of MATH 3100, 3200, 3300
- ACCT 2010
- BSNS 2510, 3350, 4150
- ECON 2010, 2020, 3410

MATHEMATICS TEACHING MAJOR, BACHELOR OF ARTS (40 hrs.)

- MATH 2010, 2020, 2200, 2300, 3010, 3020, 4000, 4100, 4200
- MATH 2120 or 4010
- One course from MATH 3100, 3200, 3300, 3400
- MATH 4700
- In addition to these requirements, students pursuing a teaching major must also meet additional requirements listed in the Department of Teacher Education section of this catalog.

MATHEMATICS MINOR (16 hrs.)

- MATH 2010, 2020
- Additional hours from MATH courses numbered 2120 or above

MATH COURSES

- 1000 Introductory Algebra 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Basic algebra course designed for students who need to meet the curricular mathematical proficiency requirement. Topics include whole numbers, fractions, decimals and percentages, ratios and proportions, polynomials, algebraic solutions of linear and quadratic equations, word problems, and systems of equations. Does not apply toward mathematics major or minor. PREREQUISITE: Placement by mathematics entrance examination. GRADE: CR/NC. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 1100 Elementary Mathematics-Numeration Systems 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Elementary foundations course for students preparing for elementary and middle school education. Includes deductive reasoning, the algebra of sets, numeration systems, properties of natural numbers, integers, rational numbers, real numbers, and data analysis. Does not apply toward mathematics major or minor. PREREQUISITE: Mathematics proficiency. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 1110 Elementary Mathematics-Geometry 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Includes point-set geometry, linear and angular measurement concepts, area and volume, transformational geometry, and probability. Designed particularly for elementary and middle school education majors. Does not apply toward mathematics major or minor. PREREQUISITE: Mathematics proficiency. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 1220 Advanced Algebra and Trigonometry 3 hrs. (3, 0)
A course designed in order to fully prepare students for MATH 2010. Topics include right triangle trigonometry, trigonometric identities and equations, complex numbers, laws of sines and cosines, trigonometric, exponential, and logarithmic functions, analytic geometry, and conic sections. Does not apply toward mathematics major or minor. PREREQUISITE: Mathematics proficiency. OFFERED: Sem. I.

- 1250 Explorations in Mathematics 3 hrs. (3, 0)
A course designed for students to explore different areas of college-level mathematics. Students will appreciate the relevance of mathematics through real-life applications. Emphasis will be placed on critical reasoning, problem solving, and the clear communication of mathematical ideas. Topics will be chosen from mathematics of finance, mathematical modeling, probability and statistics, voting theory, infinity, and logic. Does not apply toward mathematics major or minor. PREREQUISITE: Mathematics proficiency. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 1300 Finite Mathematics 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Topics include introduction to counting techniques, probability, systems of linear equations and matrices, linear programming, Markov chains, and the mathematics of finance. Does not apply toward mathematics major or minor. PREREQUISITE: Mathematics proficiency. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 1400 Applied Calculus 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Topics include functions, limits, derivatives, applications of derivatives, integration, and applications of integration. Functions considered are polynomial, rational, logarithmic, and exponential functions. Emphasis is on computational skill and problem solving. Applications are taken from management, life sciences, and social sciences. Does not apply toward mathematics major or minor. EXPECTATION: Two years of high school algebra. PREREQUISITE: Mathematics proficiency. Not open to students with a grade of C or better in MATH 2010 or its equivalent. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 2010 Calculus I 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Introduction to plane analytic geometry, functions, limits, continuity, differentiation of algebraic and trigonometric functions, application of the derivative, and indefinite and definite integrals. EXPECTATION: Two years of high school algebra, plane geometry, and trigonometry, MATH 1220, or passing score on Calculus Readiness Exam. PREREQUISITE: Mathematics proficiency. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 2020 Calculus II 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Continuation of MATH 2010. Attention given to methods of integration of algebraic and transcendental functions, curves given in polar coordinates, curves given by parametric equations, applications of integration, introduction to ordinary differential equations, and infinite sequences and series. PREREQUISITE: Grade of at least C- in MATH 2010. An appropriate AP score may waive the prerequisite; see department chair. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2120 Introductory Statistics with Applications 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Descriptive statistics; binomial, normal, and chi-square distributions; sampling distributions; estimation; hypothesis testing; simple linear regression; and analysis of variance. EXPECTATION: Two years of high school algebra. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2200 Discrete Mathematical Structures 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Topics include Boolean algebra, computer logic, relations and functions, logic and proof techniques, combinatorics, algebraic structures, and graph theory. PREREQUISITE: Mathematics proficiency. SAME AS: CPSC 2250. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2300 College Geometry 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Presents an axiomatic basis for Euclidean geometry and provides insight into the interdependence of various theorems and axioms. Topics include incidence and order properties, congruence, absolute and non-Euclidean geometry, the parallel postulate, and the real numbers and geometry. PREREQUISITE: MATH 2010. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2023-24.
- 3010 Linear Algebra 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Introduction to algebra and geometry of \mathbb{R}^3 and its extension to \mathbb{R}^n . Topics include vector spaces and linear transformations, systems of linear equations and their solutions, matrices and determinants, eigenvalues, eigenvectors. Applications of these topics will also be demonstrated. PREREQUISITE: Grade of at least C- in MATH 2010. OFFERED: Sem. I.

- 3020 Calculus III 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Continuation of MATH 2020. Attention given to multi-dimensional calculus and its applications. Topics include partial differentiation, multiple integration, three-dimensional analytic geometry, and vector calculus.
PREREQUISITE: MATH grade of at least C- in 2020, grade of at least C- in 3010. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3100 Differential Equations 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Methods of solving ordinary differential equations and their applications to life sciences, physics, and chemistry. Topics covered will include first and second order homogenous and nonhomogeneous equations, first order systems, Laplace transforms, series solutions, and an introduction to partial differential equations.
PREREQUISITE: Grade of at least C- in MATH 2020. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3200 Mathematical Models 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Formation and study of mathematical models used in business, social, and biological sciences. Mathematical topics include N-person games, networks, Markov processes, application of graphs and digraphs, apportionment, and group decision-making. PREREQUISITE: Mathematics proficiency. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2022-23.
- 3300 Numerical Analysis 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Introduction to numerical algorithms fundamental to scientific and mathematical computer use. Includes root finding methods; polynomial interpolation; numerical integration and differentiation; matrix equations; numerical solutions to differential equations. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 1400, MATH 2020. SAME AS: CPSC 3300. OFFERED: Sem. I, 2023-24.
- 3400 Mathematics of Finance 3 hrs. (3, 0)
A course designed to introduce the fundamental concepts of financial mathematics with an emphasis on interest theory. Topics include mathematical foundations of the following: present and accumulated values, annuities, loans, bonds, financial markets, arbitrage, and financial derivatives. This course serves as a foundation for the second actuarial exam (FM/2). PREREQUISITE: MATH 2020. OFFERED: Sem. I, 2022-23.
- 4000 Problem Seminar 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Introduction to research techniques based on problems from parts of the regular curriculum such as calculus, linear algebra, probability, and statistics. Emphasis on problems from the required core of the curriculum — problems that are integrative in nature. This course applies to the liberal arts speaking-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: Senior standing. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4010 Mathematical Statistics 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Probability distributions, expectation, mean, variance, moment generating functions, special distributions, unbiasedness, maximum likelihood, confidence intervals, and hypothesis testing. PREREQUISITE: MATH 3010. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4100 Real Analysis 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Careful study of the real number system with attention given to the study of real-valued functions, metric spaces, sequences, continuity, differentiation, and integration. PREREQUISITE: MATH 3010. OFFERED: Sem. I, 2022-23.
- 4200 Abstract Algebra 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Consideration of fundamental concepts of modern algebra. Includes groups, rings, integral domains, and fields along with isomorphisms, homomorphisms, normal subgroups, and quotient groups. PREREQUISITE: MATH 3010. OFFERED: Sem. I, 2023-24.
- 4650 Independent Study 1-3 hrs. (arranged)
Selected topics in higher mathematics. Total combined credit from MATH 4650 and 4900 may not exceed 12 hours. CONSENT: Department chair.
- 4700 Methods in Teaching Mathematics 2 hrs. (2, 0)
PREREQUISITE: MATH 3020. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4900 Seminar 1-3 hrs. (arranged)
Seminars in algebra, analysis, topology, set theory, complex variables, non-Euclidean geometry, and applied mathematics. Total combined credit in MATH 4650 and 4900 may not exceed 12 hours. CONSENT: Department chair. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.

MODERN LANGUAGES

Dr. Grayson, chair; Prof. Clay, Dr. T. Fox

In an increasingly interdependent world, the study of other languages and cultures has become a fundamental part of every student's education. Knowledge of at least two languages and familiarity with cultures and societies different from one's own not only equip university graduates to take responsible and active roles as world citizens but also enhance their effectiveness in a range of professions, including, but not limited to, banking, business, computer science, education, film, government, health care, journalism, law, management, missions, and social work.

A major in Spanish offers students a triple focus: language, culture, and literature. A minor in Spanish or a minor in French or German Studies offers a double focus in language and culture. After successful completion of the program, majors will be equipped to do the following:

- comprehend and interpret written and spoken language;
- express themselves in the written and spoken word of that language;
- have a fundamental understanding of the literature and civilizations of the countries represented by the target language; and
- value other cultures as fellow global citizens.

All majors are required to complete either: a) a departmentally approved study abroad experience for 6 credit hours plus MLAN 3500; or b) a departmentally approved internship experience for 5 hours plus 1 hour of SPAN 3240 and MLAN 3500. These experiences are recommended for minors as well.

MAJORS

SPANISH MAJOR (43-45 hrs.)

- 33 SPAN hours including the following:
 - SPAN courses beyond SPAN 2010 or equivalent, including 2020, 3010, 3020, 3140, 3400 or 3440, one 4-hour literature class at the 4xxx level
 - At least 6 hours from a study abroad experience or the internship/SPAN 3240 option described above
 - Elective SPAN courses necessary to reach 33 hours
- MLAN 3500
- MLAN 4900
- A two-semester sequence (6-8 hours) in one other modern language

COMPLEMENTARY MAJORS

SPANISH COMPLEMENTARY MAJOR (30 hrs.)

- 26 hours from the following:
 - SPAN courses beyond 2010 or equivalent, including 2020, 3010, 3020, 3140, 3400 or 3440, and one literature class at the 4xxx level
 - At least 6 hours from a study abroad experience or the internship/SPAN 3240 option described above
 - Elective SPAN courses necessary to reach 26 hours
- MLAN 3500
- MLAN 4900

MINORS

FRENCH/GERMAN STUDIES MINOR (15-16 hrs.)

- 2 courses in the target language (8 hours of FREN or GERM caption)
- one 3-hour history course that studies the target country
- one 4-hour Language and Society course (MLAN 2000)

French Studies Minors may opt to take MLAN 3400 (4 hrs.) instead of MLAN 2000.

Students completing language courses or history courses during study abroad may opt out of MLAN 2000, instead taking MLAN 3500 followed by MLAN 4900 to complete the minor.

SPANISH MINOR (18 hrs.)

- 18 hours from SPAN courses beyond 1020 or equivalent, including 3010 and 3020

EDUCATION MAJORS

Requirements for teaching Spanish (P-12) include completion of specific courses in the subject area and in professional education. Students planning to teach a modern language will work closely with both the Department of Modern Languages and the Department of Teacher Education.

SPANISH EDUCATION MAJOR (91-93 hrs.)

- 35 SPAN hours beyond 2010 or equivalent, including: SPAN 2020, 3010, 3020, 3140, 3200, 3400, 3440; 4350 or 4360; 4370 or 4380; elective SPAN courses necessary to reach 35 hours
- At least 6 of the above SPAN hours earned via study abroad or approved intensive experience
- 7 hours via MLAN 3500, 4700, 4900
- One 3-4 hour course in one other modern language (such as FREN or GERM)
- Either an additional 3-4 SPAN hours (beyond the 35) or an additional 3-4 hour course in another modern language
- 43-hour education core, including: EDUC 2000, 2100, 2110, 2460, 2520, 2860, 3000, 3100, 3120, 4010, 4710 or 4120 (with advisor and instructor approval), 4930; SPED 2400

Because of other requirements in the major, teaching majors may take the Latin American and Spanish literature classes for 3 hours rather than 4, with instructor permission.

MLAN COURSES

- 2000 Language and Society 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Introduces the study of language in the context of historical, grammatical, biological, and social issues. Our nationalities, our family histories, our speech communities, our social standings, and our education all influence the ways in which we use language. This course examines the many ways people use and manipulate language according to their individual background to make themselves understood and/or to achieve specific goals in different social settings. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3400 The French- and Spanish-Speaking Caribbean 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Explores the dynamic convergence of cultures, races, and religions that comprise the French- and Spanish-speaking Caribbean. Primary focus is placed on the cultures of Haiti, the French Antilles, Cuba, Puerto Rico, and the Dominican Republic, through their history, literature, language, politics, art, and religious expression. Emphasis is put on the complex interrelation of these elements, which have formed the contemporary identity of the region. This course is taught in English. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3500 Immersive Experience: Cultural, Linguistic, and Personal 1 hr. (1, 0)
Designed for the language majors studying abroad or completing an intensive language/culture experience domestically, this course systematically gives them orientation prior to the experience, prepares them for life abroad or in their immersive experience, and helps them process the experience while engaged in it and upon return to campus. CONSENT: Department Chair. PREREQUISITE: FREN/SPAN 2020 or instructor permission. GRADE: CR/NC. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 4700 Methods in Teaching World Languages 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Provides the modern-language teaching candidate with both a theoretical and practical base from which to draw when entering the field of world-language teaching. Various theories, approaches, and methods for world-language teaching and learning will be presented, although it should be noted that contemporary communicative and standards-based teaching concepts will predominate. Students taking this course should have advanced-level strengths in the language(s) they plan to teach. Field Experience Required. Required of Spanish Education majors. CONSENT: Instructor. OFFERED: Sem. I (with sufficient demand).
- 4900 Senior Seminar in Cultural Studies 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Addresses openness to truth and Christian commitments and practices from a global perspective of modern languages and cultures. Includes required readings, in-depth discussions, and a major project and presentation. Taught in English. Required of all Spanish teaching and non-teaching majors. Applies to the liberal arts writing and speaking-intensive requirement. CONSENT: Instructor. OFFERED: Sem. I.

FREN COURSES

- 1010 Elementary French I 4 hrs. (3, 1)
Emphasizes development of fundamental language skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) and appreciation of Francophone cultures. Individual online or outside language laboratory work is required. PREREQUISITE: Placement. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 1020 Elementary French II 4 hrs. (3, 1)
Emphasizes development of fundamental language skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) and appreciation of Francophone cultures. Individual online or outside language laboratory work is required. PREREQUISITE: Placement or FREN 1010. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.

GERM COURSES

- 1010 Elementary German I 4 hrs. (3, 1)
Emphasizes development of fundamental language skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) and appreciation of Germanic cultures. Individual online or outside language laboratory work is required. PREREQUISITE: Placement. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 1020 Elementary German II 4 hrs. (3, 1)
Emphasizes continued development of fundamental language skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) and appreciation of Germanic cultures. Individual online or outside language laboratory work is required. PREREQUISITE: Placement or GERM 1010. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2010 Intermediate German I 4 hrs. (3, 1)
Communicative tasks and culture-oriented readings. Continued development of basic skills in reading, writing, listening, and speaking. Individual online or outside language laboratory work is required. PREREQUISITE: Placement or GERM 1020. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.

SPAN COURSES

- 1010 Elementary Spanish I 4 hrs. (3, 1)
Emphasizes development of fundamental language skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) and appreciation of Spanish-speaking cultures. Individual online or outside laboratory work is required. PREREQUISITE: Placement. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 1020 Elementary Spanish II 4 hrs. (3, 1)
Emphasizes continued development of fundamental language skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) and appreciation of Spanish-speaking cultures. Individual online or outside laboratory work is required. PREREQUISITE: Placement or SPAN 1010. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 2010 Intermediate Spanish I 4 hrs. (3, 1)
Emphasis on increasing language proficiency in the areas of listening, speaking, reading, and writing through review of beginning Spanish as well as increased emphasis on understanding the diverse Spanish-speaking cultures through cultural readings, films, internet, and other sources at the intermediate level. Individual online or outside laboratory work is required. PREREQUISITE: Placement or SPAN 1020. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 2020 Intermediate Spanish II 4 hrs. (3, 1)
Emphasis on increasing language proficiency in the areas of listening, speaking, reading, and writing, as well as increased emphasis on understanding the diverse Spanish-speaking cultures through cultural readings, films, internet, and other sources. Introduction to literary readings. Individual online or outside laboratory work is required. PREREQUISITE: Placement or SPAN 2010. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 3010 Spanish Composition 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Builds upon intermediate Spanish to introduce students to authentic readings, short films, and music at the early advanced level. It emphasizes the skill areas of reading and writing to help students develop the writing skills needed for such common tasks as blogging, storytelling, reporting upon events, and persuading others in a formal essay. Students will work towards the goal of having their language be understood by native speakers who do not regularly interact with non-natives. Required of all Spanish majors and minors. Applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: Placement or SPAN 2020. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.

- 3020 Spanish Conversation 4 hrs. (3, 1)
Designed to increase students' abilities to deal orally and culturally with a variety of subjects related to everyday life, employment, current events, and travel. Includes review of Spanish grammar, development of more fluent command of oral patterns, and more active control of vocabulary. Practice with native Spanish speakers required in a practicum setting. The School of Music, Theatre, and Dance offers Bachelor of Music degrees in music education, musical theatre, voice performance, and instrumental performance; Bachelor of Arts degrees in music, music business, songwriting, worship arts and dance; complementary majors in music, musical theatre and dance; two music minors; a theatre minor; and a dance minor. The School of Music, Theatre, and Dance also endeavors to give all students opportunities for creative experiences in the performing arts by encouraging the development of artistry and scholarship through classes, private music study, and performance.

Students intending to become music majors, musical theatre majors, or dance majors should consult the School of Music, Theatre, and Dance website for audition forms and requirements, and the Music Handbook or the Dance Handbook for admission and retention policies. All prospective music, musical theatre, and dance majors must complete an audition for admission to the School of Music, Theatre, and Dance. All freshmen must complete the freshman curriculum in music or dance with grades of C- or better before registering for upper-level courses in music or dance.

