

D. TAX FILERS

Complete this section if the student or parents have filed or will file a 2018 IRS income tax return. The best way to verify income is by using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (DRT), if eligible, that is part of filing the FAFSA. In most cases, no further documentation is needed to verify income information. Please resubmit your FAFSA once the DRT has been used.

Please check all that apply.

- The parent(s) The student has used the Data Retrieval Tool to transfer 2018 IRS income tax return information into the student's FAFSA.
- The parent(s) The student is unable or chooses not to use the Data Retrieval Tool in the FAFSA, and instead will provide Anderson University a 2018 IRS Tax Return Transcript.
- The parents
filed separate 2018 IRS income tax returns, and each parent will provide their own 2018 IRS Tax Return Transcript, since using the Data Retrieval Tool is not an option.

In the event that a tax return transcript is not available, Anderson University will accept a signed copy of your 2018 tax return.

E. NONTAX FILERS

Complete this section if the student or parent(s) will not file and are not required to file a 2018 income tax return with the IRS.

The federal government now requires parents of dependent students to have the IRS verify if no tax return was filed. If you fit this category and did not file a 2018 tax return, you must request a Verification of Nonfiling Letter from the IRS to submit in addition to this worksheet. For more information on nonfiling letters, see information on the IRS website: <https://www.irs.gov/individuals/get-transcript>.

Dependent students who did not file a 2018 tax return are not required to submit an IRS Verification of Nonfiling Letter.