FRESHMAN CURRICULUM FOR MUSIC AND DANCE

The freshman curriculum in music consists of the following courses (12 hrs.):

- 6 hours from MUSC 1010, 1020 (theory)
- 2 hours from MUSC 1030, 1040 (aural comprehension)
- 4 hours from MUPF 1050, 1060 (keyboard class)

The freshman curriculum in dance consists of the following courses (6 hrs.):

- 4 hours from:
 - DANC 1220, 2220, 3220 (modern dance) or
 - DANC 1320, 2320, 3320 (jazz dance) or
 - DANC 1420, 2420, 3420 (ballet)
- 1 hour of DANC 1580 (Dance Improvisation I)
- 1 hour of DANC 1590 (Dance Composition I)

The freshman curriculum for music and dance may be attempted only twice. Withdrawal from a freshman course counts as one attempt to pass the course. Transfer students must take examinations to determine class placement in music or dance freshman courses and must pass the freshman curriculum with grades of C- or better by the end of their fourth semester of college study, or second semester at AU, in order to continue in the major. Students who wish to begin a major in music or dance after completing their fourth semester of college study must complete the freshman curriculum with grades of C- or better on the first attempt. Students who wish to retake a course in the music or dance freshman curriculum after their fourth semester of college study must petition the dean of the School of Music, Theatre, and Dance in writing for permission to do so.

UPPER-DIVISION PERFORMANCE EVALUATION (UDPE)

Students in music, musical theatre, or dance are required to pass the Upper-Division Performance Evaluation (UDPE) to advance to 3000- and 4000-level private music study or dance study, perform a junior or senior recital, continue a performance emphasis, or register for music education methods courses or student teaching. Students usually take the UDPE at the end of the sophomore year.

MUSIC ENSEMBLES

All music majors must participate in approved major ensembles each semester of enrollment (see Music Handbook for a list of approved major ensembles). Music minors are required to participate in ensembles for four semesters. Students participate in an ensemble for 1 hour of credit or 0 hours of credit if taking 18 hours of other courses.

DANCE ENSEMBLES

All dance majors must register for DANC 1150 (Dance Repertory) and DANC 1160 (Dance Production) as required by your track, and are also required to audition for the dance guest artist(s) works. Dance minors must register for DANC 1150 and DANC 1160 in one semester. Students participate in these courses for 1 hour of credit or 0 hours of credit if taking 18 hours of other courses.

PRIVATE MUSIC STUDY

Music majors earn 1-3 hours of credit by taking weekly one-hour private lessons. Elective students earn 1 hour of credit by taking weekly half-hour or one-hour lessons. Participation in studio classes, studio recitals, and general student recitals is part of private study at Anderson University.

Complex retention and high performance quality required at all times. PREREQUISITE: DANC 3420. REPEAT: May be repeated for credit. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 4500 Dance Anatomy and Kinesiology 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Basic principles of anatomy and kinesiology and an investigation of the human body and how it works through dance and movement. Importance placed on functionality of joints, ligaments, tendons, and of musculoskeletal, sensory, and nervous systems. OFFERED: Sem. I, even-numbered years.
- 4590 Dance Composition IV 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Topics include non-rhythmical music, ambient music, environmental music, improvisation as a choreographic tool, and site-specific works. Students craft original works, and the course culminates in a student dance concert. PREREQUISITE: DANC 3590. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 4650 Independent Study 1-4 hrs. (arranged)
Expanded experience in a topic area of student choice with approval from the dance area coordinator. REPEAT: May be repeated up to 4 hours.
- 4660 International Experience in the Arts 1-4 hrs. (arranged)
Designed to provide academic credit for coursework and assignments completed in conjunction with an international experience offered through the Tri-S program. REPEAT: May be repeated for credit.

DANC (cont.)

- 4800 Internship in Dance 1-3 hrs. (arranged)
In-depth experience in a selected dance-related business tailored to the abilities and needs of the individual student. PREREQUISITE: Upper-division standing. REPEAT: May be repeated up to 3 hours. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 4900 Seminar in Selected Topics 1-4 hrs. (arranged)
Special dance courses as determined by the faculty. REPEAT: May be repeated for credit.
- 4910 Seminar in Professional Praxis for Dancers 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Focus on preparation for the professional world. Topics covered include graduate school, dance company, and musical theatre. Conducted in a masterclass format, the seminar includes both oral and written participation, and the completion of a professional portfolio. PREREQUISITE: Upper-division standing. OFFERED: Sem. I, even-numbered years.

NURSING

PROFESSIONAL NURSING

Anderson University offers a four-year Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) that emphasizes analytical skills, a liberal arts perspective, and expertise as a baccalaureate generalist. The BSN focuses on developing the student for beginning practice as a member of the profession who is a provider, educator, scholar, designer, manager, and coordinator of care. Students are taught to design innovative nursing care for individuals, families, communities, and populations with complex health states in a variety of health-care settings across the lifespan. The Anderson University School of Nursing conceptual framework borrows elements from the Ecological Model of Health as a way to comprehend the complex interplay between individuals, relationships, and environments.

Upon completion of the first year of prerequisites, students may be eligible for progression to nursing courses beginning in the sophomore year. Supporting and liberal arts courses are taken throughout the four-year curriculum and provide the basis for effective nursing practice and an understanding of the human experience. Transfer credit is evaluated by the university registrar and the dean of the School of Nursing or his/her designate.

All students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or better for continuance in the nursing program. To advance, a minimum grade of C must be earned in each nursing class. Students must also demonstrate proficiency in designing nursing care that creates a safe patient environment resulting in high-quality patient outcomes and must receive a satisfactory clinical evaluation to successfully complete any course. Upon graduation, students are eligible to take the National Council Licensure Examination (NCLEX). A national NCLEX predictor computerized examination will be given during the second semester of the senior year.

Clinical experiences may include day, evening, and weekend hours. An accumulation of two failures in nursing courses results in dismissal from the program. Students with extended progression times in the nursing major will meet nursing requirements of the class with which they graduate.

The program has received full accreditation from the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education aacnnursing.org and approval from the Indiana State Board of Nursing.

For students considering graduate school, the faculty recommends PSYC 2440, Applied Statistics and Introduction to Research, to meet the liberal arts quantitative reasoning requirement.

All who wish to major in nursing must be formally admitted to the School of Nursing. Acceptance to the School of Nursing is on a competitive basis. The requirements are below.

ADMISSION TO THE BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN NURSING

ADVANCED ACCEPTANCE (for those who apply as high school seniors)

Requirements for consideration for advanced acceptance:

- Cumulative high school GPA of 3.5 or better
- Two years of high school math, including algebra
- Three years of high school science, including biology and chemistry
- Minimum SAT total score (verbal plus math) of 1125 or a minimum ACT composite score of 21

Requirements for progression to the sophomore year:

- Grade of C or above in PSYC 2000; BIOL 2410, 2420; NURS 2140
- Cumulative grade point average of 3.2 or higher
- Completed criminal background check and drug testing*
- Complete immunization history and physical examination*
- CPR certification from the American Heart Association (for health professionals)*
- Completion of "Application for Admission" form

REGULAR ACCEPTANCE (for current students)

Students applying for admission to the major in the sophomore year must meet the following criteria and will be considered on a competitive and space-available basis:

- Grade of C or above in PSYC 2000; BIOL 2410, 2420; NURS 2140
- Cumulative grade point average of 3.2 or higher
- Completed criminal background check and drug testing*
- Complete immunization history and physical examination*
- CPR certification from the American Heart Association (for health professionals)*
- Completion of "Application for Admission" form

TRANSFER STUDENT ACCEPTANCE

- Completion of a grade of C or above in PSYC 2000; BIOL 2410, 2420 (BIOL 2410 and 2420 must be taken at the same institution), or the equivalent transfer courses
- NURS 2140 (may be taken concurrently with NURS 2241, NURS 2340, and NURS 2270 with permission of the dean of the School of Nursing). NURS 2140 must be successfully completed to progress to 3000-level nursing courses.
- Cumulative GPA of 3.2 or higher
- Transfer students who have transcripts from multiple universities will utilize an "average" of the cumulative GPAs in order to meet the cumulative GPA requirement.
- A minimum of 12 semester hours must be accrued in order to include the GPA.
- Transfer students who do not meet the cumulative GPA requirement for admission to the School of Nursing must complete a minimum of 12 semester hours at Anderson University (50% of which must be within a traditional class- room setting) and obtain a cumulative GPA of 3.2 or higher in order to make application to the School of Nursing.
- Transfer credits in prerequisite and supporting courses (PSYC 2000, PSYC 2510, BIOL 2410, BIOL 2420, BIOL 2230 and CHEM 1000) must be taken within the previous five academic years to be considered for academic credit.
- Completed criminal background check and drug testing*
- Complete immunization history and physical examination*
- CPR certification from the American Heart Association (for health professionals)*
- Completion of "Application for Admission" form

ADMISSION TO THE ACCELERATED BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN NURSING PROGRAM

ADMISSION CRITERIA

- Completion of a bachelor's degree from an accredited and recognized college or university with a minimum GPA of 2.75 or higher
- Prerequisite courses, or the equivalent transfer course, include BIOL 2410, Anatomy/Physiology (4 hrs.); BIOL 2420, Anatomy/Physiology II (4 hrs.); PSYC 2000, General Psychology (3 hrs.); PSYC 2510, Developmental Psychology (4 hrs.); CHEM 1000, Intro to Chemistry (4 hrs.); and BIOL 2230, Microbes and Disease (4 hrs.).
- Prerequisite courses must be completed with a grade of C or above, prior to the clinical phase of the program.
- Submission of a School of Nursing application, resume, two references, and an interview

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN NURSING (83 hrs.)

60 hours in Nursing +23 hours in supportive sciences:

- NURS 2140, 2231, 2250, 2241, 2270, 2340, 3351, 3361, 3391, 4451, 4470, 4510, 4521, 4950, 4960, 4970
- BIOL 2230, 2410, 2420; PSYC 2000, 2510; CHEM 1000

42+ hours from the liberal arts courses (see Liberal Arts Framework in this catalog)

The School of Nursing strongly recommends NURS 2130 be taken before entering the major.

NURS COURSES

- | | | |
|-------------|---|-------------------------|
| 1210 | Nutrition for Healthy Living | 2 hrs. (2, 0) |
| | Explores principles of nutrition as they relate to physical fitness. Content includes important nutritional elements and their relationship to maintaining health. Required activities include personal health assessment skills, nutritional assessment, and aerobic activities. Not required for nursing major but highly recommended. | |
| | OFFERED: Sem. I, II. | |
| 2130 | Is Nursing for me? | 1 hr. (1, 0) |
| | Discussion of history and contemporary issues of nursing and their impact on current nursing practice is included in study. Relationship between the nursing major, the liberal arts, and support science courses will be explored. Designed to assist students in determining if nursing is the correct career choice. Not required for nursing major but highly recommended. This class is not open to juniors or seniors. GRADE: CR/NC. OFFERED: Sem. I. | |
| 2140 | Introduction to Nursing | 2 hrs. (2, 0) |
| | Introduces the practice of nursing from the perspective of the profession. Focuses on understanding nursing terminology, roles, socialization, values, rights, and responsibilities. Expanding on historical influences develops a working knowledge of current health-care delivery and legal concerns. With approval by the dean of the School of Nursing, may be taken concurrently with NURS 2241. OFFERED: Sem. II. | |
| 2170 | Skills and Procedures Boot Camp | 2 hrs. (1, 1-13) |
| | Introduces novice nursing students to basic skills and procedures in preparation for the clinical experiences. The skills and procedures obtained in this course include: The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) training, and the protection of patient's rights, infection control, handwashing, Personal Protective Equipment (PPE), fire safety, patient safety and ergonomics (ambulation, active and passive range of motion, | | restraints), communications skills, and vital signs: blood pressure, temperature, pulse, respirations, pulse oximetry, pain, height and weight). Additional skills and procedures include: activities of daily Living (ADL's) (positioning/ turning/transfers/restraints, personal hygiene, bed making, proper feeding techniques, skin care, pressure prevention), care of assistive devices (hearing aids, artificial eyes, eyeglasses, and dentures), and the use of compression stockings. This course is intended for students that do not have previous patient care and health care training (Certified Nursing Assistant, Emergency Medical Technician, or Licensed Practical Nurse) GRADE: CR/NC. OFFERED: Sem. I.

- 2231 Fundamentals I 5 hrs. (4, 3-45 clinical hrs.)
Introduces student to nursing process through the AUSON Conceptual Framework focusing on individuals, families, communities, and populations. Students learn to conduct comprehensive and focused physical, behavioral, psychological, spiritual, socioeconomic, and environmental assessments of health and illness utilizing developmentally and culturally appropriate approaches. Basic psychomotor skills for delivery of efficient, safe, and compassionate care introduced and utilized with patients as students are considered novices and exhibit concrete thinking. Admission to program is required. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 2410, 2420; PSYC 2000. COREQUISITE: NURS 2250, PSYC 2510, BIOL 2230. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2241 Fundamentals II 5 hrs. (3, 6-90 clinical hrs.)
Builds on the content of Fundamentals I in the continuing study of individuals, families, communities, and populations through use of the AUSON Conceptual Framework. The clinical component continues the development of comprehensive and focused physical, behavioral, psychological, spiritual, socioeconomic, and environmental assessments of health and illness utilizing developmentally and culturally appropriate approaches. Basic psychomotor skills for the delivery of efficient, safe, and compassionate care continue to be introduced and utilized with patients as students are considered novices and exhibit concrete thinking. Begins the study of the preparation and administration of medication in a safe care environment that results in high-quality patient outcomes. PREREQUISITE: NURS 2231, NURS 2250, PSYC 2510, BIOL 2230. COREQUISITE: CHEM 1000, NURS 2340. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2250 Foundational Strategies for NCLEX Success 1 hr. (1, 0)
This course focuses on foundational nursing concepts toward developing a framework for critical thinking and National Council Licensure Exam (NCLEX) test taking strategies. This course will utilize Kaplan) and other test-taking resources to improve critical thinking and analyzing test questions. Students will develop strategies for studying, including applying course content into NCLEX questions, as well as strategies for managing test anxiety and for increasing test-taking skills. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2270 Pathophysiological Basis for Pharmacology in Nursing 4 hrs. (3.0, 2-30 lab hrs.)
Builds on the content and experiences of the introductory nursing courses. Includes consideration of individuals, families, communities, and populations through the use of the AUSON Conceptual Framework. Partners with the Fundamental course to continue the study of preparation and administration of medication in a safe care environment that results in high-quality patient outcomes. This course will summarize and discuss physiological processes including absorption, distribution, metabolism, and excretion of drugs. Drug action and interactions will be discussed. Appropriate dosage calculation must be demonstrated by the student. PREREQUISITE: NURS 2231, PSYC 2510, BIOL 2230. COREQUISITE: CHEM 1000, NURS 2241. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2340 Personal and Community Health Nursing 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Uses the AUSON Conceptual Framework to analyze risks to health for individuals and population groups in the community setting. Students will learn strategies in primary, secondary, and tertiary prevention to apply to community health needs. Topics include environmental health issues, poverty, health disparities, equity, and the social determinants of health. PREREQUISITE: NURS 2231, NURS 2250, PSYC 2510, BIOL 2230. COREQUISITE: CHEM 1000, NURS 2241. OFFERED: Sem. II.

- 3351 Adult Health I 6 hrs. (3, 9-135 clinical hrs.)
Builds on the content of 2000-level nursing courses and support courses. Focuses on the application of the AUSON Conceptual Framework and nursing process for patients, families, and communities. Implementation of evidence-based nursing interventions for managing acute and chronic care of patients and promoting health is included in study. Basic psychomotor skills for the delivery of efficient, safe, and compassionate care continue to be introduced and utilized with patients as students now function as advanced beginners and are to apply critical/creative-thinking strategies. PREREQUISITE: CHEM 1000, NURS 2241, NURS 2340, NURS 2270. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3361 Adult Health II 6 hrs. (3, 6-90 clinical hrs.)
Builds upon the content and experiences from Adult Health I. Emphasis on application of the AUSON Conceptual Framework and nursing process with individuals, families, communities, and populations. Implementation of evidence-based nursing interventions for managing acute and chronic care of patients and promoting health. Emphasizes communication with all members of the health-care team, including patient and patient's support network. Practical experiences focus on increasing clinical reasoning skills. The application of critical/creative thinking is used as students practice as advanced beginners. PREREQUISITE: NURS 3351. COREQUISITE: NURS 3391. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3391 Evidence-Based Research 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Introduces nursing research with an in-depth study of the steps of the research process. Analysis of nursing research studies will occur. Explores research design and application of evidence-based practice methodology. Students critique research articles and develop a proposal related to a topic of significance to the practice of nursing. It is recommended that the math requirement be met prior to enrolling in the course. This course applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: NURS 3351 and ENGL 1120 or RN License. COREQUISITE: NURS 3361. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3400 Nursing Remediation 1-6 hrs. (arranged)
Offered to nursing students who have been absent for more than one calendar year from their last clinical experience. Remediation may include, but is not limited to: Kaplan resources, simulation, and appropriate skills level check off.
- 3850 Practicum in Nursing 1-3 hrs. (arranged)
Individualized study, clinical experiences, research, and/or project. CONSENT: Dean, School of Nursing and Kinesiology. REPEAT: May be repeated. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 4451 Adult Health III 7 hrs. (4, 9-135 clinical hrs.)
Builds on the 2000- and 3000-level nursing courses and support courses. Focused application of the AUSON Conceptual Framework and nursing process with clients with complex medical issues. Patient care includes individuals, families, communities, and populations. Integration of evidence-based nursing interventions is required in the design of nursing systems. Students come to the course as advanced beginners, and through the integration of creative/critical judgment processes of analysis/synthesis, the development of competence in practice is begun. PREREQUISITE: NURS 3361, NURS 3391. COREQUISITE: NURS 4470. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4470 Seminar in Nursing 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Professional standards of moral, ethical, and legal conduct are discussed. Students assume accountability for personal and professional behaviors by reflecting on one's own beliefs and values as they relate to professional practice. Students identify personal, professional, and environmental risks that impact personal and professional choices on vulnerable populations. This course applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: NURS 3361, NURS 3391. COREQUISITE: NURS 4451. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4510 Entry into Professional Nursing Practice 1 hr. (1, 0)
Builds upon foundational strategies in preparation for the NCLEX exam and entry into professional practice. Each student will examine and review his/her computerized test-taking strategies, and a careful analysis of issues related to test-taking abilities will be completed, along with review of Kaplan textbooks, Kaplan focused reviews and other NCLEX preparation resources. Student will also discuss the process for licensure application and job-seeking strategies. PREREQUISITE: NURS 4451, 4470. COREQUISITE: NURS 4521, 4950, 4960, 4970.

- 4521 Child Health 4 hrs. (3, 3-45 clinical hrs.)
Builds on the experiences of prior courses and required synthesis and analysis of all previously learned material as the student progresses into specialized content of caring for children and families within the AUSON Conceptual Framework. The roles of the pediatric nurse are examined within health promotion, health maintenance, and health restoration. Developmental and family-centered nursing-care concepts are integrated with liberal arts knowledge to identify nursing-care needs of children. PREREQUISITE: NURS 4451 (If a student has a didactic failure in NURS 4451 they may continue to NURS 4521. If a student has a clinical failure in NURS 4451, the student may not continue in NURS 4521.); NURS 4470. COREQUISITE: NURS 4950, NURS 4960, NURS 4970. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 4950 Intercultural Capstone 4 hrs. (2, 6-90 clinical hrs.)
Emphasizes the value of human diversity in order to provide safe, high-quality care. Discussion of the health care provider's practice in a multicultural environment providing culturally appropriate care across settings is included in study. Students are expected to immerse themselves in a culture other than their own through an intercultural experience. EXPECTATION: Students should plan for additional costs for transportation and other expenses, which may vary from $500 to $3,500. CONSENT: Instructor. PREREQUISITE: NURS 4451, NURS 4470. COREQUISITE: NURS 4521, NURS 4960, NURS 4970. SAME AS: PUBH 4950. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 4960 Leadership Capstone 4 hrs. (2.5, 4.5-67.5 clinical hrs.)
Builds on previous nursing courses as the student moves toward becoming a competent generalist nurse, who is a provider, designer, manager, and coordinator of care. Includes a practicum, which allows the student to integrate new practice-related knowledge and skills. Critically analyzes leadership principles and management strategies and how they affect the organization and influence patient outcomes. Examines and applies total quality improvement processes and tools which impact patient safety and meet regulatory requirements. Analyzes the utilization and control of financial and human resources to promote quality patient care and optimize professional practice. The nurse as consumer advocate is emphasized. This course applies to the liberal arts speaking-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: NURS 4451, NURS 4470. COREQUISITE: NURS 4521, NURS 4950, NURS 4970. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 4970 Clinical Capstone 2 hrs. (0.5, 4.5-67.5 clinical hrs.)
Builds on all prior nursing courses as the student will have the opportunity to demonstrate competencies consistent with the program outcomes. In collaboration with the faculty and a preceptor in a chosen care setting, the student will apply critical thinking, academic knowledge, and clinical skills in a real-life working environment. The purpose of this clinical immersion is for the student to formulate an understanding of expectations in preparation for the transition from student to novice nurse. PREREQUISITE: NURS 4451, NURS 4470. COREQUISITE: NURS 4521, NURS 4950, NURS 4960. OFFERED: Sem. II.

RN-BSN CURRICULUM COURSES (NURS)

- 1050 Role Transition 3 hrs. (3, 0)
The role of the professional baccalaureate generalist is explored including strategies for success as a lifelong learner. Moral, ethical, and legal standards of conduct and nursing values are discussed. Students will be introduced to nursing theorists, governing bodies and evidenced-based standards that inform professional baccalaureate nursing practice. Introduces students to tools utilized for the discovery of current nursing and medical research. Investigates the students' abilities to function as a part of a team and in collaboration with team members and interprofessional partners. The relationship between the ability to deliver quality patient care and personal renewal and health is explored. PREREQUISITE: RN License
- 1100 Population Based Health Care 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Utilizes the AUSON Conceptual framework to analyze risks of health for population groups, including individuals within groups. Advocacy strategies for vulnerable populations is investigated. Strategies of primary, secondary, and tertiary prevention will be explored and applied to community health needs. Explores determinates of health, poverty, health disparities, equity, community partnerships, environmental effects on health, and population protection during health emergencies and disasters. Clinical observational experience in community settings are included. PREREQUISITE: RN License.

- 1151 Informatics in Healthcare Nursing 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Examines the role of the professional baccalaureate nurse's role in health information technology. Topics will include nursing's role in using and supporting information system technology to maximize healthcare safety and quality. Moral, ethical, and legal standards of conduct and regulatory compliance will be discussed. Examines use of electronic health records and Health information Exchanges. Explores regulation and methods used to protect patient data and health care systems within networks and cyber security. Use of databases, media, and computer applications are discussed including analysis of application processes. Discusses emerging and future health care technologies such as Artificial Intelligence, internet, genomics, emerging technologies, protecting data, network and Online Security, Electronic Health records. PREREQUISITE: RN License or permission from the Dean.
- 2350 Quality and Safety in Nursing Systems 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Introduces students to Nursing Systems thinking utilizing the AUSON Conceptual Framework. Introduces effective communication and patient teaching and empowerment techniques. Explores the benefits and hazards of intra and interprofessional communication, including communication through technology in the delivery of quality, safe patient centered care. Evaluates personal autonomy and accountability, as well as system functioning in the delivery of quality, safe, patient centered care. Collaboration while providing patient-centered, evidence-based care is emphasized to improve practice and patient outcomes. Explores cultural, ethical, legal, and moral implications to delivering compassionate, safe, and quality care. PREREQUISITE: RN License.
- 3391 Evidenced Based Research 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Introduces nursing research with an in-depth study of the steps of the research process. Analysis of nursing research studies will occur. Explores research design and application of evidence-based practice methodology. Students critique research articles and develop a proposal related to a topic of significance to the practice of nursing. It is recommended that the math requirement be met prior to enrolling in the course. Applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: RN License.
- 4310 Health Care Policy 3 hrs. (3,0)
Introduces the professional baccalaureate nurse to health policy based on social ethical, cultural, economic, and political issues which affect the delivery of health and nursing services. Concepts include the decision-making process, analysis of policies related to national, state, and local health goals and outcomes; standards development; and regulatory and professional organizations. Emphasis is placed on the impact of policy decisions on professional nursing practice and health services. PREREQUISITE: RN License or Dean's permission.
- 4475 Nursing Seminar: Issues, Trends and Ethics 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Moral, ethical, and legal conduct is explored in relation to professional nursing standards. Encourages students to reflect on beliefs and values as they related to personal and professional behaviors. Practicing civil discourse students assume responsibility for their professional behaviors and decision-making. Ethical theories and ethical/legal dilemmas are explored in relation to patient rights and the profession of nursing. Current issues and trends are investigated and discussed. Assists students in self-awareness by exploring current issues such as mindfulness, emotional intelligence, and biases. PREREQUISITE: RN License.
- 4561 Nursing Leadership for the Registered Nurse 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Builds on previous nursing courses as students continue to develop as a nurse who is a provider, designer, manager, and coordinator of care. Discovers how personal and organizational leadership principles and management affects outcomes of organizations and patients. Investigates the total quality improvement processes as well as other tools impacting patient safety through student application. Acquires how these processes and tools are utilized in meeting and maintaining regulatory requirements. Analyzes the handling and management of human and financial resources in relation to promoting safe, quality patient care and optimizing professional practice. The nurse as consumer advocate is emphasized. A semester project will be completed with a healthcare leader. This course applies to the liberal arts speaking-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: RN License and NURS 3391.

4541 Diversity Capstone 3 hrs. (3, 0)

Builds on previous nursing courses to cultivate individual cultural intelligence and cultural humility of diverse populations. Explores the effects of personal bias, the navigation of systems, cultural components to delivering safe, high quality of care. Discusses concepts related to global health emphasizing historical context, cultural norms, and socioeconomic factors. Investigates the gaps of current research for a diverse and/or vulnerable populations and develops a project to disseminate to a professional health care system addressing an identified gap in care for a selected diverse population. Students will continue to develop culturally congruent nursing practice in a diverse cultural environment in providing appropriate care based upon cultural humility through service learning. Applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: RN License and NURS 3391.

4490 Professional Development and Transition Capstone 3 hrs. (3, 0)

Demonstrates students' competency in the BSN Essential domains through the documentation of knowledge gained in previous courses and experience in the clinical setting. Clinical experience is documented in students' Professional Portfolio either through employment verification or through a clinical experience completed in collaboration with the faculty and preceptor in a chosen care setting. Self-analysis and reflection will substantiate students' clinical judgement and reasoning advancement. Explores potential employment opportunities and professional developmental goals. PREREQUISITE: RN License, previous RN-BSN program courses.

NURS ELECTIVES

3560 Complementary and Alternative Therapies 3 hrs. (3, 0)

Introduces students to different holistic therapeutic modalities such as massage and guided imagery. Explores herbal therapies as complementary and alternative to western traditional pharmacotherapies. Newer treatments in the areas of genomics, personalized medicine, and supplementary diagnostic procedures will also be investigated.

3570 Emergency Room Nursing Care 3 hrs. (2, 3-45 clinical hours)

Introduces students to the basics in emergency and trauma care for patients across the lifespan. Discusses common emergent and critical care issues among patients found in an emergency department. Uses triaging principles and protocols to give understanding to the prioritization and flow of patient care. Discusses focused health assessments appropriate for patients presenting health problems. Neonatal, pediatric, and adult Basic and Advanced Cardiac Life Support concepts, including cardiac rhythms, will be reviewed. Explores legal, ethical and moral dilemmas that present commonly in the emergency department. Focuses on appropriate collaboration and communication within the emergency department team. Explores specific assessments, equipment and concepts applied in critical care areas.

3580 Enriching Clinical Reasoning and Judgment 3 hrs. (3, 0)

Utilizes current knowledge in assessment, anatomy, pathophysiology, and pharmacology to explore common patients, define presenting symptoms such as shortness of breath, abdominal pain, and headache. Case studies allow students to further develop knowledge by exploring the primary patient problem supported by assessment findings, anatomy, and pathophysiology concepts. Utilizing clinical reasoning and judgement, students will explore nursing and pharmacological interventions in relation to the primary patient problem. Nursing systems thinking will be utilized to explore patient issues in relation to quality and safe care. Required for RNs who have been out of nursing practice for five years or more.

PEACE AND CONFLICT TRANSFORMATION

Dr. Varner, director

The Peace and Conflict Transformation (PACT) minor is available to all students as a complement to any major. The PACT minor is not limited to one department but is designed as an interdisciplinary engagement with the broad array of issues involved in peace and conflict transformation.

PEACE AND CONFLICT TRANSFORMATION MINOR (18 hrs.)

- PACT 2100, 2200, 2300, 2400
- 1 hour cross-cultural, service-learning, or internship experience
- 9 hours from any of the following courses: BSNS 3230, 3300; CMIN 3340; CRIM 3010; DANC 3000; ECON 2010; ENGL 3190, 3580; MLAN 2000; HIST 3190; PHIL 3210; POSC 3300, 3310, 3320, 3360; PSYC 2100; RLGN 3020, 3120, 3320; SOCI 2010, 2020, 3400

PACT COURSES

- | | | |
|-------------|---|----------------------|
| 2100 | Introduction to Peace and Conflict Transformation
Introduction to the interdisciplinary work of peace and conflict transformation. Includes examination from several perspectives of conflict at several levels (e.g., interpersonal, racial, global, etc.) as well as inquiry into the relationships between them. Considers various models by which peace and reconciliation are pursued and encourages critical self-understanding through action and reflection. OFFERED: Sem. I, 2022-23. | 2 hrs. (2, 0) |
| 2200 | Peacemakers Past and Present
Survey of prominent figures from several fields who have contributed significantly to understanding peace and conflict transformation. Emphasizes the figures' writings (whether fiction, nonfiction, poetry, sermons, speeches, letters, etc.) and encourages critical self-expression through writing and speech. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2022-23. | 2 hrs. (2, 0) |
| 2300 | Peace, Conflict, and Religion
Study of the role played by religion in situations of conflict and the pursuit of peace. Includes consideration of specific religious traditions, texts, figures, movements, and events, and encourages critical self-reflection through observation and inquiry. OFFERED: Sem. I, 2023-24. | 2 hrs. (2, 0) |
| 2400 | Principles and Practices of Conflict Transformation
Engagement with a variety of principles and practices developed and employed in selected endeavors (e.g., counseling, mediation, negotiation, racial reconciliation, diplomacy, etc.). Encourages self-appropriation through research, presentation, and critique. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2023-24. | 2 hrs. (2, 0) |

PHYSICAL SCIENCES AND ENGINEERING

Dr. McPheron, chair; Dr. Baker, Dr. Carr, Prof. Craton, Dr. Kang, Dr. Kennedy, Dr. Lyle-Ippolito, Dr. Troy, Dr. Wallace, Prof. Williamson; Prof. George

The Department of Physical Sciences and Engineering offers majors in biochemistry, chemistry, physics, physical science, electrical engineering, computer engineering, engineering physics, mechanical engineering, and mechatronics engineering; as well as minors in chemistry and physics. Students gain broad scientific and engineering knowledge in the classroom while having opportunities to do significant research. Graduates often go on to medical and graduate programs, while others find careers as scientists and engineers.

ENGINEERING PROGRAMS

It is the mission of Anderson University's Engineering Program to develop highly qualified, innovative, servant leaders.

Living the Mission:

- Highly Qualified Engineers — We provide a Christ-centered, hands-on education, grounded in the liberal arts that inspires students toward excellence in engineering.
- Innovative Thinkers — We model resourceful, pioneering, and creative thinking to uniquely mentor students to deal with the challenges of vocation, life, and community.
- Servant Leaders — We seek to live God-honoring lives of integrity, and share the importance of Christ-like servanthood. "For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many." Mark 10:45.

Program Characteristics:

- Theoretical Knowledge — Anderson University Engineering students will have advanced mathematical, scientific, and engineering skills — including significant design, problem solving, and data processing ability — built upon a liberal arts foundation.
- Practical Experience — Anderson University Engineering students will have significant hands-on experiences, driven by laboratory exercises, research assistantships, internships, project management, and interdisciplinary opportunities.
- Grounded in Faith — Anderson University Engineering students will be lifelong learners who, through the lens of a Christian worldview, will recognize God's calling on their lives to serve the Church and society.

Program Educational Objectives:

Engineering graduates from Anderson University, three to five years' post-graduation, will be improving society by:

- actively serving Christ in their local church, community, and/or worldwide,
- using a biblical worldview for professional and ethical decision-making,
- thriving professionally individually and in teams, and
- successfully pursuing advanced degrees, certifications, and/or professional development opportunities.

COMPUTER ENGINEERING

Students in the ABET-accredited computer engineering program will learn the principles and skills necessary to design, implement, and validate electronics hardware and software systems. Students will gain a solid foundation in a broad range of computer engineering topics, preparing them for careers in areas of electronics, digital logic, computer architecture, computer organization, and computer science, embedded systems and larger scale computer systems. Students will have the opportunity to see various applications of computer engineering to digital system design and computer design.

In this major, pre-requisite courses must be completed with a minimum grade of C-.

COMPUTER ENGINEERING MAJOR, BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (82 hrs.)

- CPSC 2250, 2320 (may substitute CPSC 2500), 2420, 2430, 2500, 4420
- CHEM 2110
- MATH 2010, 2020, 3010, 3100, 4010
- PHYS 2240, 2250
- ENGR 2001, 2002, 2003, 2010, 2030, 2090, 2110, 2310, 3030, 3220, 3260, 3270, 3280, 4950, 4960

ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING

Students in the ABET-accredited electrical engineering program will learn the principles and skills necessary to design, implement, and validate electrical and electronic systems. Students are exposed to a solid foundation in a diverse array of topics, preparing them for careers in the areas of electronics, design of integrated circuits, electromagnetics, power generation and transmission, telecommunications, control systems, and signal processing.

In this major, pre-requisite courses must be completed with a minimum grade of C-.

ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING MAJOR, BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (84 hrs.)

- CPSC 2320 (may substitute CPSC 2500), 2420
- CHEM 2110
- PHYS 2240, 2250
- MATH 2010, 2020, 3010, 3020, 3100, 4010
- ENGR 2001, 2002, 2003, 2010, 2030, 2090, 2110, 2310, 3030, 3220, 3230, 3240, 3270, 3280, 4230, 4240, 4250, 4950, 4960

MECHANICAL ENGINEERING

Students in the ABET-accredited mechanical engineering program will learn the principles and skills necessary to understand how heat and mechanical power can be used in the design of machines and other tools. Graduates of the mechanical engineering program will have a diverse background, with skills that equip them for careers in the automotive, aerospace, manufacturing, and consumer goods industries.

In this major, pre-requisite courses must be completed with a minimum grade of C-.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERING MAJOR, BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (83 hrs.)

- CPSC 2320 (may substitute CPSC 2500)
- CHEM 2110
- PHYS 2240, 2250
- MATH 2010, 2020, 3010, 3020, 3100
- ENGR 2001, 2002, 2003, 2010, 2030, 2070, 2090, 2110, 2310, 3030, 3100, 3110, 3160, 3180, 3190, 3510, 4100, 4110, 4130, 4160, 4950, 4960

MECHATRONICS ENGINEERING

Mechatronics Engineering is the multidisciplinary union of mechanical, electrical, and computer engineering with application towards the design and control of electromechanical systems. Students pursuing a degree in mechatronics engineering will be engaged with topics from each of these disciplines, capped off by a course in Mechatronics System Design. These students will have focused hardware and software experience, and graduates will be prepared for careers in control systems, automation, autonomy, and electromechanical system design.

In this major, pre-requisite courses must be completed with a minimum grade of C-.

MECHATRONICS ENGINEERING MAJOR, BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (83 hrs.)

- CPSC 2320 (may substitute CPSC 2500)
- CHEM 2110
- PHYS 2240, 2250
- MATH 2010, 2020, 3010, 3100
- MATH 3020 or MATH 4010 or MATH 2120
- ENGR 2001, 2002, 2003 (may substitute 2200), 2010, 2030, 2090, 2110, 2310, 3030, 3100, 3110, 3220, 3280, 3510, 4020, 4950, 4960
- Remaining hours from 3000 level and above courses in CPSC, ENGR, MATH, or PHYS

HUMANITARIAN ENGINEERING

The core of the engineering program at AU is to develop highly-qualified, innovative, servant leaders who are grounded in faith. Engineering skills are becoming increasingly useful in providing humanitarian aid and distributing basic necessities (water, power, communications) to underdeveloped communities, where the need is greatest. This complementary major and minor are aimed at equipping students to be “mission-minded” engineers. In the complementary major, students will complete core engineering courses along with courses focused on engineering design for service. Students will also broaden their skill set by taking courses outside of engineering, such as courses in Business, Christian Ministry, Modern Languages, Psychology, or Sociology.

This complementary major must be paired with existing engineering majors (CpE, EE, ME, MxE), while the minor may be paired with any major.

HUMANITARIAN ENGINEERING COMPLEMENTARY MAJOR (47 hrs.)

- PHYS 2240
- MATH 2010, 2020
- ENGR 2001, 2002, 2003 (may substitute 2200), 2010, 2030, 2060, 2080, 2090, 2110, 2310, 3080, 4950, 4960
- 7 hours from: BSNS 2710, 3120, 4480, CMIN 2000, 3910, RLGN 2130, 3040, 3120, PSYC 2000, 2100, 3200, SOCI 2020, 2100, 4350, SPAN courses beyond 1020 or equivalent

HUMANITARIAN ENGINEERING MINOR (15-18 hrs.)

- ENGR 2060, 2080, 2090, 3080
- Remaining 4-7 hours from: BSNS 2710, 3120, 4480, CMIN 2000, 3910, RLGN 2130, 3040, 3120, PSYC 2000, 2100, 3200, SOCI 2020, 2100, 4350, SPAN courses beyond 1020 or equivalent

PHYSICAL SCIENCE PROGRAMS

BIOCHEMISTRY

The biochemistry major is an interdisciplinary major that applies the principles and methods of both biology and chemistry to understanding the molecular basis of life. The major requires a number of basic classes from each discipline with advanced courses in chemical instrumentation, cell and molecular biology, genetics, and biochemistry, and allows the student to select additional courses necessary to pursue certain career objectives. Students considering a biochemistry major should begin their study with CHEM 2110 and BIOL 2210.

BIOCHEMISTRY MAJOR, BACHELOR OF ARTS (56 hrs.)

- CHEM 2110, 2120, 2210, 2220, 3100, 4510, 4520
- BIOL/CHEM 4210
- BIOL/CHEM 4220
- BIOL/CHEM/PHYS 4910, 4920
- BIOL 2210, 2220, 2240, 4050, 4310
- Elective hours from:
 - CHEM 3140, 4090, 4110
 - BIOL 3030, 4120

It is suggested that students pursuing pre-medicine should elect BIOL 3030, 4120.

They should also take PHYS 2140, 2150 or MATH 2010, 2020, PHYS 2240, 2250.

It is suggested that students pursuing graduate school should elect CHEM 3140, 4090, 4110; BIOL 3030. They should also take MATH 2010, 2020; PHYS 2240, 2250.

It is suggested students pursuing an industry career should elect CHEM 3140.

BIOCHEMISTRY MAJOR, BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (76 hrs.)

- CHEM 2110, 2120, 2210, 2220, 3100, 4110, 4510, 4520
- BIOL 2210, 2220, 2240, 3030, 4050, 4310
- BIOL/CHEM 4210
- BIOL/CHEM 4220
- BIOL/CHEM/PHYS 4910, 4920
- PHYS 2140 or 2240
- PHYS 2150 or 2250
- MATH 2010
- MATH 2120 or PSYC 2440

CHEMISTRY

The study of chemistry introduces students to the world of atoms and molecules and their composition and interactions. This study is recommended for chemistry majors and minors as preparation for graduate school, medical school, secondary-level teaching, or careers in government or industrial laboratories. It is also recommended for physics or biology students to supplement and complement their major fields of study. Students considering a chemistry major should begin their study with CHEM 2110.

CHEMISTRY MAJOR, BACHELOR OF ARTS (52 hrs.)

- CHEM 2110, 2120, 2210, 2220, 3100; 4110 or 4120; 4510, 4520, 4910, 4920
- PHYS 2240, 2250
- MATH 2010, 2020
- Remaining hours from additional upper-division (3000-level and above) CHEM courses
- CHEM 1000 and 2700 do not apply toward the major

CHEMISTRY MAJOR, BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (60 hrs.)

- CHEM 2110, 2120, 2210, 2220, 3100, 4110, 4510, 4520, 4910, 4920
- PHYS 2240, 2250
- MATH 2010, 2020
- Minimum of 16 hours from CHEM 3140, 4090, 4100, 4120, 4210, 4650
- CHEM 1000 and 2700 do not apply toward the major

CHEMISTRY MINOR (16 hrs.)

- Must include CHEM 3100
- Remaining hours from additional CHEM courses
- CHEM 1000 and 2700 do not apply toward the minor

PHYSICS

The purpose of study in physics is to obtain an understanding of the nature and order of the physical world while being exposed to the logical application of scientific methods in discovering this order. This study is recommended for physics majors and minors as preparation for graduate school, secondary-level teaching, or other employment, and for chemistry, biology, mathematics, computer science, and pre-medical students to supplement and complement their major fields of study. Students majoring in physics have two options, based on their specific career goals: those wishing to pursue a graduate degree or high-tech career in physics or engineering (Bachelor of Science in Engineering Physics), and those interested in laboratory work or a career in teaching (Bachelor of Arts in Physics).

ENGINEERING PHYSICS MAJOR, BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (76-79 hrs.)

- CHEM 2110
- MATH 2010, 2020, 3010, 3020, 3100
- PHYS 2240, 2250, 3130, 4130, 4220, 4410
- ENGR 2001, 2002, 2003, 2310, 2010, 2030, 2070, 2090, 2110, 3240, 4950, 4960
- CPSC 2320 (may substitute CPSC 1400, CPSC 2040 or CPSC 2500)
- A minimum of 6 hours of any CPSC, ENGR, MATH, or PHYS courses at the 3000-level or above

PHYSICS MAJOR, BACHELOR OF ARTS (60-63 hrs.)

- PHYS 2240, 2250, 3130, 4130, 4210, 4220, 4410, 4510, 4520, 4910, 4920
- ENGR 2030, 2070, 2310
- CHEM 2110
- MATH 2010, 2020, 3010, 3020, 3100
- CPSC 2320 (may substitute CPSC 1400 or CPSC 2500)

PHYSICS MINOR (16 hrs.)

- PHYS 2240, 2250, 3130
- May include ENGR 2070
- Remaining hours from additional upper-division (3000-level and above) PHYS courses

PHYSICAL SCIENCE

The purpose of study in the physical sciences is to obtain an understanding of the nature and order of the physical world while being exposed to the logical application of scientific methods in discovering this order. Students considering a career in secondary education may wish to pursue the physical science major instead of the more specialized physics or chemistry majors.

The physical science major is not intended as a sufficient preparation for graduate studies in the fields of chemistry or physics, nor is it designed to prepare students for a scientific career in industry. It is strongly encouraged, but not required, that students also pursue the TeachScience complementary major as part of their studies.

PHYSICAL SCIENCE MAJOR, BACHELOR OF ARTS (50 hrs.)

- PHYS 1000, 1020, 1240, 2240, 2250, 3130, 4510, 4520, 4910, 4920
- CHEM 2110, 2120, 2210, 3100
- MATH 2010, 2020

CHEMISTRY/PHYSICS/PHYSICAL SCIENCE TEACHING TRACK

Students who wish to pursue a career in teaching should complete a BA or BS degree following a three-year plan (Chemistry) or four-year plan. After graduation with their BA or BS, students will complete the one year Anderson University Transition to Teaching (T2T) post-baccalaureate licensure program. By obtaining a degree in Chemistry, Physics, and Physical Science, students will have the content expertise required to teach high school courses in these fields. The one-year Transition to Teaching program will provide students the training required to become licensed high school educators.

CHEM COURSES

- 1000 Introduction to Chemistry 4 hrs. (3, 2)
A survey approach to the study of chemistry examining the methods of science as applied to the study of inorganic, organic, and biochemistry. Emphasis on understanding chemical principles and their application to the environment, with some use of numerical computations. Not applicable toward chemistry major or minor. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2110 General Chemistry I 4 hrs. (3, 2.5)
Basic introduction to theory and practice of chemical principles with emphasis on atomic structure, chemical bonding, stoichiometry, thermochemistry, and physical states of matter. EXPECTATION: Students entering general chemistry normally have at least one year of high school chemistry and two years of high school algebra. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2120 General Chemistry II 4 hrs. (3, 2.5)
Further studies of chemical principles including kinetics, oxidation-reduction and acid-base reactions, inorganic complexes, and nuclear chemistry. EXPECTATION: Students entering this class should have completed CHEM 2110 or equivalent. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2210 Organic Chemistry I 4 hrs. (3, 3)
Bonding theory, composition, and constitution of carbon frameworks and functional groups, nomenclature, stereochemistry, and introduction to reactions and reaction mechanisms. PREREQUISITE: CHEM 2110. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2220 Organic Chemistry II 4 hrs. (3, 3)
Reactions, mechanisms, and synthesis of various functional groups. Spectroscopy, including NMR, IR, and UV-VIS. PREREQUISITE: CHEM 2210. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2700 Science Teaching Methods I 3 hrs. (2, 1)
Involves the learning and application of the methods of teaching science. In addition to lecture and classroom discussion, students complete a practicum experience with a master teacher in a public or private school setting. Topics covered and jointly pursued by AU faculty and the master teacher include learning theories, classroom management, inquiry-based teaching, history of science, special/ gifted education, and an introduction to rubrics/grading/assessment. Emphasizes the key roles that a teacher's caring attitude and ability to engage students in a successful learning environment. EXPECTATION: BIOL/CHEM/PHYS 1120 should be completed. SAME AS: BIOL/PHYS 2700. OFFERED: Sem. II.

CHEM (cont.)

- 3100 Analytical Chemistry 4 hrs. (3, 3)
Review of equilibrium and its relationship to gravimetric and volumetric analysis. Statistical methods and an introduction to environmental chemistry. Several instrumental techniques are introduced. PREREQUISITE: CHEM 2110. OFFERED: Sem. I, 2022-23.
- 3140 Instrumental Analysis 4 hrs. (3, 3)
A study of modern instrumental methods, including UV-VIS, AAS, GC, GC/MS, HPLC, IR, NMR, Voltammetry, and X-ray, with special emphasis upon chromatography. EXPECTATION: CHEM 3100 should be completed. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2023-24.
- 3800 Internship in Science Education 1-4 hrs. (0, 1-4)
An opportunity to broaden the diversity of a student's experience in educational settings. Internships are arranged in environments not typically experienced by the student. Tri-S and other international experiences may be appropriate, as well as experiences in large inner-city schools or small, rural schools. EXPECTATION: BIOL/ CHEM/PHYS 2700 should be completed or taken concurrently. SAME AS: BIOL/PHYS 3800.
- 4090 Inorganic Chemistry 4 hrs. (3, 3)
Molecular structure and bonding, symmetry, structures of solids, d-metal complexes, band theory, organometallics, and advanced topics. EXPECTATION: CHEM 2110 and 2220 should be completed. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 4100 Organic Spectroscopy 4 hrs. (3, 3)
A look at the instrumentation used to identify organic compounds. An emphasis is placed on identifying organic compounds from various spectra. Students will gain hands-on experience in FT-NMR (^1H , ^{13}C , ^2D), FT-IR, GC-MS, UV-Vis, and the interpretation of their spectra. PREREQUISITE: CHEM 2210. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 4110 Thermodynamics and Kinetics 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Emphasis on engineering concepts related to classical thermodynamics. Provides the tools necessary in designing and analyzing thermal systems and processes. Topics covered include internal energy, enthalpy, entropy, and conservation of energy. EXPECTATION: PHYS 2240, CHEM 2110, MATH 3100. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2022-23.
- 4120 Quantum Theory 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Provides a background and introduction to quantum theory, as well as applications to various systems such as the hydrogen atom. Additionally, students are exposed to problem solving techniques, such as perturbation theory and the variational method, as well as their applications to a range of physical systems. PREREQUISITE: CHEM 2210. SAME AS: PHYS 4130. OFFERED: Sem. I, 2022-23.
- 4210 Biochemistry I 4 hrs. (3, 4)
Introduction to fundamental principles of biochemistry. Lectures and project-oriented laboratories emphasize concepts of macromolecular structure, aspects of enzymology, and intermediary metabolism. PREREQUISITE: BIOL 2240, CHEM 2220. SAME AS: BIOL 4210. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4220 Biochemistry II 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Further discussion of particular metabolic pathways in animals and plants with an overall emphasis on control of metabolism and regulation of pathways. PREREQUISITE: BIOL/CHEM 4210. SAME AS: BIOL 4220. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2023-24.
- 4510 Senior Physical Science Practicum I 1 hr. (1, 0)
Assessment of the student's development as a chemistry/biochemistry major. In addition, students will study and discuss nuances, potential careers, résumé building and job seeking, graduate schools, laboratory safety, and the relationship of science and Christianity. Required of all chemistry/biochemistry majors. SAME AS: PHYS 4510. OFFERED: Sem. I.

- 4520 Senior Physical Science Practicum II 1 hr. (1, 0)
Assessment of student's development as a chemistry/biochemistry major. Continuation of Senior Physical Science Practicum I. An introduction to the scientific literature and grant writing. Required of all chemistry/biochemistry majors. EXPECTATION: CHEM 4510 should be completed. SAME AS: PHYS 4520. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 4650 Independent Study 1-4 hrs. (arranged)
Individual study or research in advanced areas of interest. EXPECTATION: At least second year standing in the department; consent of a chemistry faculty advisor. REPEAT: May be repeated. No more than 8 hours may be counted toward the major.
- 4910 Science Seminar I 1 hr. (1, 0)
Techniques and practice of written and oral technical communication with respect to experimental or library research projects. Required of all science majors. Both CHEM 4910 and 4920 must be completed to receive advanced writing competency (writing-intensive) credit. PREREQUISITE: Science major. SAME AS: BIOL/PHYS 4910. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4920 Science Seminar II 1 hr. (1, 0)
Techniques and practice of written and oral technical communication with respect to experimental or library research projects. Required of all science majors. Both CHEM 4910 and 4920 must be completed to receive advanced writing competency (writing-intensive) credit. EXPECTATION: Completion of CHEM 4910. PREREQUISITE: Science major. SAME AS: BIOL/PHYS 4920. OFFERED: Sem. II.

ENGR COURSES

*Note: For all courses numbered ENGR 2000 and above (except ENGR 2080), a laptop is required.
Prerequisites for all ENGR captioned courses must be satisfied with a C- or better.*

- 2001 Introduction to Engineering (Lecture) 1 hr. (1, 2)
Provides prospective engineers an understanding of what it means to be an engineer. Students will participate in team based project management, be introduced to engineering ethics, learn about different engineering disciplines and develop practical skills related to technical writing and engineering problem solving. COREQUISITE: ENGR 2002, 2003, and MATH 1220 or MATH 2010. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2002 Introduction to Mechanical Laboratory 1 hr. (0, 2)
Introduces students to mechanical engineering concepts and equipment. Key areas of interest are measurement, machining, welding, and other forms of manufacturing. Other topics include both 2-D and solid modeling, additive manufacturing, and laser cutting. COREQUISITE: MATH 1220 or MATH 2010. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2003 Introduction to Electrical and Computer Laboratory 1 hr. (0, 2)
Students are exposed to a variety of topics in basic electronics and embedded systems fundamentals. Provides hands-on experience for students to understand the operation of power supplies, function generators, oscilloscopes, and many basic electronic components. COREQUISITE: MATH 1220 or MATH 2010. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2010 Statics 2 hrs. (2, 2)
Introduction to analyzing forces in isolated and connected rigid-body systems, as well as vector analysis, forces, moments, resultants, two and three-dimensional equilibrium, trusses, beams, and frames. Emphasis is given to non-accelerating bodies and frames. PREREQUISITE: PHYS 2240, ENGR 2310 or CPSC 1500. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 2030 Circuit Analysis 3 hrs. (2, 2)
Deals with the analysis of DC and AC electric circuits. Students will learn basic laws, analysis techniques, and circuit theorems. Includes integrated laboratory experience that reinforces classroom content with hands-on experiments. Also makes extensive use of computer tools for circuit analysis. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 2003 or ENGR 2200. COREQUISITE: MATH 2020, ENGR 2310. OFFERED: Sem. II.

ENGR (cont.)

- 2060 Engineering Ethics 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Challenges students to consider ethical implications implicit in the decisions made by engineers as they design products ranging from automobiles, to healthcare devices, to software, to appliances. Much of the course will be dedicated to case studies, and in doing so students will develop a structured methodology for engaging their profession with an ethically sound moral compass. Meets the Civil Discourse and Critical Reasoning Liberal Arts requirements. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 2070 Thermodynamics 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Emphasis on engineering concepts related to classical thermodynamics. Provides the tools necessary in designing and analyzing thermal systems and processes. Topics covered include internal energy, enthalpy, entropy, and conservation of energy. PREREQUISITE: PHYS 2240, CHEM 2110. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2080 Service through Engineering and Technology 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Introduction to humanitarian engineering and social entrepreneurship, focusing on challenges and opportunities present throughout society. Frugal innovation and alternative resources are applied to these challenges in under-developed and under-represented societies. Explanation is given to demonstrate the moral obligations engineers have to improve quality of living and the environment. Emphasis is given to service learning with the effects and consequences therein. Foundational concepts in third-world development, empowerment strategies, and cultural humility form a key part of this course to prepare students for work in service of under-represented or under-developed societies. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 2090 Systems Engineering 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Focuses on various aspects of systems engineering, including risk analysis, engineering economics, project planning, and the product development lifecycle. Heavily project based. Applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: ENGL 1120. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2110 Dynamics 2 hrs. (2, 2)
Introduction to kinematic and kinetic analysis of particles, systems of particles, and rigid bodies; position, velocity, acceleration, non-rotating and rotating frames of reference, Newton's laws, work, energy, impulse, momentum, conservative and nonconservative systems, as well as inertial and noninertial reference frames. PREREQUISITE: PHYS 2240. COREQUISITE: ENGR 2010. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 2200 Foundations of Digital Electronics 2 hrs. (1, 2)
Introduction to circuit analysis, electronics, and digital logic. The laboratory exposes students to implementation of circuits and instrumentation. Concludes with a brief introduction to single board computers. PREREQUISITE: MATH 2200. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2310 Computational Problem Solving 3 hrs. (2, 2)
Introduces the students to a high-level programming language and uses it to perform data analysis, data manipulation, and complex data visualization. Problem solving is taught throughout the course by focusing on computational methods and interaction with the physical world. COREQUISITE: PHYS 2240 (requirement waived if PHYS 2140 has already been completed with a C- or better), and MATH 2010. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3030 Signals and Controls 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Introduces modeling and analysis of dynamic systems as an application of differential equations. Also introduces classical control techniques, including the analysis and design of linear time-invariant control systems using frequency and time domain techniques. Makes extensive use of computer-aided simulations, analysis and design techniques. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 2030, 2110, 2310, MATH 3100. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3080 Engineering Design for Service 3 hrs. (1,4)
Students will design and implement a project utilizing engineering skills to complete a service project. Prepares students to participate on a service trip and includes an experiential component for field work on a service trip specific to the class projects. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 2090. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.

- 3100 Mechanics Lab 2 hrs. (0,4)
Incorporates a hands-on experience of topics in mechanics, such as materials' property measurement, solid mechanics, and kinematics, with introductory simulation techniques. Students will perform laboratory experiments to gain practical knowledge of different mechanical systems. In addition, computational techniques with dynamic simulation will be introduced to design and analyze mechanical systems to meet design requirements for a project. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 3110. COREQUISITE: ENGR 3510. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3110 Kinematics and Robotics 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Focuses on analysis of position, velocity, and acceleration of various mechanisms, such as the slider-crank and four-bar mechanisms. Students will be able to design kinematic mechanisms based on the user's requirements to achieve the ideal paths of the particular points of interest. The kinematics will be applied to manipulator analysis with an introduction to inverse kinematics. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 2110, MATH 3100. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3160 Vibrations 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Vibrations is an introduction to the mechanical response of structural dynamics. Students will be able to predict vibrational response of the system of multiple-degree-of-freedom systems with given conditions, and how to regulate this response to make the mechanical system more desirable for the target. Students should be able to determine the second-order differential equations and have knowledge of matrix computation to understand the material. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 3030, MATH 3100. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3180 Materials and Processes 3 hrs. (3, 0)
An introduction to the science of engineering materials. The primary focus is on the relationships between processing, structure, properties, and performance of metals, ceramics, polymers, and composites. Students will learn to interpret stress-strain diagrams, phase diagrams, and isothermal transformation diagrams, and to evaluate the fitness of various materials for engineering applications. PREREQUISITE: CHEM 2110, PHYS 2240. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3190 Thermodynamics: Cycle Analysis 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Focuses on cycles as related to classical thermodynamics. Topics covered include the cycles of Carnot, Otto and Diesel, Brayton, Rankine as well as modifications and variations to these. Investigations as to how efficiency is affected by reversible versus irreversible components is examined. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 2070. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3220 Electronics 3 hrs. (2, 2)
An introduction to semiconductor electronic devices and basic theory and application. Topics include semiconductor materials and diodes, diode circuits, field-effect transistors (FETs), bipolar-junction transistors (BJTs), and discrete transistor amplifiers. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 2030, CHEM 2110. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3230 Analog Circuit Design 3 hrs. (2, 2)
Continuation of Electronics to include amplifier design and analysis including discrete and integrated circuit topologies. Other topics include the design and analysis of differential amplifiers, multi-stage amplifiers, power amplifiers, op-amp circuits, feedback circuits, and the frequency response of amplifier circuits. Additional applications of electronics may be covered. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 3220, 3030. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2022-23.
- 3240 Electromagnetics I 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Engineering applications of vector calculus and Maxwell's equations to electrostatic and magnetostatic, boundary-value problems in electrostatic, and time varying fields, transmission lines, and single-stub matching. SAME AS: PHYS 4210. PREREQUISITE: MATH 3020, 3100, PHYS 2250. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3250 Electromagnetics II 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Engineering applications of phasors and Maxwell's equations to time varying fields and propagation of uniform plane waves. Exercises introduce field-plotting, transmission line concepts using waveguides. Introduction to the network analyzer, polarization, and waves. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 3240, ENGR 3030. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.

- 3260 Embedded Systems 3 hrs. (2, 3)
An introduction to the fundamentals of embedded systems, including microcontrollers, peripheral interfacing, basic communications, interrupts, and real-time operating systems. This course includes practical laboratory experiences using serial and parallel interfaces of microcontrollers to communicate with sensors and actuators. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 2420, ENGR 3270. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 3270 Digital Logic 3 hrs. (2, 3)
An introduction to the fundamental concepts of digital logic, logic gates, such as AND, OR, and NOT, using transistors. The logic level covers a design technique in which logic gates are used to design digital components. The system level covered for typical Intel or Motorola microprocessors, which are designed by interfacing memory and I/O chips. In order to synthesize digital logic circuits, description languages such as Verilog or VHDL will be utilized. The laboratories allow students to design and implement systems with discrete logic gates and FPGAs. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 2003 or ENGR 2200; and MATH 2010 or MATH 2200. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3280 Microcontrollers 3 hrs. (2, 2)
Students learn how to program microcontrollers to perform basic tasks, make use of timers, interrupts, and communicate between embedded devices using serial communication. Students are also introduced to memory allocation and handling, real-time operating systems (RTOS), and device drivers. PREREQUISITE: CPSC 2500 or CPSC 2320; and ENGR 2003 or ENGR 2200. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3510 Solid Mechanics 3 hr. (3, 0)
Covers deformation analysis for determining stresses and strains. Topics include elasticity, plasticity, bending, fracture, buckling, and thermal stresses. Analysis of diverse structures under various loading conditions will be considered. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 2010. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3850 Engineering Projects Laboratory 1 hr. (0, 2)
Provides students, from all levels, practical engineering experiences in the laboratory and field setting. Students will develop problem solving and engineering design skills as they work on engineering projects alongside the instructor. REPEAT: This course is repeatable for credit. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 2001, 2002, 2003; or consent of instructor. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 4020 Mechatronics System Design 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Mechatronics is the multidisciplinary union of mechanical, electrical, and computer engineering. It employs knowledge from these disciplines to explore mechanics, electrical sensing, control, and actuation, and computer programming of mechatronic devices. Students will design, build and program electro-mechanical devices to autonomously perform specific tasks. Students will also gain experience with Programmable Logic Controllers for industrial control applications. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 2030 or 2200 and CPSC 2320 or 2500. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2023-24.
- 4030 Advanced Control 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Covers linear state space control including full state feedback and observer based design. May also include an introduction to topics including robust control, optimal control, adaptive control, digital control or nonlinear control. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 3030. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 4050 Data Communications 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Low level communication protocols and design considerations such as congestion control, collision detection and avoidance, multiple access schemes (e.g., CDMA, FDMA, TDMA). Applied information theory such as forward error correction codes, erasure codes, channel capacity, and data compression. Connections are drawn between the OSI networking stack and topics covered in this course. PREREQUISITE: MATH 2200, 4010, and ENGR 3030 or CPSC 2500. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 4100 Thermal Fluids Lab 2 hrs. (0, 4)
Incorporates a hands-on experience of topics in the thermal-fluid sciences (fluid mechanics, thermodynamics, and heat/mass transfer). Specific topics covered will include flow visualization, flow measurement, internal and external friction flow, conduction, convection, convective mass transfer, and radiation. Will also include an introduction to simulation topics in computational fluid dynamics and finite element analysis. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 3190 and ENGR 4130. COREQUISITE: 4160. OFFERED: Sem. I.

4110 Machine Design 3 hrs. (3, 0)

Addresses the machine part design process from the nature of design to prediction of possible failure of machine parts based on force and stress analysis and estimated deflection, and materials properties. Other considerations can be included, such as the manufacturing aspect in the part design. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 3110, ENGR 3510. OFFERED: Sem. II.

4120 Computational Mechanics 3 hrs. (3, 0)

Utilizes the numerical capabilities of the modern computer to simulate physical phenomenon. Topics to be covered include the finite-element method, finite-difference schemes, and optimization techniques. Students will be introduced to round-off errors and error propagation, as well as convergence determination. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 2310, 3510, 4130, and CPSC 2320 or 2500. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.

4130 Fluid Mechanics 3 hrs. (3, 0)

Covers the principles of fluid flow, conservation of mass, conservation of momentum, and conservation of energy via integral, differential, and dimensional analysis methods. Students will apply these principles to laminar and turbulent flow in internal, external, and open channel flow configurations. A brief introduction to compressible flow is also included. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 2110, MATH 3100. OFFERED: Sem. II.

4160 Heat and Mass Transfer 4 hrs. (3, 2)

Covers heat transfer processes including conduction, convection, and thermal radiation. Students will apply principles of conservation to thermal energy systems to solve steady-state and transient problems both analytically and computationally. A brief introduction to commercial finite element software is included. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 2070, 4130. OFFERED: Sem. I.

4210 Solid State Devices 3 hrs. (3, 0)

Introduction to semiconductor physics and its application to semiconductor devices such as junction, Schottky diodes, BJT, and MOSFET. In semiconductor physics, topics include crystal structure, energy band gap, effective mass, density of states, Fermi-Dirac statistics, carrier distribution and doping, drift and diffusion, and continuity equation. In semiconductor devices, topics include the basics of MOS capacitor, application of MOS capacitor and MOSFET, and fundamentals of device fabrication. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 3220, PHYS 3130. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.

4230 Power Systems 2 hrs. (2, 0)

An introduction to the fundamentals of theory and operation of electromechanical devices, including magnetic circuits, transformers as well as DC and AC rotating machines. Principles of electrical power generation, transmission, and distribution, three-phase power circuits, and power system analysis are also discussed. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 3220, 3030. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2023-24.

4240 Communications Theory 3 hrs. (3, 0)

Fundamental components in communications systems are covered. Emphasis is placed on the effect of noise in a system and how to mitigate its effect on transmission and receiving. System design and integration is utilized to understand the practical nature of development of such systems. Aspects include the utilization of automatic gain control and phase lock loops. Modulation techniques such as amplitude modulation, frequency modulation, and quadrature modulation are covered. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 3030, MATH 4010. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2023-24.

4250 Digital Signal Processing 3 hrs. (3, 0)

Focuses on the sampling and reconstruction of continuous signals via digital systems. The z-transform is used for FIR and IIR filter design. Relation between the z-transform and Fourier transform is utilized for further signal analysis. The DFT and FFT are covered, as well as algorithmic implementations and utilization for filter design. Nyquist-Shannon sampling theorem, decimation, and interpolation are also covered. Signal processing filters and algorithms are implemented on CPUs, DSPs, and/or FPGAs. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 3030, MATH 4010. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2022-23.

- 4950 Engineering Senior Design I 2 hrs. (0, 4)
Applications of design principles to a capstone engineering project. Team-based projects include developing design specifications, conceptual designs, and final designs. Project requirements include significant oral and written communication components. Examples of projects include inter-collegiate competition, industry-sponsored applied research, and service projects. Applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. EXPECTATION: Senior standing; engineering major. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 2090. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4960 Engineering Senior Design II 2 hrs. (0, 4)
Building on ENGR 4950. Applications of design principles to a capstone engineering project. Projects are team based and include developing design specifications, conceptual designs, and final designs. Project requirements include significant oral and written communication components. Students are required to attempt the Fundamentals of Engineering exam. Applies to the liberal arts writing and speaking-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 4950. OFFERED: Sem. II.

PHYS COURSES

- 1000 Physical Science 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Introduction to selected topics in physical science including: the laws of motion, energy, electricity, atoms and molecules, wave properties (light and sound), and duality (wave-particle and matter-energy). These scientific principles are studied as they relate to real-world applications and current events. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 1020 Earth and Space Science 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Introduction to the study of geology, weather, and space science, with an emphasis on the phenomena that pertain to the earth's crust and atmosphere and the methods used to form our understanding of these dynamic systems. May be taken alone or as a supplement to PHYS 1000. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 1030 Teaching STEM in the Elementary Classroom 3 hrs. (0, 4)
Introduces concepts in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM). Equips students to create and execute their own hands-on experiences exploring these concepts. Taken almost exclusively by education majors in order to prepare them to address these important topics in their careers. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 1140 Musical Acoustics 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Survey of topics basic to the science of music. Designed to give music students a laboratory-science experience in a field relevant to their interests. Open to all students who can read music. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 1240 Introduction to Astronomy 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Introduction to understanding planets, stars, and galaxies of our universe with emphasis on what they are, how they live and die, and how they are studied. Students will also gain an appreciation for the night sky and the type of observations that can be made. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 2140 General Physics I (Algebra Based) 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Introduces major concepts of physics and their mathematical foundations, with a primary emphasis on Newtonian mechanics. EXPECTATION: Students enrolling should demonstrate sufficient knowledge of college algebra. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2150 General Physics II (Algebra Based) 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Continuation of General Physics I, with a primary emphasis on electricity, magnetism, optics, and modern physics. EXPECTATION: PHYS 2140 or equivalent should be completed, and students should demonstrate sufficient knowledge of college algebra. OFFERED: Sem. I.

PHYS (cont.)

- 2240 General Physics I (Calculus Based) 4 hrs. (3, 4)
Introduces major concepts of physics and their mathematical foundations, with a primary emphasis on momentum, energy, and rotational dynamics. Students taking this course typically have completed at least one year of high school physics. COREQUISITE: MATH 2010. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 2250 General Physics II (Calculus Based) 4 hrs. (3, 2)
Continuation of General Physics I, with a primary emphasis on electricity, magnetism, and optics. PREREQUISITE: PHYS 2240 and MATH 2020, both with a C- or better. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2700 Science Teaching Methods 3 hrs. (2, 1)
Involves the learning and application of the methods of teaching science. In addition to lecture and classroom discussion, students complete a practicum experience with a master teacher in a public or private school setting. Topics covered and jointly pursued by AU faculty and the master teacher include learning theories, classroom management, inquiry-based teaching, history of science, special/ gifted education, and an introduction to rubrics/grading/assessment. Emphasizes the key roles that a teacher's caring attitude and ability to engage students in a successful learning environment. EXPECTATION: BIOL/CHEM/PHYS 1120 should be completed. SAME AS: BIOL/CHEM 2700. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3100 Modern Physics Laboratory 2 hrs. (0, 6)
Advanced experiments in modern physics, mechanics, electricity, magnetism, heat, and optics with emphasis on scientific methods and laboratory technique. Applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: PHYS 2250. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 3130 Modern Physics 2 hrs. (2, 0)
A review of special relativity, as well as various properties of electromagnetic radiation, including concepts of superconductivity. Additionally, the quantum view of matter will be developed, focusing on atomic spectra, nuclear structure, elementary particles, and statistical distributions. Finally, an introduction to general relativity, cosmology, and string theory will be developed. PREREQUISITE: PHYS 2250 with a C- or better. OFFERED: Sem. I, 2023-24.
- 3800 Internship in Science Education 1-4 hrs. (0, 1-4)
An opportunity to broaden the diversity of a student's experience in educational settings. Internships are arranged in environments not typically experienced by the student. Tri-S and other international experiences may be appropriate as well as experiences in large inner-city schools or small, rural schools. EXPECTATION: BIOL/CHEM/PHYS 2700 should be completed or taken concurrently. SAME AS: BIOL/CHEM 3800.
- 4130 Quantum Theory 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Provides a background and introduction to quantum theory, as well as applications to various systems, such as the hydrogen atom. Additionally, students are exposed to problem-solving techniques, such as perturbation theory and the variational method, as well as their applications to a range of physical systems. PREREQUISITE: PHYS 3130, MATH 3020. SAME AS: CHEM 4120. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2023-24.
- 4210 Electricity and Magnetism 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Engineering applications of vector calculus and Maxwell's equations to electrostatic and magnetostatic, boundary-value problems in electrostatic, and time varying fields, transmission lines, propagation of uniform plane waves, and single-stub matching. EXPECTATION: PHYS 2250 and MATH 3020, 3100 are normally completed. SAME AS: ENGR 3240. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4220 Computational Physics 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Offers a background in classical physics and statistical physics, including topics in Lagrangian dynamics, the Hamiltonian formulation of motion, central forces, partition functions, and other statistical distributions. In addition to gaining a theoretical foundation in these areas, students will be exposed to various computational methods used to evaluate problems. PREREQUISITE: PHYS 3130, MATH 3020. OFFERED: Sem. I, 2022-23.

- 4340 Advanced Quantum and Electromagnetic Theory 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Begins as a continuation of PHYS 4120 and PHYS 4210, exploring various aspects of the quantum and electromagnetic theories, ultimately culminating in the theory of quantum electrodynamics and its applications, particularly those pertaining to particle and nuclear physics. PREREQUISITE: PHYS 4130 and PHYS 4210. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 4350 Cosmological Theory 3 hrs. (3, 0)
A study of topics in cosmology including general relativity, the expansion of the universe, nucleosynthesis in the early universe, inflation, cosmic microwave background radiation, dark matter, dark energy, and the formation of structure. PREREQUISITE: PHYS 4220. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 4410 Statistical Mechanics 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Builds on the topics covered in ENGR 2070, and provides a foundation for statistical mechanics, particularly as it applies to thermodynamic systems and the treatment of ideal gasses. Other topics range from treatment of the Boltzmann equation to an introduction to phase transitions and critical phenomena. PREREQUISITE: ENGR 2070 or CHEM 4110, and MATH 3010. RECOMMENDED: MATH 3100 and MATH 4010. OFFERED: Sem. II, 2022-23.
- 4510 Senior Physical Science Practicum I 1 hr. (1, 0)
Assessment of the student's development as a physics major. In addition, students will study and discuss finances, potential careers, résumé building and job seeking, graduate schools, laboratory safety, and the relationship of science and Christianity. Required of all physics and physical science majors. SAME AS: CHEM 4510. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4520 Senior Physical Science Practicum II 1 hr. (1, 0)
Assessment of the student's development as a physics major. Continuation of Senior Physical Science Practicum I. An introduction to scientific literature and grant writing. Required of all physics and physical science majors. EXPECTATION: Completion of PHYS 4510. SAME AS: CHEM 4520. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 4650 Independent Study 1-4 hrs. (arranged)
Individual research in advanced areas of interest. REPEAT: May be repeated. Total credit not to exceed 8 hours. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.
- 4910 Science Seminar I 1 hr. (1, 0)
Techniques and practice of written and oral technical communication with respect to experimental or library research projects. Required of all science majors. Both PHYS 4910 and 4920 must be completed to receive advanced writing competency (writing-intensive) credit. PREREQUISITE: Science major. SAME AS: BIOL/CHEM 4910. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4920 Science Seminar II 1 hr. (1, 0)
Techniques and practice of written and oral technical communication with respect to experimental or library research projects. Required of all science majors. Both PHYS 4910 and 4920 must be completed to receive advanced writing competency (writing-intensive) credit. EXPECTATION: PHYS 4910 should be completed. PREREQUISITE: Science major. SAME AS: BIOL/CHEM 4920. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 4930 Seminar 2-4 hrs. (arranged)
Topics selected from optics, quantum mechanics, thermodynamics, mechanics, astrophysics, nuclear physics, or other advanced topics. REPEAT: May be repeated. Total credit not to exceed 12 hours. OFFERED: With sufficient demand.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Prof. Carrie Clay, director

Anderson University offers both a professional development major leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree and a general studies Associate of Science degree. Students interested in pursuing the professional development major must have a plan of study approved by the program director before admission to the major is granted. Students majoring in professional development must complete all liberal arts core requirements. Additionally, students must complete a concentration of courses in one subject area. The subject area may be broadly defined as courses in common disciplines (i.e. science, modern language, business, etc.).

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT MAJOR

- 30 hours in concentration area (and 2.0 GPA in concentration area), to be approved by your academic advisor.
- LART 4500

Additional requirements for Bachelor of Arts degree:

- at least 30 hours from upper-division courses
- at least 60 hours must be completed at Anderson University
- 40-43 hours of liberal arts core requirements
- complete 120 hours (2.0 GPA)

ASSOCIATE OF SCIENCE: GENERAL STUDIES

This two-year Associate of Science degree provides foundational courses for the university's bachelor's degrees. The curriculum assumes proficiency in writing at the ENGL 1100 or 1110 level and in mathematics at the MATH 1000 level.

- 15-18 hours in a concentration area in any discipline to be approved by your academic advisor. Online students may take concentrations in Business, Business Administration and Leadership, History, or Sociology.
- At least 30 hours of the liberal arts core curriculum requirements from the following categories: ENGL 1100 or 1110, ENGL 1120, COMM 1000, Quantitative Reasoning, BIBL 2000, Personal Wellness, Scientific Ways of Knowing, Civic Ways of Knowing, Aesthetic Ways of Knowing, and Social and Behavioral Ways of Knowing
- At least 30 hours must be completed at Anderson University.
- Students must complete 60 hours and also meet other graduation requirements as listed in this catalog.

PSYCHOLOGY

Dr. Priest, chair; Dr. Blunt, Dr. Griffith, Dr. Stull; Dr. Farnen (emeritus)

Psychology is the scientific study of the brain, mind, and behavior. It is approached from physiological, cognitive, and social perspectives. Psychologists apply the scientific method (including statistics and experimental design) to the study of brain function, perception, memory, development, social influence, attitudes, organizational behavior, abnormal behavior, and the treatment of disorders. This requires the development of skills in critical thinking, quantitative reasoning, speaking, writing, and ethical decision-making.

Each course seeks to integrate psychological theories and data with biblically based principles. Psychology majors have pursued successful careers in research, counseling, teaching, medicine, business, and law. The department's web page can be found at anderson.edu/psychology.

MAJORS

PSYCHOLOGY MAJOR (30 hrs.)

Requirements:

- 3 hours of PSYC 2000
- 3 hours of PSYC 2010
- 1 hour of PSYC 4900

15 additional hours from 3000- and 4000-level PSYC courses, including:

- At least 12 hours from PSYC 3010, 3030, 3040, 3060, 3100, 3120, 3200, 3210, 3240, 3330, 3400, 3450, 4030, 4100, 4110, 4140, 4150, 4510/4520, 4650
- At least 3 hours from any 3000- and 4000-level PSYC courses
- PSYC 4900 does NOT count toward these 15 hours.

Remaining hours from any additional PSYC courses.

COMPLEMENTARY MAJORS

PSYCHOLOGY COMPLEMENTARY MAJOR (26 hrs.)

The complementary major does not stand alone to fulfill graduation requirements, but it is a useful complement to students who are seeking a better understanding of themselves and others. The structure of the complementary major is flexible but has these requirements:

- Required courses: PSYC 2000, 2010, 4900
- At least 12 hours from PSYC 3010, 3030, 3040, 3060, 3100, 3120, 3200, 3210, 3240, 3330, 3400, 3450, 4030, 4100, 4110, 4140, 4150, 4510/4520, 4650
- Remaining hours from additional PSYC courses

YOUTH LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT COMPLEMENTARY MAJOR (28 hrs.)

Youth Leadership Development does not stand alone to fulfill graduation requirements, but it is a valuable complement to such majors as youth ministries, social work, criminal justice, family science, psychology, and other majors involving interaction with youth. This major is also an excellent complement for students who enjoy working with youth but whose careers will be in fields that may not involve interaction with youth.

- PSYC 2000, 2100, 2510, 4210
- SOCI 3210, 3100, and one from: SOCI 3050, 3140, or 3150
- EDUC/PSYC/SOCI 2850, 4800

MINOR

PSYCHOLOGY MINOR (16 hrs.)

- Required course: PSYC 2000
- At least 6 hours from 3000- and 4000-level PSYC courses

DEPARTMENTAL HONORS

Departmental honors are awarded only to those students who meet the requirements below and are recommended by the department faculty. The number of students receiving departmental honors is limited by Anderson University policies and Psychology Department recommendations. Psychology students seeking honors must submit an application in order to be considered.

Minimum requirements for applying include the following: (1) completion of 36 hours of psychology courses, including at least one upper-division course from each full-time faculty member; (2) cumulative GPA of at least 3.0; and (3) GPA of at least 3.5 in the psychology major. From this pool of applicants, the department faculty will award honors as student performance merits.

In this course (to be taken during the first semester of the senior year), students will discuss professional issues such as ethics in the practice of psychology and a Christian response to these ethical principles. In addition, students will discuss strategies for applying to graduate schools and job seeking. Formal assessment of the major will be completed in this course. Required of all psychology majors. PREREQUISITE: Senior status. OFFERED: Sem. I.

PUBLIC HEALTH

Dr. Quashie, coordinator; Prof. Pay, Dr. Priest, Dr. D.M. Scott

The Anderson University Public Health program addresses the health of populations and communities through instruction, service-learning, and community based research, and is grounded in a background of humanities, social sciences, and the liberal arts. The public health program is designed to provide students with the opportunity to explore and acquire specialized knowledge and skills needed to address current and emerging public health issues within the public and private healthcare sectors. Students can expect to find employment in for-profit institutions, not-for-profit institutions, health care organizations, and government agencies.

This interdisciplinary program will offer two pathways. The first will be a Bachelor of Arts in Public Health (BAPH) with a concentration in the Sociological and Behavioral Context of Health. This track will appeal to those students who are seeking to focus on the socio-behavioral, socio-economic, and health systems contexts that impact public health. Graduates can expect to be employed in areas such as behavioral health, psychology, missions, health promotion and education, health policy and administration, and social marketing.

The second pathway will be in the natural sciences, offering a Bachelor of Science in Public Health degree (BSPH). This track is for students wanting to engage in public health practice through research, epidemiology, or environmental services. Graduates from this track will be prepared for jobs such as data analysts, biostatisticians, environmental/sanitation specialists, epidemiologists, missions, health promotion and education, medicine, and research. Students interested in the BSPH track will receive a board-based natural science curriculum.

For entry and continuance in the public health program, all students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or better. To advance, a minimum grade of C or better must be earned in each public health course, as well as the courses upon which they build in each concentration (BA: SOCI 2020, SOWK 2000; BS: BIOL 2410, 2420, 2230).

PUBH COURSES

- 2040 Personal & Community Health 3 hrs. (3, 0)
The relationship between one's physical, psychological, and spiritual health, plus one's culture and environment are central to understanding the entire field of personal and community health. This class will utilize the Ecological Model to examine personal health within the context of the social and physical environment. Health problems of different populations will be studied in relation to historical/structural dimensions, normal development, disease processes, and access to health systems. Core public health competencies will be addressed, with emphasis on the underlying scientific and social bases for public health practice. SAME AS: BIOL 2040. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3010 Social Psychology 4 hrs. (4, 0)
An examination of the behavior of individuals in society, including the study of attitudes, beliefs, prejudice, aggression, leadership, and altruism. Applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: PSYC 2000. SAME AS: PSYC/SOCI 3010. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3020 Introduction to Epidemiology 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Focuses on how diseases are spread within populations of people and within communities. Also reviewed are the factors associated with the prevention, detection, distribution, and elimination of diseases. Provides a foundation for understanding the basic principles and methods of epidemiology, with an emphasis on critical thinking, analytical skills, and application to clinical practice. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3260 Sociology of Health and Illness 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Introduces students to sociological perspectives vis-a-vis health, illness and the practice of medicine. Examines health, illness, and health care institutions as social phenomena, the social causes and consequences of health, illness, and health care. Emphasis on an understanding of the social forces that produce disease and health inequalities, the processes that shape what gets recognized as disease, and the preferred means of treating it. SAME AS: SOCI 3260. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 3510 Bioethics 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Seminar course examines ethical questions that arise in the relationships among life sciences, biotechnology, medicine, politics, law, philosophy, and theology. Topics and case studies are selected and discussed in terms of the ethical issues they present. These issues include beginning of life, death and dying, human and animal testing, and environmental stewardship. Applies to the Civil Discourse and Critical Reasoning component of the Liberal Arts. PREREQUISITE: Junior standing. SAME AS: BIOL 3510. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 3700 Introduction to Social Research 4 hrs. (4, 0)
Introduction to methods and application of social research, including issues of conceptualization of variables, research design, scientific sampling, quantitative and qualitative forms of analysis, evaluation research, and utilization of social research in policy, program, and practice settings. Applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: SOCI 2010 or 2020 or 2100; upper-division standing. SAME AS: SOCI 3700. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 4350 Program Planning and Grant Writing 3 hrs. (3, 0)
The rationale for this course is based on the need in the nonprofit sector and social service agencies for highly competent professionals who possess the requisite skills needed to: (1) assess community needs, especially those impacting children and families; (2) think strategically and creatively about relevant program interventions; and (3) acquire competitive funding from government agencies and private and public foundations. The course integrates several knowledge and skill areas including research methods, program planning, proposal writing, budget planning, project implementation, and program evaluation to assess the effectiveness of interventions. PREREQUISITE: Upper-division standing. SAME AS: SOCI/SOWK 4350. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4360 Health Policy 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Health policies can have a profound effect on quality of life. As such, health policies are linked to accessibility, cost, quality of health care, safety of food, water and environment, and the right to make decisions about health. This course will provide a framework for understanding and analyzing a variety of health policy issues, and will introduce U.S. policy-making in the legal system and will consider essential issues in health policy and law, including health insurance, individual rights in health care, and health care access and quality. The purpose is to introduce students to the policy environment that influences and shapes public health and the provision of health care service, to enhance understanding of the historical and political context of health policy, and to develop strategies for analysis of health policy issues, as well as effective communication in the policy environment. OFFERED: Sem. II.

4810 Community Health Internship3 hrs. (3, 0)

A supervised field experience providing an opportunity for each student to apply his or her knowledge in a practice setting. The internship will focus on strengthening competence in general community health and specialty skills through practical experiences. A wide range of settings and opportunities may be suitable for an internship, given the program goals and students' interests and career goals. Placement selection may focus on special topics, such as women and children's health, infectious disease (HIV/AIDS, Malaria), refugee issues, world food issues, urban food systems, health and nutrition promotion in schools and communities, community food systems, hunger and food security in local and global perspective, food, nutrition, human rights, sustainable communities, and global health policies and initiatives. Internship locations might include NGO, International Agencies (United Nations High Commission for Refugees), World Relief, World Vision, Compassion International, SIFAT, World Hunger Relief Inc., Food Research and Action Center, and local non-profit or governmental agencies. CONSENT: Instructor. SAME AS: SOCI 4810. OFFERED: Summer only.

4950 Intercultural Capstone4 hrs. (2, 6-90 clinical hrs.)

Emphasizes the value of human diversity in order to provide safe, high-quality care. Discussion of the health care provider's practice in a multicultural environment providing culturally appropriate care across settings is included in study. Students are expected to immerse themselves in a culture other than their own through an intercultural experience. EXPECTATION: Students should plan for additional costs for transportation and other expenses, which may vary from $500 to $3,500. CONSENT: Instructor. PREREQUISITE: PUBH 4350. COREQUISITE: PUBH 4360. SAME AS: NURS 4950. OFFERED: Sem. II

SECURITY STUDIES

Dr. Frank, director; Prof. Niezgodski, Dr. Sutton

The Security Studies Program consists of two majors: national security and cybersecurity. Each major includes foundational courses, national security policy courses, Christian ethics, and relevant electives.

The program is designed to prepare graduates for careers in security-related positions in either the public or private sectors, by providing a more precisely focused, interdisciplinary curriculum than ordinarily obtained in traditional political science or computer science majors.

The cybersecurity major is aligned to meet the standards required for accreditation by the Department of Homeland Security and National Security Agency as a National Center of Academic Excellence in Cyber Defense Education (CAE-CD).

Students in both majors are expected to successfully complete the foundational courses before attempting upper-division coursework. Students are strongly encouraged to discuss second majors, minors, and internship opportunities with a program advisor.

NATIONAL SECURITY MAJOR (44 hrs.)

Grade of C- or higher in all courses that count toward the major*

Foundation (16 hrs.):

- POSC 2030, 2100, 2200, 2400

SOCIAL WORK, CRIMINAL JUSTICE, AND FAMILY SCIENCE

Dr. D. M. Scott, chair; Dr. Bargerstock, Prof. Pay, Dr. Quashie

Three majors are offered in the department: criminal justice, family science, and social work. Additionally, four minors are offered: criminal justice, family science, social work, and sociology. Students seeking more than one major in the Department of Social Work, Criminal Justice, and Family Science may present no more than 15 hours common to those majors. Students seeking a minor and a major in the department must choose a different area of study for the minor and present a minimum of 12 hours not applied to the major.

Honors study is offered for students with strong academic records in any of the three departmental majors. For information, contact the department chair.

Students in any of the departmental majors may attend the Chicago Center for a semester or summer term. The center's seminar on communities and cultures may be taken for credit in lieu of SOCI 2020 or 2450. Internship and practicum hours may also be earned. Students should consult with the campus liaison for more information.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

The criminal justice major enables students to enter employment in fields related to law enforcement, courts, corrections, victim advocacy and assistance, and also provides a foundation for graduate study. Students gain preparation for careers throughout criminal justice in the private occupational sector as well as with public agencies at the local, state, or federal level.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE MAJOR (BA 120 hrs.; CRIM 34 hrs.)

- CRIM 2510, 2520, 3110
- 4 hours from CRIM 4810 and 3 hours from CRIM 4900
- SOCI 2020 or SOCI 2010
- SOCI 3700
- 9 hours from additional CRIM courses
- Students who wish to take additional coursework providing more breadth and depth in the field should consult with their advisor concerning the appropriate courses.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE MINOR (17 hrs.)

- CRIM 2510, 2520, 3110, 4900
- 3 hours from additional CRIM courses

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS DEGREE (60 hrs. CRIM and Liberal Arts)

This two-year Associate of Arts provides foundational courses in criminal justice and approximately one-half of the hours required for the four-year Bachelor of Arts degree program. The curriculum assumes proficiency in writing at the ENGL 1100 or 1110 level and in mathematics at the MATH 1000 level.

- BIBL 2000; SOCI 2010 or SOCI 2020; SOCI 2450
- CRIM 2510, 2520, 3110
- 9 hours from additional CRIM courses
- 12-14 hours from the liberal arts program (see Liberal Arts Core Curriculum), no more than one course from any one component and no more than 4 hours from courses offered by the department
- Remaining hours from additional courses in any caption; no more than 31 hours from CRIM courses
- Students must also meet other graduation requirements as listed in this catalog.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE ONLINE

The criminal justice online degree programs are designed for Adult students pursuing careers in criminal justice, as well as for individuals already employed in the criminal justice field.

FAMILY SCIENCE

The Family Science program is designed to prepare students for professional careers in a variety of human service areas, including family services and youth programs; family life or parent education programs; business and government agencies; and leadership roles in church, school, and community. Graduates are also prepared for personal roles in marriage and family living.

The program offers students a strong foundation for graduate work leading to careers in ministry, marriage and family therapy, counseling, and teaching of family science at the college level.

Key content areas include human development, sexuality, interpersonal relationships, internal dynamics of families, parent-child relationships, and family processes such as communication, moral development, decision-making, family resource management, and problem-solving. Anderson University's Family Science program is certified by the National Council on Family Relations. Graduates of the program are eligible to apply for Provisional Certified Family Life Educator (CFLE) certification.

FAMILY SCIENCE MAJOR (48 hrs.)

- SOCI 2100, 3100, 3140, 3210, 3700, 3850, 4350, 4820, 4910, 4950
- BSNS 3150

- SOWK 3200

FAMILY SCIENCE MINOR (15 hrs.)

- SOCI 2100, 3100, 3140, 3210 (required)
- One course from the recommended list: BSNS 3150, PSYC 2000, 2510, SOCI 2200, 2450, SOWK 3200

SOCIOLOGY

The Sociology minor provides a solid liberal arts preparation for entry-level positions throughout the fields of social service, education, government, and business, as well as for graduate study, and complements many majors. Sociology students who enter human services fields often work with youth at risk, the elderly, or people experiencing problems related to poverty, substance abuse, the justice system, or other social problems. Those who enter careers in business may work in human resources, customer relations, sales, or marketing.

SOCIOLOGY MINOR (15 hrs.)

- Required course: SOCI 2010
- At least 6 hours from courses at the 3000- and 4000- level SOCI courses
- Remaining hours from any SOCI-captioned course

SOCIAL WORK

The social work major is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) and prepares students to become generalist social work practitioners in entry-level human service positions or to enter graduate study in social work. Graduates are eligible to apply for credentialing as beginning-level social work practitioners in most states.

MISSION

The mission of the Anderson University Social Work Program is to prepare competent, compassionate, and effective entry-level social workers who;

- Demonstrate knowledge, skills, and values needed for professional generalist practice.
- Are committed to do good, seek justice, rebuke and rectify the hearts of oppressors, defend orphans and widows, and help those in need (based on Isaiah 1:17).
- Will be servant leaders in their world and empower disenfranchised and diverse populations.

ADMISSION TO THE SOCIAL WORK PROGRAM

The Anderson University Social Work Program is a carefully constructed baccalaureate degree curriculum accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE).

Students may apply for admission to the program when they have:

- completed SOCI 2010, 2020; SOWK 2000, 2100
- earned a minimum 2.0 cumulative grade point average
- earned a minimum 2.5 grade point average in the major with a grade of C- or better in all courses applicable to the major
- earned a grade of C- or better in ENGL 1120 or its equivalent

The process for applying to the Social Work Program is to:

- submit a completed application form (available in the departmental office)
- submit two letters of recommendation
- complete an interview with the Social Work Program faculty

The social work faculty makes the final decision on admission of a student to the Social Work Program. For more information, see the Anderson University Social Work Program Student Handbook at anderson.edu/social-work.

SOCIAL WORK MAJOR (64 hrs.)

The social work major at Anderson University may be declared in the University Registrar's office at any time after matriculation. However, continuation in the major is determined by admission to the Social Work Program.

Prerequisite courses required for admission to the Social Work Program:

- SOCI 2010, 2020; SOWK 2000, 2100

Foundation courses required for the Social Work Program:

- BIOL 2040; POSC 2100; PSYC 2000, 2440; SOCI 3100, 3400

Core courses required for the Social Work Program:

- SOWK 2200, 3100, 4710, 4720, 4730, 4850; SOCI 3700

Admission to the Social Work Program is a prerequisite for SOWK 4710, 4720, 4730, and 4850. To advance in the program after admission, students must earn a grade of C- or better in all courses applied to the major.

Internship experiences in social agencies are built into SOWK 2100 (36 hours), SOWK 2200 (20 hours), and SOWK 4710 (20 hours). The practicum (SOWK 4850) consists of a full-time block field placement over the entire semester (442 hours).

SOCIAL WORK MINOR (17 hrs.)

- SOCI 2020, SOWK 2000, SOWK 2200*, SOWK 3100
- BIOL 2040

The social work minor is a valuable addition to many majors including, but not limited to, criminal justice, family science, psychology, nursing, education, Christian ministries, dance, and business administration. The minor is intended to accomplish the following:

- prepare students from a range of disciplines to work collaboratively with social workers;
- provide introductory knowledge and skills for work with at-risk populations;
- equip students in advocating for the needs of individuals, families, organizations, and communities within the larger society; and
- prepare students for entry into social work graduate programs after having completed a bachelor's degree in another field.

A 20-hour internship is included to familiarize one with the role of social work in social service settings. The social work minor is not accredited and does not require admission to the social work program.

SOWK 2200 typically requires SOWK 2100 be taken as a prerequisite or corequisite.
This requirement, however, is waived for the social work minor.*

TEACHER EDUCATION

Dr. Sample, director; Dr. R. Baker, Dr. Epperly, Dr. Kinsey, Prof. Tatom, Dr. Trotter

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Department of Teacher Education is to prepare professional educators of excellence in a Christ-centered environment cultivating excellence in the following areas:

- Content competence
- Cultural connections
- Christian character

In line with the university's mission, the Department of Teacher Education seeks to prepare professional educators as teachers of excellence who integrate Christian faith and learning for service in a global society. The teacher education program is anchored in Anderson University's commitment to the liberal arts curriculum, which includes the arts, humanities, mathematics, and social and natural sciences. The liberal arts are essential for developing competent educators.

Education programs at the undergraduate level are based on both established and current research and sound professional practice. The philosophy, objectives, and outcomes for the teacher education program include contributions from the following:

- InTASC Standards
- Indiana Content and Developmental Standards for Educators
- Philosophies and practices of the Department of Teacher Education and faculty in other content areas for licensure
- Collaborative P-12 educators

The Department of Teacher Education offers undergraduate professional education in courses leading to licensure for the elementary, middle, and high school levels. Efforts to renew and improve teacher education by the Indiana Office of Educator Licensing and Development and the national accreditation body, the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP), also govern the teacher education program. The Department of Teacher Education received ongoing accreditation by CAEP in 2016, with no areas of improvement cited. Due to these outside influences, regulations and standards governing teacher preparation programs change periodically. The programs of candidates admitted into the teacher education program at Anderson University are subject to those changes. Teacher education candidates are advised to meet regularly with their advisors to assure compliance with new requirements.

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR ADMISSION/RETENTION IN THE TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAM

All who wish to major in education and seek licensure must be formally admitted to the teacher preparation program after completing the prerequisite requirements. These requirements must be met prior to enrolling in upper-division education or subject specific methods courses and in the professional semester which includes student teaching. Transfer students considering a major in education should meet with the Director of the Department of Teacher Education to assess eligibility. Admission to the university neither implies nor guarantees acceptance into the teacher education program.

Teacher Licensure

Anderson University is regionally accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC). Further, the teacher education program meets the national requirements of educator preparation programs through the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) and the required licensing standards of the Indiana Office of Educator Licensing and Development, as noted above. To be admitted to the teacher education program, candidates must earn at least a 2.75 GPA (overall and in the major content area). Overall and major GPA expectation increases to 3.0 to be admitted to the professional semester which includes student teaching. In addition, all required tests must be passed by the third Friday in November for spring student teachers and the third Friday in June for fall student teachers. Upon graduation, candidates will be recommended through the Department of Teacher Education for Indiana teacher licensure.

Alternative Licensure Program: Transition to Teaching

This program is designed for candidates who hold a bachelor's or master's degree in a non-education major. The degree must be from an accredited institution of higher education. The candidate must desire to become a teacher at the elementary, middle, or high school level. For Transition to Teaching candidates, all Indiana content licensure exams must be passed by the third Friday in November to student teach in the spring semester. Candidates who do not pass can petition to complete testing and, if approved, can student teach the following fall semester.

Performance Assessment

To gauge continued development of knowledge, skills, and dispositions within the teacher education program, a system of periodic performance assessments is used. Candidates admitted to the teacher preparation program are expected to demonstrate continual growth in content, pedagogy, and professional dispositions across three program checkpoints. Candidates who fail to make appropriate progress toward program outcomes (academic and/or dispositional) may be counseled out of the teacher education program and encouraged to explore other career options.

Note: All fees for tests, background checks, and courses are the responsibility of the candidate.

Pre-Admission

- Overall GPA of 2.5 is required for admission to EDUC 2030, 2170, 2200, 2460, and 2860
- Completion of EDUC 2000, 2100, and 2110 with grades of C or better
- Completion of SPED 2400 with a grade of C or better
- Declaration of education teaching major

Program Admission

Elementary education majors must apply and be admitted to the teacher preparation program before enrolling in any 3000-level education course. Secondary/P-12 education majors must apply and be admitted to the program before enrolling in EDUC 3000, or any other 3000-level education course.

- Overall and major GPA of 2.75
- The following courses completed with a grade less than C must be repeated: any EDUC course; any SPED course; ENGL 1100, 1110, 1120.
- Elementary education majors must also earn a C or higher in MATH 1100 and MATH 1110, but completion of these courses is not required prior to admission to the program.
- Satisfactory completion of a teacher preparation program (TPP) portfolio presentation.
- Passing scores on the individual Praxis Core Academic Skills for Educators tests in reading (156), writing (162), and math (150), or a composite score of 460 for all three tests. Candidates with an overall GPA of at least 3.75, who take but do not pass Praxis Core through individual scores or a composite, may still apply for admission.

- Candidates must have completed or be enrolled in EDUC 2460.
- Candidates must have completed or be enrolled in EDUC 2170, EDUC 2860, or MUED 3110.
- Candidates must maintain a 2.75 GPA (overall and in the major content area) to continue in the teacher education program. If either GPA falls below 2.75, the candidate will be permitted to continue in EDUC and SPED course-work for one semester while placed on probation. Probation is limited to one instance of a single semester. Appeals for retention beyond this probationary period must be made in writing to the Dean of the School of Humanities, Education and Behavioral Science and the Director of the Department of Teacher Education.

All fees for tests, background checks, and courses are the responsibility of the candidate.

Admission to Student Teaching

Student teaching is the cumulative experience for all education majors. It includes full-time teaching in classrooms of the candidate's licensure area(s). Admission criteria for student teaching include:

- Overall and major GPA of 3.0
- C or better in EDUC and SPED courses
- Satisfactory performance on all knowledge, performance, and disposition assessment criteria and any other assessment required by the State of Indiana for licensure.
- Satisfactory completion of a student teaching portfolio presentation.
- Successful completion of Indiana content and pedagogy licensure tests by the third Friday of November for spring student teaching and the third Friday of June for fall student teaching. Complete a cleared criminal history check. Submit proof of completion of a suicide prevention training program approved by the Indiana Department of Education. Submit a CPR certificate that meets the requirements of the Indiana Department of Education.

Educator Disposition Assessment

The DTE expects all teacher candidates in the professional education program to engage in practices and behaviors that are characteristic of developing career teachers. We believe candidates must demonstrate the values, attitudes, and commitments of the developing professional educator. The DTE has adopted the Educator Disposition Assessment instrument to both raise concerns and identify exemplary dispositional behavior of candidates as they progress through the teacher preparation program. Through the use of this curriculum, the DTE informs teacher candidates of the teacher education program's dispositional expectations, assesses baseline dispositional data and documents when changes have occurred in dispositions and under what set of circumstances. Candidates are expected to demonstrate proficiency of the dispositions identified on the EDA in coursework and in the field. When dispositional concerns are identified, candidates are provided additional supports to encourage their professional growth and programmatic success.

EDUCATION FIELD EXPERIENCES

Teacher education candidates spend extended time working with students, classroom teachers, and university faculty in field experiences early in their major course work and throughout their program. These experiences provide practical application to the theories presented in concurrent education classes. Field experiences are supervised by university personnel. Teacher education candidates are required by AU to obtain a full cleared criminal history check each year before entering the classroom for field experience. Some schools may require their own background check in addition to the one AU requires. This documentation and accompanying fees are the responsibility of the candidate.

Student Teaching

Teacher education candidates have two options for the student teaching experience: year-long student teaching experience (approximately 30 weeks) or traditional one semester (approximately 16 weeks). Note: We cannot guarantee the exact number due to the balanced calendar of some districts. The student teaching experience provides candidates with opportunities to plan and implement instruction, manage the classroom, evaluate student progress, communicate with other professionals and parents, and develop as professional educators under the supervision and mentoring of university and P-12 school personnel. Candidates are strongly discouraged from employment on or off campus during their student teaching semester. Candidates must meet all requirements listed above under Level III: Professional Semester with Student Teaching. Students are responsible for all fees associated with testing and coursework.

EDUCATION TEACHING MAJORS

Elementary Education — Grades K-6

An elementary education major prepares candidates to teach kindergarten through grade 6. All elementary majors must have a concentration/minor along with their elementary major. The minor does not have to lead to licensing, but the department strongly suggests choosing a minor or concentration that will enhance their major, such as the special education minor (mild intervention).

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION MAJOR (83 hrs.)

- EDUC 2000, 2030, 2100, 2110, 2170, 2200, 2460, 2520, 2730, 3120, 3300, 4120, 4310, 4320, 4850, 4910
- SPED 2400, 3120, 3200
- MUED 2110
- EDUC 4010 Student Teaching (10 hrs.; may be repeated up to a maximum of 20 hrs.)
- EDUC 4930 Leadership Seminar in Character Education
- 12 hours in supportive disciplines: HIST 2000, MATH 1110, PETE 3710, PHYS 1030
- 14 hours in partial fulfillment of the Liberal Arts Program (See Liberal Arts Program in this catalog):
BIOL 1000, ENGL 3590, HIST 2110, MATH 1100

READING CONCENTRATION

Embedded in the elementary education major is a reading concentration. All elementary education candidates will earn this concentration and Reading K-6 will be printed on their license in addition to Elementary Education K-6. This does not provide an additional licensing area, but does signify that a candidate has received extra coursework and field experiences in designing effective reading instruction. This may serve as the required concentration/minor for licensing.

Secondary Teaching Program Requirements

In addition to the Department of Teacher Education requirements below, candidates must complete requirements for their specific secondary teaching programs.

TEACHER PREPARATION PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS (43 hrs.)

- EDUC 2000, 2100, 2110, 2460, 2520, 2860, 3000, 3100, 3120, 4710
- SPED 2400
- EDUC 4010 Student Teaching (10 credit hours) and EDUC 4930
- Special Methods 4700 required prior to the professional semester and is counted in content area hours.

Requirements for the secondary teaching programs listed above may be found in the catalog sections of their respective departments.

- Language arts teaching major (English)
- Mathematics teaching major (Mathematics)
- Social studies teaching major (History and Political Science)

ALL GRADES: P-12

- Music education major: Grades P-12 (Music). See Music Education
- Spanish education major: Grades P-12 (Spanish). See Spanish Education

Education (Non-License) Major or Minor

Students who seek non-teaching careers related to the education of children or youth (such as child life, camps, religious education) may choose to pursue a non-license major or minor in education, which does not satisfy teacher education licensing requirements for the State of Indiana.

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN EDUCATION MAJOR (NON-LICENSE)

- 30 hours (subject to change) from approved School of Education courses
- Required Courses: EDUC 2000, 2030, 2100, 2110, 2170, 2200, 2460; PETE 3710; SPED 2400
- EDUC 4810 (3-hour internship)

EDUCATION MINOR

- 16 hours from approved Department of Teacher Education courses that include the following:
 - EDUC 2000, 2100, 2110, 2460, 4810
 - SPED 2400

Special Education Minor (P-12)

Elementary and secondary/P-12 candidates can add Exceptional Needs: Mild Intervention to their teaching license by completing the special education minor, passing the required licensing exam, and student teaching in a special education setting. The mild intervention program is guided by CEC Preparation Standards, the CEC Individualized General Curriculum Specialty Skill Set, and InTASC Standards. The program consists of 15 hours of exceptional needs coursework and practicums that increase in duration and intensity.

SPECIAL EDUCATION MINOR (15 hrs.)

- SPED 2400, 2500, 2550, 3120, 3200
- Licensure requires additional testing and student teaching in a special education setting

Students who seek non-teaching careers related to the education of children or youth (such as behavioral specialists, social workers, child and adolescent therapists) may choose to pursue a non-license minor in special education, which does not satisfy teacher education licensing requirements for the State of Indiana.

Reading Specialist with Training in Dyslexia

Anderson University is approved by the Indiana Department of Education to prepare “reading specialists with training in dyslexia.” Senate Enrolled Act (SEA) 217 requires that each school district in Indiana employ or consult through contract with “a reading specialist with training in dyslexia.” This position serves as a resource to principals, teachers, families, and students in the area of dyslexia, and helps the district with screening and intervention processes for students with this reading disability.

DYSLEXIA PROGRAM (15 hrs.)

- EDUC 2200, 2730, 3300, 4850, 4910
- SPED 3120

All 15 credits are embedded in the elementary education major; however, candidates must pass an in-house competency requirement to complete the program and earn this designation.

- 4850 Reading Clinic 4 hrs. (arranged)
An intensive, clinical practicum designed to strengthen the candidate's skills in providing intervention services to students with significant reading difficulties/disabilities including dyslexia. Candidates will work with one to three students who are reading significantly below grade level. Instructional time is followed by reflection and discussion in small groups focusing on student profiles of reading development/disability, instructional strategies, as well as responsiveness to intervention and necessary modifications. Candidates will also write educational reports and/or hold conferences with parents addressing the participant's current level of performance and recommended instructional supports. Field experience required. Grade of C or better required. PREREQUISITE: EDUC 2200, 2730, 3300. EXPECTATION: Admission to the teacher education program required. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 4910 Reading Research Seminar 1 hr. (1, 0)
This course focuses on professional development strategies for keeping informed of new developments in the field of literacy. Candidates will use professional resources and digital tools to learn about current research, translate research into practice, and share this knowledge with colleagues. Grade of C or better required. PREREQUISITE: EDUC 4850. EXPECTATION: Admission to the teacher education program required. OFFERED: Sem. II.
- 4930 Leadership Seminar in Character Education 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Required of all teacher candidates during their clinical practice experience. The seminar is designed as a study in leadership and the dynamics of character for teachers as classroom and school leaders. Critical issues for educators will be examined, such as the learning environment, professionalism, school relations, and the dispositions of classroom leadership. Presented in a seminar format with the candidates engaging in assigned readings, reflection, discussion, candidate-led presentations, research, and specific facets of performance. The class meets once each week during the late afternoon as a corequisite with the student teaching experience. Grade of C or better is required. CONSENT: Department. COREQUISITE: EDUC 4010. Must be admitted to Student Teaching. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.

SPED (Special Education) COURSES

- 2400 Introduction to Mild Disabilities 3 hrs. (3, 1)
Provides an overview of definitions, characteristics, and educational needs of students with mild disabilities. Includes cultural, language, behavioral, social, and academic factors that interfere with academic achievement for these students. Also examines current models of educating students with mild disabilities, including response to intervention and the changing roles of educators within those models. Required of all elementary, secondary, and music education majors, including pre-service educators licensing in special education and students majoring in other fields, but who are earning a special education minor. Grade of C or better required. OFFERED: Sem. I, II.
- 2500 Technology for the Diverse Learner 3 hrs. (3, 0)
Assists pre-service educators to develop the skills needed to successfully integrate technology throughout their professional practice. The ability to customize learning activities for all students, including those with exceptionalities, is the hallmark of differentiated instruction. Effective assistive technology use allows the special education teacher not only to better discern what a student needs to learn but also provides a means by which to deliver individually designed instruction. Grade of C or better required. Required of all pre-service educators licensing in special education, as well as those who are earning a special education minor. PREREQUISITE: SPED 2400. OFFERED: Sem. I.
- 2550 Characteristics of Emotional and Behavioral Disorders of Children and Youth 3 hrs. (3, arranged)
Explores the characteristics of children and youth with emotional and behavioral disorders. In addition, the criteria and process of identifying students who may warrant special education services for emotional and behavioral disorders (EBD) are rigorously considered. Familiarizes candidates with current theories for understanding EBD as well as perspectives on best practices for providing an optimal learning context for students identified with EBD. Students engage in a 60-hour field experience. Required of all pre-service educators licensing in special education, as well as those who are earning a special education minor. Grade of C or better required. PREREQUISITE: SPED 2400; Overall 2.5 GPA. OFFERED: Sem. II
- 3120 Special Education Assessment for the Classroom Teacher 3 hrs. (3, arranged)
Explores educational assessment practices for students with mild disabilities. Familiarizes candidates with the administration and interpretation of formal and informal educational assessment instruments used for instructional decision-making and provision of services to students with special educational needs. Required of all elementary education majors, as well as candidates earning a special education minor. Field experience required. Grade of C or better required. Applies to the liberal arts writing-intensive requirement. PREREQUISITE: SPED 2400. EXPECTATION: For education majors, admission to the teacher preparation program is required. OFFERED: Sem. I
- 3200 Classroom Instruction for Mild Disabilities 3 hrs. (3, arranged)
Examines techniques for making and implementing data-driven decisions for educating students with mild disabilities. Development of instructionally sound individualized education programs (IEPs) and implementation in the least restrictive environment for students will be emphasized. Candidates will learn to develop appropriate instruction and accommodations to provide access to the general curriculum for students with disabilities. Required of all elementary education majors, as well as candidates earning a special education minor. Field experience required. Grade of C or better required. PREREQUISITE: SPED 2400, 3120. EXPECTATION: For education majors, admission to the teacher preparation program is required. OFFERED: Sem. II.

TRANSITION TO TEACHING PROGRAM

(Post-Baccalaureate Licensure)

The Transition to Teaching Program (T2T), approved by the state of Indiana (IC 20-28-4: 511 IAC 13-1-1), is designed for those individuals with a baccalaureate degree and a desire to become a teacher. This program is specifically designed to recruit, prepare, and license talented individuals for teaching at the elementary (K-6) or secondary (5-12) levels. Admission requirements are established by the State of Indiana. Candidates may select either an elementary or secondary track. Passing all content licensing exams, suicide prevention training, and CPR certification is required before student teaching. The program is subject to any changes from the Indiana Department of Education.

T2T PROGRAM DESIGN

The Transition to Teaching Program is a 12-month intensive program of educational coursework, field experiences, and a semester of clinical practice (student teaching), which, when successfully completed, leads to a recommendation for an Indiana teaching license. Coursework includes asynchronous and live online instruction. Candidates must be available during the school day from January through May for full-time study and student teaching. Coursework begins in May and is compressed into modules throughout the program.

All courses are in alignment with Indiana Educator Standards (REPA 3 developmental and content standards), Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) Standards, The Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (InTASC) Principles, and the Indiana Office of Educator Licensing and Development.

ELEMENTARY TEACHING LICENSURE (24 hrs.)

- EDUC 4200, 4210, 4215, 4220, 4221, 4222, 4231, 4232, 4240, 4260, 4280

SECONDARY TEACHING LICENSURE (18 hrs.)

- EDUC 4200, 4210, 4215, 4250, 4251, 4240, 4260, 4280

*[See Separate Calendar in the Department of Teacher Education for this program]
Prerequisite for all T2T courses: Admission to the T2T program.*

EDUC (Transition to Teaching) COURSES

|-------------|---|----------------------|
| 4200 | The Profession of Teaching | 3 hrs. (1,0) |
| | Through coursework, candidates will develop insights to the culture and nature of instruction in K-12 classrooms. Candidates will develop an understanding of how to establish a community of learners through group norms, self-identification and discussion of the five areas of holistic behaviors for optimal productivity. Candidates will also develop an understanding of the principles of learning and student development as related to planning curriculum, learning activities, modes of delivery, and instructional pacing to meet the needs of each learner. | |
| 4210 | Psychology of Teaching | 3 hrs. (3, 0) |
| | Addresses the most significant concepts, principles, theories, methodologies, and issues in the field of educational psychology and child development. Coursework requires candidates to develop and apply an understanding of pedagogy by analyzing and integrating the science of learning with the art of teaching. The usage of technological formats to enhance learning will be addressed. | |

- 4215 Exceptional Learners 1 hr. (1, 0)
Provides an overview of the characteristics and educational needs of students with mild disabilities. Historical, legal, and social perspectives will be considered. Candidates will study language, processing, behavioral, social, and academic issues that interfere with the academic achievement of students. The goal of the class is to provide knowledge all teachers need to work with students with mild disabilities in inclusive classrooms and in the community. PREREQUISITE: EDUC 4200, EDUC 4210.
- 4220 Differentiated Curriculum and Instruction: Mathematics 1 hr. (1, 0)
Elementary education candidates will articulate clear learning objectives and instructional strategies using a repertoire of flexible teaching and learning approaches: addressing current curriculum and student standards, using aspects of students' background knowledge, diverse representations, and social/legal issues relating to special populations, and monitoring students' understanding of content through a variety of means. Candidates will study curriculum topics by examining the organization, materials, and resources of mathematics content and the implications for using them.
- 4221 Differentiated Curriculum and Instruction: STEM 1 hr. (1, 0)
Elementary education candidates will study curriculum topics of science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) by examining the organization, materials, and resources of each content area and the implications for using them in a classroom setting. Focus will be on the integration of concepts and the pedagogical implications of interdisciplinary instruction. Selection of teaching and learning strategies, such as modeling, cooperative learning, guided activities, use of journals, graphic organizers, and the inquiry method.
- 4222 Differentiated Curriculum and Instruction: Social Studies 1 hr. (1, 0)
Elementary education candidates will study the scope and sequence and the pedagogical implications of interdisciplinary instruction using social studies concepts. Organization, resources, and materials for the teaching of social studies will be addressed. Integration with children's literature will be a focus, as well as instructional differentiation for individual learning needs in the classroom.
- 4231 Developmental Reading 3 hrs. (1, 0)
Elementary education candidates will study linguistic and cognitive bases in the reading process: comprehension, word identification, vocabulary development, and methodologies will focus on various approaches for teaching reading, research and theoretical bases for various instructional approaches, instructing students with special reading needs, and fostering enjoyment and appreciation of reading.
- 4232 Diagnostic and Corrective Reading 3 hrs. (1, 0)
Elementary education candidates will demonstrate knowledge and understanding of reading difficulties, use a variety of instructional strategies, assess and document student progress, and plan/implement instruction based on knowledge of students, learning theory, subject matter, and curriculum needs. Varied forms of assessments include standardized tests, basal reading assessments, readability indexes, informal reading inventories, miscue analysis, doze procedures, individual conferences, portfolios, and journals.
- 4240 Multidimensional Assessment for Student Learning 2 hrs. (1, 0)
Designed to prepare elementary and secondary teacher candidates with a strong knowledge base of assessments and their use in the classroom. Candidates will learn what assessment is, when and how to use a variety of assessment strategies, understand how to create them, ways to interpret and analyze the data and results, and know how to use these interpretations to inform their teaching practice.
- 4250 Reading in the Content Areas (Secondary Level) 2 hrs. (2, 0)
Candidates examine research and instructional approaches to help improve the literacy of adolescents and adults. Focuses on current research that looks at the complexities of the reading process and how the process can be improved upon in the content areas at the secondary level. Candidates will design a lesson plan based upon the Department of Teacher Education's lesson plan format, including related activities to be implemented in the plan, research-based reading strategies, and focused purposes for reading.

- 4251 Development of Middle/High School Instruction 1 hr. (1, 0)
Focuses on meeting the specific needs of the early adolescent student. Physical, emotional, and intellectual changes prompt the teacher to use developmentally appropriate instruction in order to motivate the learner to achieve. Teaching methods such as real-life situations, cooperative learning, and hands-on experiences are emphasized.
- 4260 Creating an Environment for Student Learning 2 hrs. (1, 5)
Candidates will analyze and reflect on the essential elements and plans to create an environment that promotes student learning. Candidates will learn how to create a classroom climate that attends to interpersonal relations, motivational strategies, questioning techniques, school expectations, rules, routines, and procedures. A focus will be on developing responses to individual and cultural diversity, nonverbal communication skills, establishing and maintaining consistent standards of classroom behavior, and making the classroom environment as safe and conducive to learning as possible. Course includes a 5-week practicum in a school setting.
- 4280 Student Teaching (Clinical Practice) 4 hrs. (1, 35)
Observation, participation, and teaching in the school setting for 10-16 weeks on a full-day basis is required. Candidates are expected to participate in all aspects of the school day and responsibilities of the classroom teacher demonstrating professional dispositions. Candidates will complete a teacher work sample (TWS) during the student teaching assignment. Candidates are expected to attend the Student Teaching Seminar during the sessions where the Teacher Work Sample will be discussed. PREREQUISITE: All content licensure exams must be passed, suicide prevention training completed, and have current CPR certificates. All course work assignments must be successfully completed and a GPA of 3.0 must be earned.

GRADUATE BUSINESS PROGRAMS

MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (MBA)

- Professional Program: Designed for the working professional, this program is fully accredited by the Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP). The program is offered in Anderson and at multiple locations in the Indianapolis area. Students are part of a cohort that normally meets one night a week. The program can be completed in less than two years.
- Residential Program: Designed for individuals who desire graduate-level studies in a Christian environment immediately following completion of their undergraduate program. The program is experiential in nature, emphasizes professional development, and utilizes an intense living-learning approach. The program can be completed in 10 months and is fully accredited by ACBSP.
- Online Program: Designed specifically for individuals who prefer learning via an online platform. The program provides scheduling flexibility without sacrificing quality or rigor. Courses are taught by full-time FSB faculty. Each course consists of online discussions, interaction with the faculty member, and application assignments related to the concepts. This program is fully accredited by ACBSP.

DOCTOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (DBA)

Designed for individuals who are currently serving or desire to serve as faculty members at higher education teaching institutions. Students do in-depth study in four primary areas: teaching pedagogy, values/faith integration, research methodology, and a business major. A unique blending of on-campus residency weeks and directed studies result in a format that is of high quality and doable. The DBA program is fully accredited by ACBSP.

GRADUATE MUSIC PROGRAMS

SCHOOL OF MUSIC, THEATRE, AND DANCE

MASTER OF MUSIC EDUCATION (MME)

This 32-hour degree program is designed for the practicing music educator who has one or more years of experience as a music teacher. The program can be completed mostly in summer sessions (six weeks of coursework each summer), though a limited number of evening classes during the academic year may be required. Separate tracks of study are available for instrumental, choral, and general music specialists. Students may also pursue three levels of Orff Schulwerk Certification or other courses from the Summer Studies in Music Education program as part of this degree program.

GRADUATE SEMINARY PROGRAMS

SCHOOL THEOLOGY AND CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

MASTER OF DIVINITY (MDIV)

The purpose of this degree program is to equip ministers of the Gospel — men and women — for ordained service. The Master of Divinity is the basic ministerial leadership degree for those preparing for ministry. This degree provides a broad preparation with a solid core in Bible, history, theology, mission, and pastoral ministry.

The MDiv is offered both in residence and 100% online and is fully accredited by the Association of Theological Schools in both formats.

MASTER OF THEOLOGICAL STUDIES (MTS)

The Master of Theological Studies is a 45-hour degree program that provides a basic understanding of theological disciplines for further graduate study or for general educational purposes. The MTS provides a thesis track for students considering PhD or ThD programs as well as a non-thesis track. The MTS degree is not the preferred pathway to full-time ministry.

The MTS is offered both in residence and 100% online and is fully accredited by the Association of Theological Schools in both formats.

MASTER OF ARTS IN CHRISTIAN MINISTRY (MACM)

This 42-hour degree program is offered online and is designed for those currently serving in local congregations. The MACM degree offers specializations in student ministry, pastoral ministry, church administration, intercultural studies, and preaching.

The MACM is offered both in residence and 100% online and is fully accredited by the Association of Theological Schools in both formats.

Academic Support

ASPIRE ADVISING PROGRAM

Academic advising at Anderson University is integral to “educating for a life of faith and service in the church and society,” so the advising program is about more than merely selecting classes for an upcoming semester — it also must help students understand and begin to pursue their broader life purpose.

The heart of AU’s advising program isn’t a checklist or catalog. It’s the relationship between the student and his or her advisor. This is a partnership in which both student and advisor have important responsibilities. Advisors can help guide a student’s steps, but student success ultimately requires their careful thought and engagement.

The Anderson University advising program has been designed to encourage and empower students to:

- develop awareness of opportunities for academic, personal and professional growth
- design a multi-year strategic plan for selecting classes and complementary on- and off-campus activities and affiliations that enhance their learning experience
- implement their academic program and effectively manage the broader area of personal and professional development
- continually reflect on and evaluate the appropriateness of their current academic and professional-development plan, and modify the plan as goals may change and circumstances require

STUDENT’S ROLE IN THE ADVISING PROCESS

To get the best results, students should take an active role in the process, keeping the following information in mind when doing scheduling or other progression planning: Accept responsibility for their academic performance; prepare for each appointment by reviewing progress made, preparing the schedule they think they’ll need, and compiling a list of any questions they might have; and to:

- Accept responsibility for deciding which classes to put on their schedule.
- Be attentive to course prerequisites, and be aware of how their planning could be affected by classes that are scheduled on an every-other-year basis.
- Be familiar with AU deadlines, policies and procedures so they can enroll in the classes they want and can make any changes before the deadlines for adding or dropping courses.
- Talk with their advisor about extracurricular activities, internships, job prospects, etc., and develop a list of specific opportunities they might like to pursue.
- Document completion of professional development experiences through their advisor’s Canvas advising page.

ADVISOR’S ROLE IN THE PROCESS

Students may expect their advisor — as their partner in the advising process — to:

- Be approachable, listen carefully to the student’s questions and concerns, and be responsive to requests for meetings and assistance.
- Understand and explain how the university’s curriculum, requirements, policies and procedures apply to the student’s academic program.
- Provide honest guidance and perspective in the development of attainable educational and professional goals.
- Assist in exploring major and career options in keeping with the student’s aptitudes, values and areas of interest.
- Help track student progress in meeting the requirements of their program of study.
- Assist in identifying opportunities for personal growth, including involvement in student organizations, internships and off-campus programs and associations.
- Provide referrals to campus resources (e.g., Center for Career & Calling) that can assist students in achieving goals.
- Maintain strict confidentiality pursuant to FERPA regulations.

ALPHA PROGRAM

Anderson University believes that all students entering the institution deserve a fair chance to succeed. In turn, success depends on students being adequately prepared to meet the rigors of college-level study. The ALPHA program is designed to support students who have the potential to succeed but have not fully developed the skills necessary for collegiate success.

In considering new student applications, the committee for admissions carefully reviews several sources that serve as indicators of collegiate success. Based on these academic records and recommendations, the admissions committee may accept students conditionally for participation in the ALPHA program. As part of the program, students are expected to participate in a pre-collegiate orientation designed to acclimate students to campus before the beginning of classes. During the fall semester, participants are limited to enrolling in a maximum of 12-15 hours (depending on the major). In addition, these students are required to enroll in LART 1010 (Strategies for Academic Success), a three-credit-hour course focusing on academic, study, and life skills (including Emotional Intelligence skills development) necessary for success in college.

BRIDGES PROGRAM

Anderson University offers a full-service program for students with specific learning disabilities and/or ADHD to help them achieve their academic goals. The Bridges program is designed to create an educational environment that helps students transition to college successfully and develop skills that lead to future independence.

The program includes a 2-credit-hour college survival skills class which provides an extra layer of support during the transitions of the first semester. It is the philosophy of Anderson University that those students who are qualified and have a sincere motivation to complete a college education should be given every opportunity to work toward that goal. With an appreciation for individual learning styles, the university provides an atmosphere and environment that allow students with learning disabilities and/or ADHD to pursue their goals in a non-threatening and supportive environment.

Applicants for this program should contact Teresa Coplin, director of disability services for students, Kissinger Academic Center for Excellence, Anderson University, Anderson, IN 46012, (765) 641-4223.

Services may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- reasonable accommodations
- study-skills instruction
- time-management guidance
- emotional intelligence instruction
- advocacy/liaison
- scheduling assistance
- academic counseling
- study groups/tutoring (via the Kissinger Academic Center for Excellence)

DISABILITY SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

Anderson University offers learning-support services for all students who qualify under the ADAAA/Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. To secure reasonable accommodations, students must notify the appropriate institutional representative of the disability, provide current documentation of the disability, and request the specific accommodations needed. Certain accommodations may require advance notice to the director of disability services for students.

Documentation/evaluations must be completed by an appropriately trained professional and provide information about the current impact of the disability.

Documentation/evaluations should also include recommendations for appropriate accommodations. The institution must be given a reasonable opportunity to evaluate requests. Accommodations are considered based on individual need. Accommodations may be denied in cases that cause an undue burden to the institution or that fundamentally alter the nature of the program.

Students requesting reasonable accommodations or learning-support services should contact Teresa Coplin, director of disability services for students, Kissinger Academic Center for Excellence, (765) 641-4223, tjcoplin@anderson.edu.

KISSINGER ACADEMIC CENTER FOR EXCELLENCE

The KACE promotes academic success and excellence by providing a variety of free services for all Anderson University students. The center has individual and group-oriented resources, including self-directed, audio, audio-visual, and computer-assisted instructional support materials. The center focuses on helping all students achieve and/or exceed their academic goals. This assistance may be related to specific courses; to the improvement of skills, including reading, writing, and specific study skill competencies; and to preparing for special exams, such as the Core and Casa. From peer and online tutoring and study groups for virtually all courses to general assistance with reading and study skills, the center staff is eager to help students with their academic goals. In addition, Disability Services for Students is located within the center.

Academic Enrichment

CCCU OFF-CAMPUS STUDY PROGRAM

Anderson University is a member of the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities (CCCU), an organization of more than 180 colleges and universities. Through this membership, students are eligible to apply for a number of off-campus study programs through their CCCU GlobalEd Program. For more information, visit cccuglobaled.org or contact the University Registrar.

CENTER FOR CAREER AND CALLING

The Center for Career and Calling assists students in selecting a major and/or career path based on individual personalities, skills, abilities, and interests. To prepare for a competitive and rapidly changing job market, students may take advantage of one-on-one coaching appointments, résumé reviews, resources for networking and job search strategies, employer information sessions, career fair opportunities, and the Career and Life Planning class (LART 1200) offered the second half of Semester I. Additional information is available at anderson.edu/career.

CENTER FOR PUBLIC SERVICE

The Center for Public Service (CPS) is a unique honors program for exceptional students preparing for careers in public service. Established in 1972 through a generous grant from the Lilly Endowment, CPS helps students prepare for their public service careers through membership in professional organizations, attendance at professional conferences, internships, off-campus study, and connections with public service professionals working in the area of their career interest. CPS Fellows also use the program to develop a public service ethic, increase their awareness of societal needs, and gain firsthand knowledge of their career before graduation. The center's approach is purposely flexible and individualized. Membership in CPS is highly competitive and based on a comprehensive application process. Students of sophomore standing or above with a GPA of at least 3.40 are eligible to apply. For more information, contact CPS at cps@anderson.edu.

CHICAGO CENTER

Chicago Center semester and summer programs offer the opportunity for students from all majors to live and learn in Chicago while earning credit toward graduation. Three components comprise the program, including an internship in an urban organization, an independent study project that is related to the internship, and a course on urban issues. Students arrange their individualized program in cooperation with the AU campus liaison and Chicago Center staff. While in Chicago, students live and study with individuals from other small Midwest church-affiliated colleges and universities. The campus liaison is a faculty member from the Department of Social Work, Criminal Justice, and Family Science.

DEPARTMENTAL HONORS

Students also may earn honors in the departments in which they do their major work. A student must attain a 3.0 GPA in all courses, a 3.5 GPA in all courses taken in a department, and must fulfill the specific departmental requirements. Annually, each department may have at least one student receiving departmental honors; the maximum number receiving honors is approximately 10 percent of the graduates in the department. Departmental and institutional honors are open only to students pursuing a bachelor's degree and are awarded after all work for the degree is completed.

HONOR SOCIETIES

Anderson University has chosen to participate in a number of national academic honor societies. Students whose academic achievement is sufficiently meritorious will be invited to join an honor society (or societies) based on overall grade point average and academic major. National academic honor society chapters fostering the pursuit of scholarship at AU include the following:

- Alpha Chi (top 10% of juniors and seniors maintaining a GPA of 3.7 or higher)
- Phi Eta Sigma (freshmen)
- Alpha Mu Gamma (modern languages)
- Delta Mu Delta (business)
- Iota Tau Alpha (athletic training)
- Kappa Delta Pi (education)
- Kappa Mu Epsilon (mathematics)
- Phi Alpha (social work)
- Phi Alpha Theta (history)
- Pi Kappa Lambda (music)
- Pi Sigma Alpha (political science)
- Psi Chi (psychology)
- Sigma Tau Delta (English)
- Sigma Theta Tau (nursing)
- Sigma Zeta – Upsilon chapter (mathematics and science)

HONORS STUDY

Honors study at Anderson University varies by department. In general, such study may take the form of advanced placement, institutional credit by examination, special sections in some courses, certain reading courses, tutorials, seminars, and individual study.

In some instances, honors study begins at the freshman and sophomore levels, particularly advanced placement and special sections. Seminars and individual study are usually implemented at the junior and senior levels. Special reading courses and tutorials may be taken at either level.

At any level, the primary purpose of honors study is not acceleration but enrichment in both scope and depth. Students considering honors study should consult their advisors or the university registrar.

For more information on honors study at Anderson University, see the Honors Program section under Courses of Instruction in this catalog.

INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

Anderson University sponsors 20 intercollegiate athletic (10 men's and 10 women's) teams within the mission of the university and the NCAA Division III philosophy. Beyond traditional athletics, Anderson University also maintains an esports team, competing in various games. The athletic program is understood as integral to the academic program, with the primary emphasis on the student-athlete. The department of athletics strives to recruit students who meet the academic standards and value the ethos of the university. For more information, visit athletics.anderson.edu or contact the athletic director.

SUMMER STUDY

The summer school program offers students the possibility of attaining a full semester's credit by participating throughout the entire summer term in a variety of delivery formats (e.g. face-to-face, blended, or online). Generally, summer classes are offered in either two 7-week sessions or one 14-week session.

Also possible in summer are specially arranged courses such as directed studies, TRI-S Global and study abroad programs. These courses are arranged to help students meet educational goals during the summer without requiring an on-campus presence.

The summer school schedule of classes lists course offerings and information about other educational opportunities. Students wanting to enroll in summer classes should contact their academic advisors to determine courses that will fulfill graduation or other requirements. Additionally, students wanting to take summer courses must meet with their financial aid counselors before registering for classes. Students planning coursework elsewhere during the summer should consult the registrar's office.

TRI-S GLOBAL AND STUDY ABROAD

The TRI-S and Study Abroad Office serves as a resource for students interested in study abroad, international or intercultural internships, or short-term service/learning experiences (TRI-S). The Tri-S and Study Abroad staff maintains and directs a wide range of semester and summer programs focused on developing intercultural competence and assists students in integrating an international or intercultural study experience with their degree program at Anderson University. They also advise students regarding the various aspects of international and intercultural study, including program selection, visas and travel documents, financial aid, safety and security issues, and the transfer of academic credit. Students are encouraged to contact the Tri-S and Study Abroad Office early in their degree program when considering international or intercultural study opportunities.

TRI-S (Study, Serve, and Share), short-term study abroad opportunities, seeks to expand the college campus into the world and open challenging and stimulating cross-cultural encounters through international and intercultural learning and service opportunities. Nearly 300 individuals annually volunteer to build, repair, paint, teach, counsel, research, sing, or provide nursing services in Africa, Australia, Asia, Europe, Latin America, the Caribbean, and the United States. These experiences are intensified as students work and/or live with individuals of different cultures. Tri-S programs are offered in the summer, during the international opportunity between semesters, or during spring break week.
